2010 OUTLOOK

The view for Oklahoma State head coach Mike Gundy has changed a lot recently.

Not the view from his new office atop Boone Pickens Stadium. It's the view in the rear-view mirror that has changed dramatically. Gundy's building process at Oklahoma State paid off with 18 wins over the last two years. And during that span, Oklahoma State took big steps into the national spotlight with weekly AP rankings, including trips into the top 10, four first-team All-Americans, three first-round draft choices and two Sports Illustrated covers since the kickoff of the 2008 season.

But entering 2010, the view dead ahead is different as well. Oklahoma State will open the year with a new quarterback, a young receiving corps, a virtually new offensive line, a new set of linebackers and a rebuilt secondary. The heart and soul of those 18 wins departed with the senior class and looking to take its place will be the headliners from OSU's recruiting classes that have been ranked as the best in school history.

"We have some guys with ability on both sides of the ball who could show up quicker than most people expect."

- Mike Gundy

"I've never entered a year with so many new people in critical positions in my 20 years of coaching," Gundy said prior to the opening of the 2010, "especially with a program that has enjoyed the level of success that we have. We were fortunate to have those guys around here for the last three or four years to carry us. Now we have a lot of new faces who will be playing in crucial situations."

Oklahoma State is coming off a 9-4 record that included a school-record six conference victories. The season was capped with an appearance in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. However, only 10 position starters return, which means fall camp will be even more interesting than usual.

"There are good young players in the program that will be competing for playing time," Gundy said. "I think our system will help those guys improve faster than ever because of what we have here. There is also an advantage for those young guys because they have been on teams that have won a lot."

"It might take them a few games to get going," he added, "so we'll be looking for ways to be successful early and win some games."

"We have some guys with ability on both sides of the ball who could show up quicker than most people expect," Gundy concluded.

OFFENSE

Due to a variety of issues, Oklahoma State evolved from a big-play team to a grind-it-out attack in 2009. With the loss of two first-round draft choices and the school's all-time leader in total offense, not to mention four starters in the offensive line, the Cowboys' personality for 2010 is still to be determined. But the infusion of highly-respected offensive coordinator Dana Holgorsen still leads to optimism from the Cowboy faithful.

"We were further ahead in the spring that I thought we would be," Gundy said of the transition. "Heck, we were probably further ahead the first day of practice than I thought we would be. But we still lack game experience."

OFFENSIVE LINE

The pure black and white of the matter is that the Cowboys must replace 144 career starts in the offensive line, including four starters. Also included in the losses is Russell Okung, the sixth overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft, a unanimous All-American and the Big 12 offensive lineman of the year.

The lone returning starter is Lane Taylor. He was a surprise last fall when the redshirt freshman came from nowhere to nail down a starting spot at guard and solidify the OSU offensive wall. This year he will be the foundation, but the Cowboys will still have some options.

Junior Grant Garner is the leading candidate to open at center. He is an intelligent, but inexperienced player who appeared to take a step forward during spring drills. While short on experience, Garner is a player that the staff had ticketed for playing time as far back as his true freshman season.

The guard positions look to be the strength of the new-look offensive line. With the return of Taylor as a starter and senior Anthony Morgan, who opened the 2009 season as a starter, OSU has some building blocks. Junior Jonathan Rush was listed atop the depth chart at the end of 2009 spring drills, but injuries kept him off the field. He looks to be a prime candidate for starting duties in 2010 and gives OSU three nice options on the inside.

The tackle positions were manned at the conclusion of spring drills by Nick Martinez and Parker Graham. Martinez has been on campus for four years, but will be seeing his first extensive playing time this fall if the depth chart holds up. Across the way, Graham provided part of the "wow" factor when the true freshmen arrived in Stillwater last fall. His year as a redshirt has done nothing to dampen enthusiasm for his potential.

Another candidate outside is Levy Adcock. His upside could be significant and if he can take that next step in his second year on campus, things might change fast in the starting lineup. He brings size (6-6, 330) and athleticism to the table.

THE BOTTOM LINE

The lack of game experience in an offensive line is always an issue and replacing 144 starts won't be done overnight. However, this is an area, under Joe Wickline, that has consistently improved during the course of each season.

2010 OUTLOOK

Brandon Weeden

RECEIVER

The Cowboy receivers were thrown into the deep end of the pool last fall with the sudden loss of Dez Bryant. As a result, the familiar faces of Hubert Anyiam, Justin Blackmon, Josh Cooper, Tracy Moore and Company are now familiar, experienced and probably poised to become difference makers in 2010. They will be joined by a variety of newcomers and all have a chance to shine in the new offense.

Anyiam, Cooper, Moore and Blackmon were all listed as starters at the end of spring drills. Anyiam is coming off the most productive year of the group, but each has shown they have some "big-play" in them.

The new OSU offense should also provide a chance for sophomore Isaiah Anderson, one of the fastest Cowboys, to blossom. Rugged sophomore Justin Horton joins Moore at the inside receiver spot and his potential is intriguing. Redshirt freshman Michael Harrison was listed as Cooper's backup at the end of spring. Colton Chelf, a senior, was also a spring standout who was penciled in as Anyiam's understudy.

The Cowboy receivers are poised to become difference makers in 2010.

THE BOTTOM LINE

The Cowboys return five of their top seven receivers, statistically, from last season and the losses include Dez Bryant, who only played in three games a year ago. There are some newcomers who could become a factor here, but OSU's starters are solid with depth the biggest question to be answered.

QUARTERBACK

The loss of all-time everything Zac Robinson is certainly significant and can't be emphasized enough. He spent the past three years as the starter and rates with Mike Gundy and Josh Fields among the best quarterbacks in OSU history. However, 26-year-old Brandon Weeden, the former professional baseball player, was solid in the spring during the installation of Holgorsen's system. In fact, Weeden was so solid that questions on the starting quarterback job for 2010 have been all but answered. Weeden's most extensive career playing time came when jump-started a second-half rally in OSU's 2009 win over Colorado. He had the look of a gamer and his arm strength has never been questioned.

Weeden jump-started a second half rally in OSU's 2009 win over Colorado. He had the look of a gamer, and his arm strength has never been questioned.

One thing for certain is that Weeden will be the driver for the quarterbacks when they travel as a group. Redshirt freshman Clint Chelf, and true freshmen Johnny Deaton and Nathan Sorenson, complete the list of contenders for playing time. The translation is that OSU has perhaps the oldest quarterback in the country but still may have youngest group of QBs in the nation.

"We have some young quarterbacks in the program who are looking to compete, but Brandon is our quarterback," Gundy said following spring drills.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Weeden looks entrenched as the starter with the army of freshmen looking to separate themselves. Regardless, the Cowboy staff has lots of options heading into 2010 and the quarterback position likely doesn't top the "worry list" heading into camp.

2010 OUTLOOK

RUNNING BACK

Oklahoma State has led the Big 12 in rushing each of the last four seasons and has had three straight all-Big 12 running backs. One of those, 2008 first-team All-American Kendall Hunter, returns in 2010. Hunter ran for more than 1,500 yards as a sophomore but is coming off an injury-plagued junior season that saw him run for less than 400 yards. However, any concerns of an injury hangover were put to rest in the spring when he was nothing shy of spectacular as a runner and receiver.

"It was good to see him out there looking like himself again," Gundy said. "It's easy to forget what a difference-maker he can be."

Hunter, who is poised to end his career as one of OSU's all-time leading rushers, has plenty of help in carrying the load. Sophomore Travis Miller is coming off his own impressive spring. And the Cowboys have a pair of headline recruits in redshirt freshman Jeremy Smith and true freshman Joseph Randle, who could also contribute.

And just for good measure, Oklahoma State also returns a first-team all-conference fullback in rising senior Bryant Ward.

THE BOTTOM LINE

The running back position, as usual, is a strength at OSU with an experienced and decorated senior leading a group of talented underclassmen.

DEFENSE

On defense, Oklahoma State got "Younger" last season – as in Bill Young. The former Cowboy player returned home from the University of Miami to become defensive coordinator at his alma mater, and no one could have predicted the sphere of his influence. Under his direction, the Cowboys climbed from No. 93 to No. 31 in total defense and set a new school record by allowing 95.8 rushing yards per game. The Cowboys began forcing turnovers at a new, brisker pace as the defense helped key the surge to a second straight nine-win season.

Young's second season in Stillwater, on paper, looks to be a major rebuild. His secondary needs to be overhauled, his entire linebacker corps has departed and the defensive line is full of returning players but is still evolving.

So what's the good news? The Cowboys have a very talented group of safeties and the coaching staff left the spring feeling better about the cornerbacks than they did entering drills. The linebackers waiting on deck could provide an injection of foot-speed to the defense. And when a defense needs to be rebuilt, using the linemen as a foundation is always a good start.

DEFENSIVE LINE

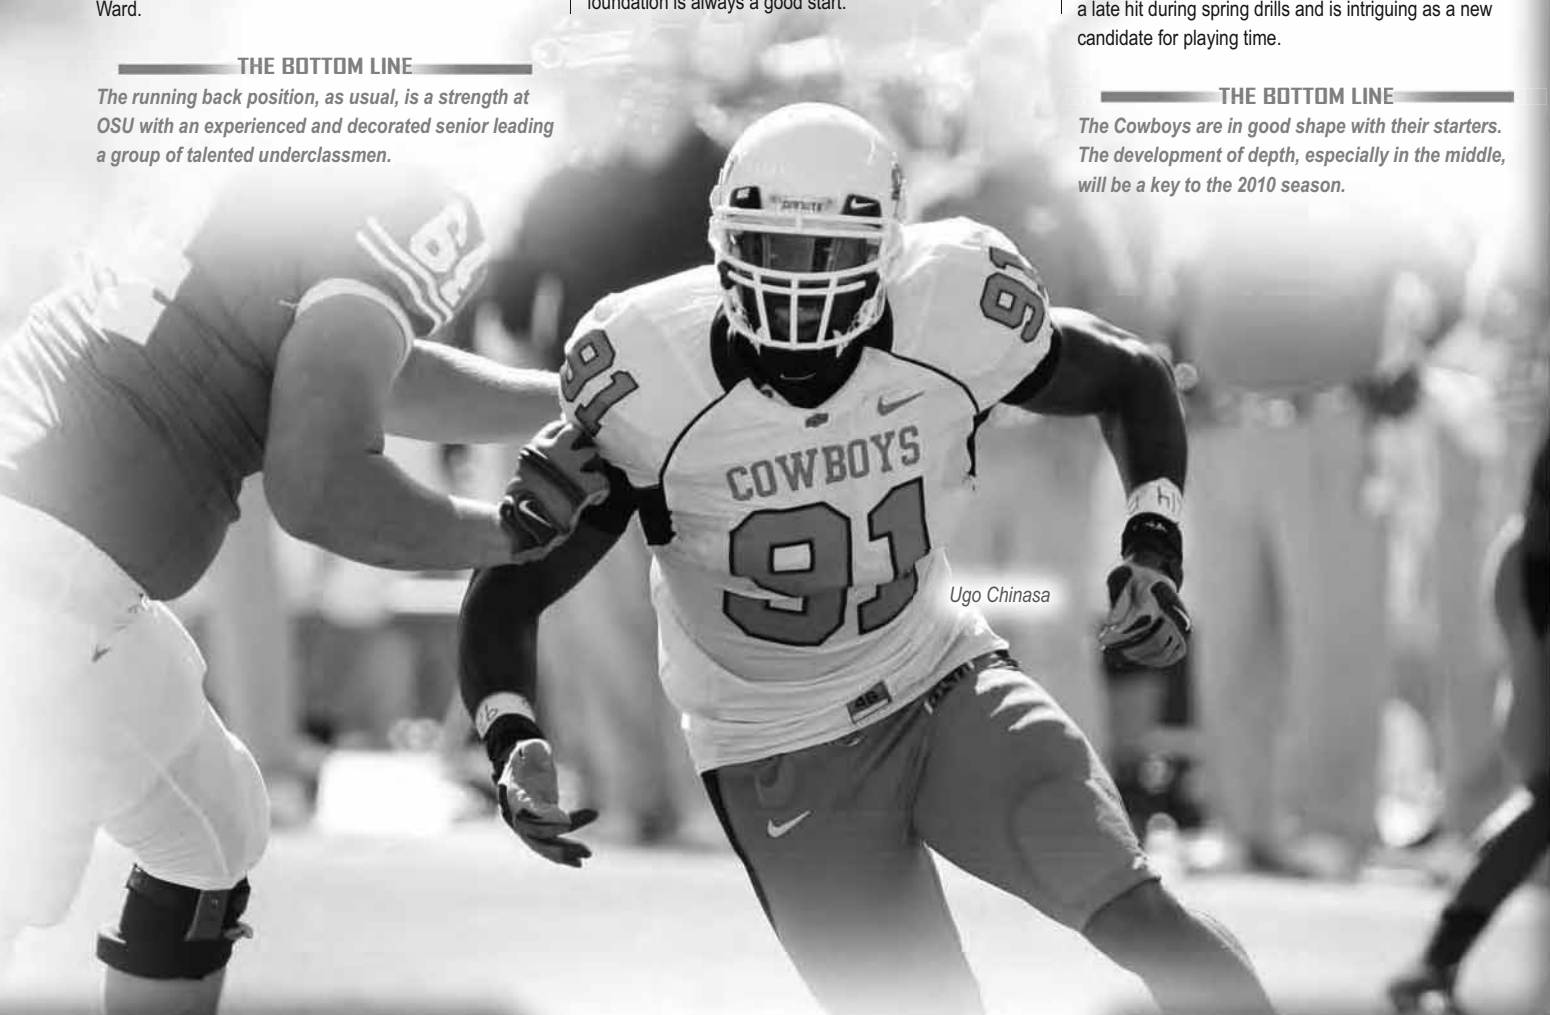

In years past, OSU has had to hide its lack of depth up front. In 2010, the defensive line figures to be an early strength and should lead the way while the back seven spends some time maturing. OSU returns both starting ends, Jamie Blatnick and Ugo Chinasa, with quality backups in Richetti Jones and Darius Hart. Inside, Chris Donaldson and Shane Jarka move from the quality backup category into starters, and both have helped stabilize the defensive wall.

It will be up to the young guys to provide depth inside. Nigel Nicholas saw a lot of action as a redshirt freshman and is a converted defensive end who is athletic and full of potential. Another transplant, former offensive lineman DeJuan Davis, was a late hit during spring drills and is intriguing as a new candidate for playing time.

In 2010, the defensive line figures to be an early strength and should lead the way as the back seven spends some time maturing.

THE BOTTOM LINE

The Cowboys are in good shape with their starters. The development of depth, especially in the middle, will be a key to the 2010 season.

Ugo Chinasa

2010 OUTLOOK

LINEBACKER

Oklahoma State loses all three starters from a year ago in Andre Sexton, Donald Booker and Patrick Lavine. Lavine and Sexton played virtually every snap of their college careers. Needless to say the linebacker corps will have a new look in 2010.

The building process is eased dramatically by the return of Orie Lemon. The 2008 starter in the middle was injured just prior to the 2009 season opener and spent the season as a redshirt. He is expected back in full form for the fall and will be the starter inside. He is a proven commodity in the middle.

Orie Lemon is expected back at full form after missing the 2009 season due to injury.

The outside 'backers feature James Thomas and Justin Gent as the starters entering fall camp. Both have been in the program for a while and have shown the penchant for making plays. Their backups are freshmen Joe Mitchell and LeRon Furr. Expect both to see the field a lot in the fall. Mitchell joined the program in the spring and turned heads almost immediately, while Furr is another defender that the staff is eager to see in the heat of battle.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Everything is new. Orie Lemon will be the ringleader as a returning starter, but everyone else on the field will be new or in new roles. Despite the turnover, there is a quiet confidence surrounding this group.

CORNERBACK

The corners will be key to the success of 2010. That statement may seem obvious, but the Cowboys lost a pair of senior starters there and inexperience and youth are waiting in the wings.

Brodrick Brown is listed at 5-8 but has spent two seasons lining up opposite Dez Bryant and he has proven himself a tough and competitive player. He had a nice outing in the 2010 Cotton Bowl as a surprise starter and he solidified his position in the spring. His backup is true freshman Devin Hedgepeth. A smart and athletic newcomer, Hedgepeth was an early enrollee, joining OSU in January of 2010.

Across the field, Andrew McGee looks to be the starter as he battles back from injury. The rising senior was having a solid 2009 when injury cost him playing time late and in the spring. Andrae May, a true sophomore, is a viable candidate for playing time as well.

THE BOTTOM LINE

OSU's corners are in transition, but there is talent in the secondary. Spring drills were encouraging, and the fall will be interesting as they grow into their roles.

SAFETY

The two safety positions are among the most talented on the OSU roster. In fact, junior Markelle Martin may be one of the more talented players in the Big 12 Conference. He is coming off an excellent sophomore season and should be in line for all-conference honors in 2010. His backup is Daytawion Lowe, a former Oklahoma high school standout and strong student.

Lowe was perhaps the best player among OSU's 2009 freshman class.

Johnny Thomas and Victor Johnson have been tag teaming the free safety spot and both are athletic and now maturing.

The two safety positions are among the most talented on the OSU roster.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Consider the two safety spots as positions of strength heading into the season. The Cowboys are athletic, somewhat experienced, and have enjoyed some success roaming the secondary.

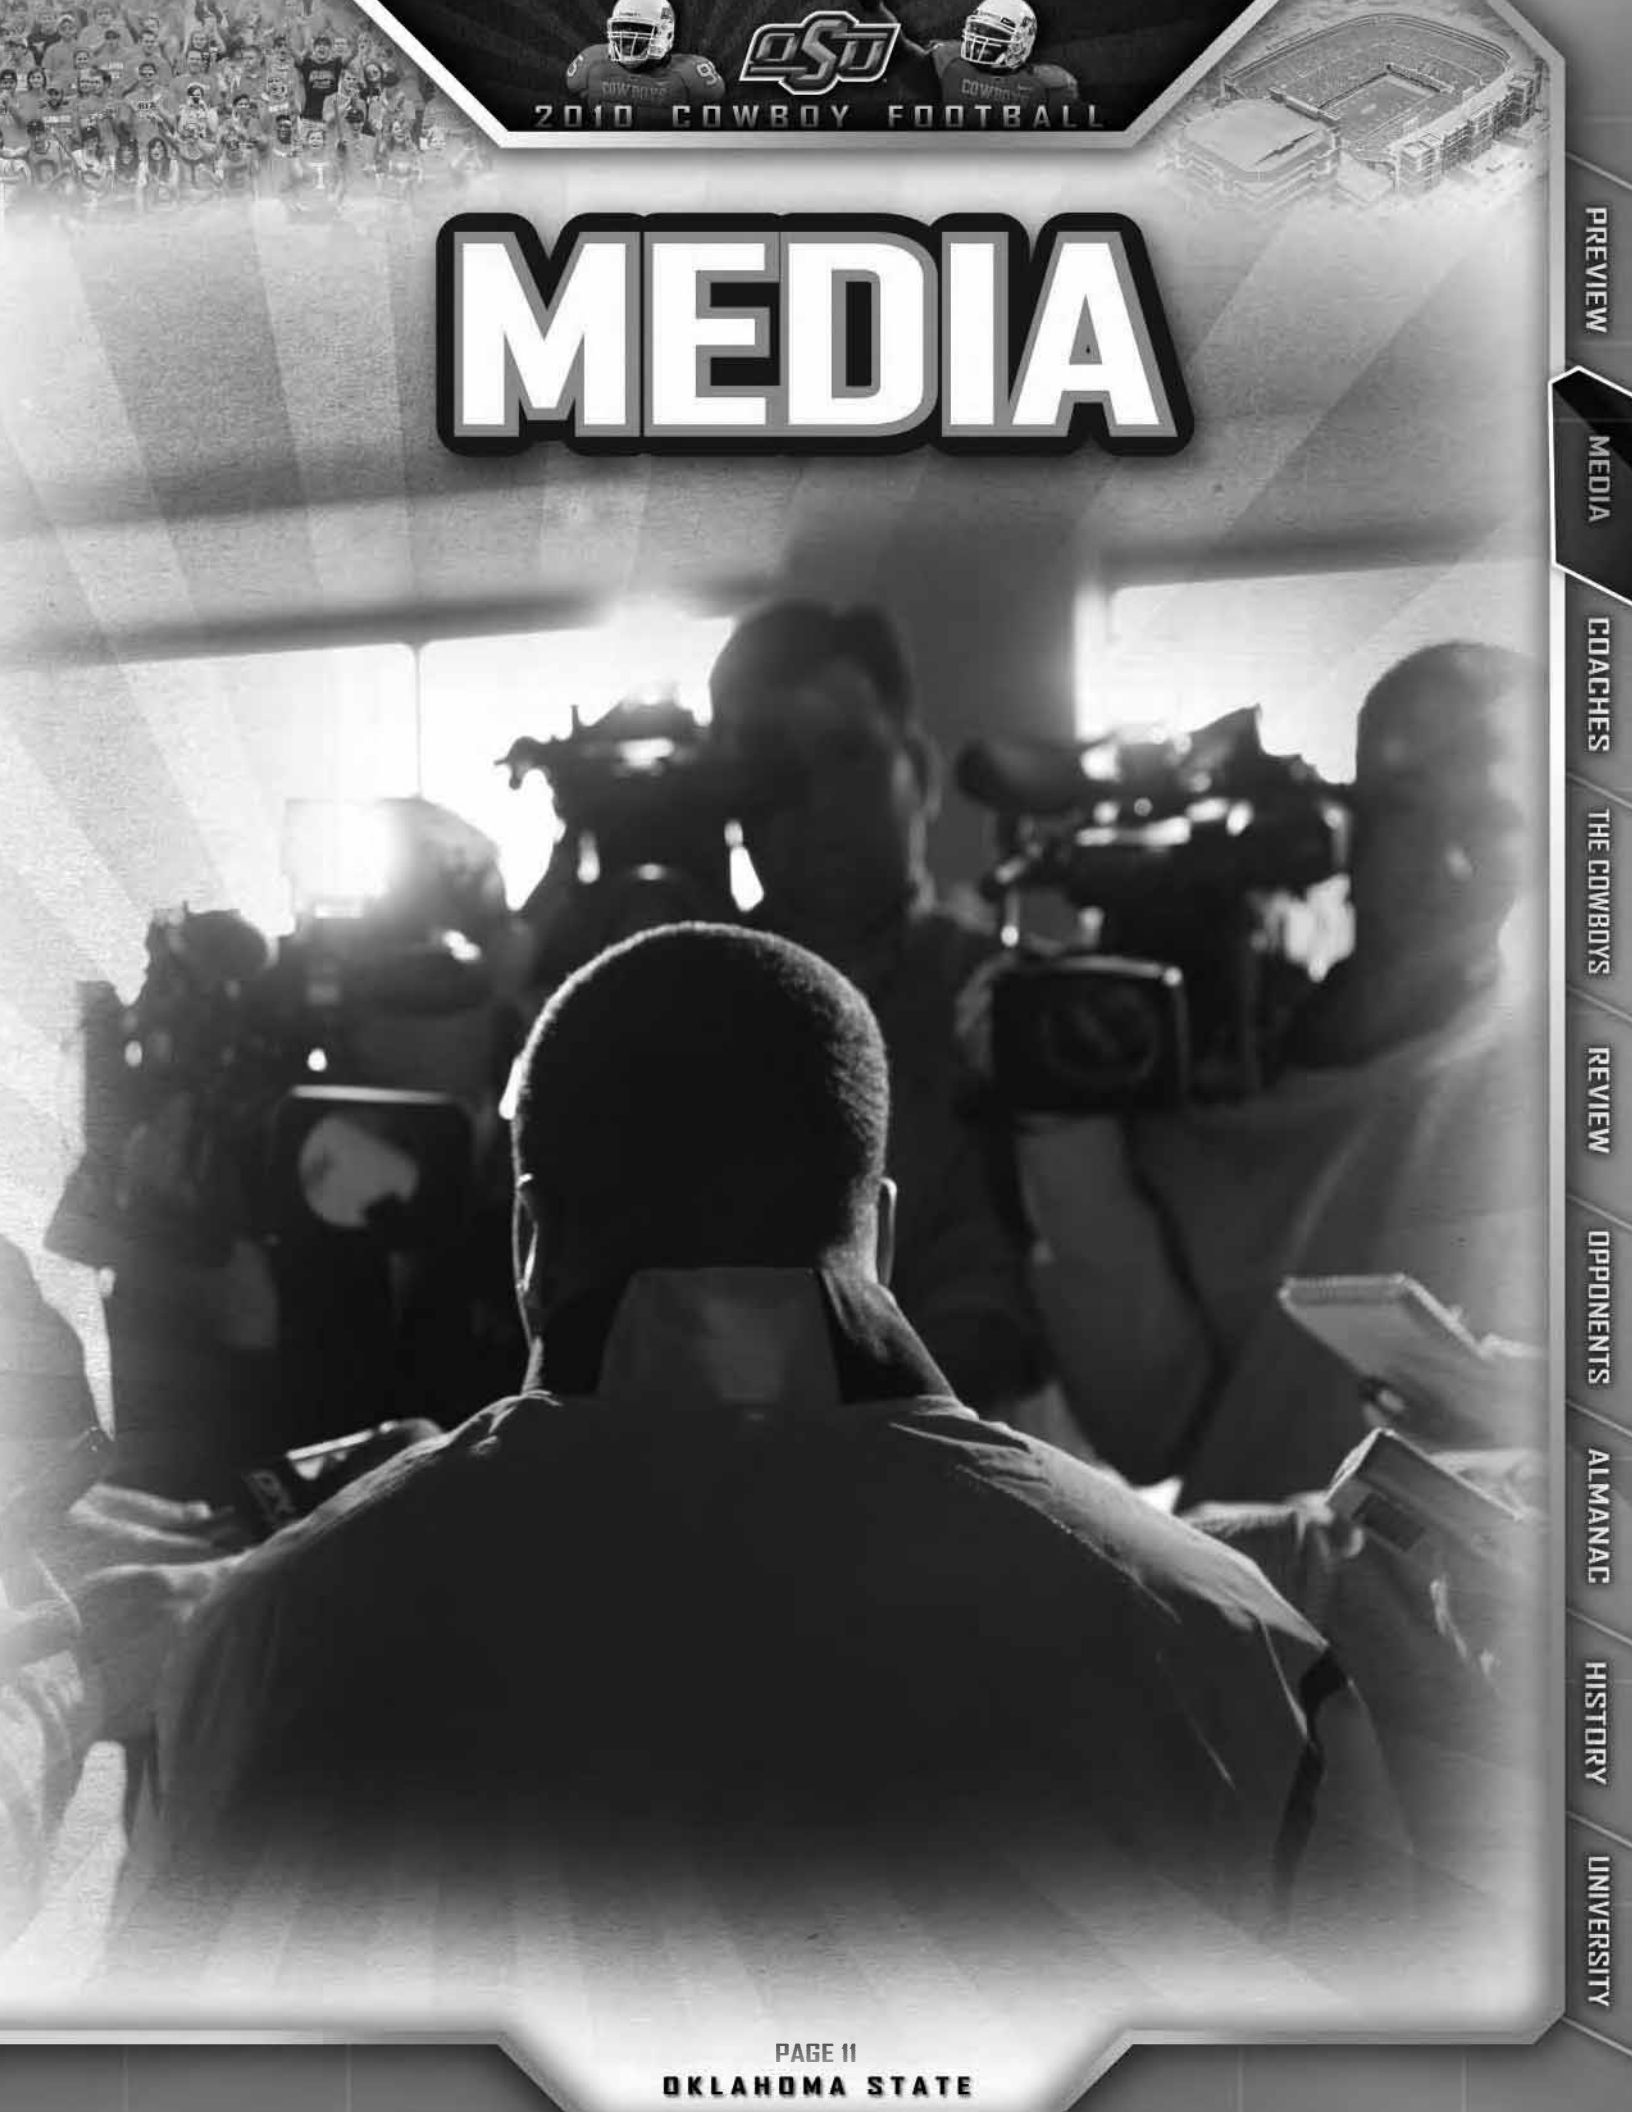

SPECIAL TEAMS

Oklahoma State is in excellent position in the special teams with the big leg of punter Quinn Sharp and the accurate Dan Bailey both returning. Bailey will end his career as one of OSU's all-time leading scorers and Sharp continues the tradition of standout punters.

Oklahoma State also returns Marc Yerry as the ranking long snapper and he is in the middle of an impressive career. The return game at Oklahoma State has been a strength for years. With the loss of Perrish Cox, that role looks to be up for grabs in both punt returns and kickoff returns.

MEDIA POLICIES

WELCOME TO 2010

Thank you for your continued coverage of the Oklahoma State Cowboys and Big 12 football. Please let us know if we can assist your efforts at any time during the 2010 football campaign. The following is a list of policies and procedures that are in place for the season. Please contact the OSU media relations office with any questions or concerns.

OSU MEDIA RELATIONS

The Oklahoma State media relations office is located on the second floor of the Athletics Center in room 220. The office is located in the southwest corner of the original Gallagher-Iba Arena. The main number is 405-744-7714. OSU also maintains a satellite office on the coaches level of the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium.

SEASON CREDENTIALS

Season credentials for Oklahoma State must be requested through OSU's official website. To begin the process, visit www.okstate.com/media. Only media covering the Cowboys on a consistent basis and on assignment will be considered for season credentials. A lost season credential will unfortunately result in credentials being issued on a game-by-game basis as available. The deadline for requesting season credentials is Monday, Aug. 9. No season credentials will be awarded after that date.

SINGLE-GAME CREDENTIALS

Credentials for individual games should be requested one week in advance to be considered. Those requests should also be made at www.okstate.com/media. Credentials will only be granted to media on assignment.

Credentials available include:

MEDIA

This credential is for writers. It allows press box access and a press box seat, as well as access to postgame interview rooms. It does not allow sideline access until postgame. The media pass is also good for visiting radio network crew members who do not require sideline access.

PHOTO

This credential includes sideline access, interview room access, as well as access to the press box and field level photo work room. Photo credential holders will not have a reserved seat in the press box. For sideline access, photographers must pick up a game-day armband in the press box.

RADIO/TV

These credentials allow for access to the broadcast level of Boone Pickens Stadium. Television passes, when accompanied by a game-day armband, provide sideline access and interview room access. Armbands are also required for radio sideline reporters.

VIDEO

Videographers are welcome to shoot from the broadcast level of Boone Pickens Stadium or on the sidelines. Because of the tight sidelines at OSU, shooting areas for each game are designated on a stadium map that is distributed with armbands. The designated shooting areas are designed to allow space for working media as well as OSU and visiting spirit groups. The OSU media relations office will have a photo marshal on the field to assist the media in their game-day efforts.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

For highlights of Cowboy games, or to obtain practice footage, contact OSU media relations. Highlights will also be loaded on the Big 12 Conference FTP site each Sunday evening. Contact OSU or the Big 12 Conference communications office for more details.

OSU FTP SITE

In the fall of 2010, Oklahoma State Athletics will be providing video highlights for media use on its FTP site. To access the site and for password information, contact Kevin Klintworth or Gavin Lang of the OSU media relations office.

MEDIA WILL CALL

The will call window for credentials is located on the south side of Boone Pickens Stadium next to Gate 1 (adjacent to the media entrance). The window will open three hours prior to kickoff and will remain open until kickoff. Media arriving after kickoff should call the Boone Pickens Stadium press box at 405-744-5757 for assistance.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking for OSU home games is located in the parking structure just north of the Monroe and Hall of Fame intersection. The structure is just northwest of Boone Pickens Stadium. From 6th Street (Highway 51), the primary east-west passage through Stillwater, turn north on Monroe Street and proceed through the OSU campus through Hall of Fame Avenue to the garage. From Hall of Fame Avenue, which loops around the north side of campus, turn north on Monroe. A shuttle will be available to transport media to the press entrance at the stadium beginning three hours prior to kickoff and it will continue to operate until the press box is closed.

STADIUM ACCESS

Working members of the media should enter at the pass gate located in the southeast corner of the stadium. Elevators to the press and broadcast levels are located inside the stadium in the southeast corner.

INTERVIEW ROOMS

The visiting team locker room and interview room are located in the Athletics Center, in the east end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium. To access the interview area, enter the Heritage Hall museum off of the east plaza of the stadium (east end zone) and head just south into the interview area. Oklahoma State will provide an escort for visiting media and media relations directors. The Cowboys are housed in the west end zone and OSU will provide an escort to OSU's postgame location as well. The Cowboy interviews will take place in the team theater room just up the northwest tunnel. The OSU postgame locker room is closed.

PRACTICE POLICIES

Oklahoma State's football practices are primarily closed to the public and media with some exceptions (media will be notified in advance of those dates). The first portion of the workouts, generally the first 15-20 minutes, are at times open to photographers and videographers. Again, media will be notified in advance of those opportunities. Media planning to shoot practice should contact the OSU media relations office in advance to confirm arrangements and practice times. Pending weather conditions, OSU generally practices on the fields located just east of the Athletics Center (the intersection of Duck and Mathews Streets).

PLAYER AVAILABILITY

All interviews with Oklahoma State student-athletes should be coordinated through the media relations office. During the season, OSU players are available Mondays at the weekly media luncheon and Monday post-practice. Telephone interviews may be arranged Tuesdays for out-of-state media by contacting the media relations office. All interview requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance. OSU's first-year players (true freshmen and transfers) are not available for interviews.

STAFF INTERVIEWS

Interviews with the OSU coaching staff should also be arranged through the media relations office. Head coach Mike Gundy and OSU assistant coaches are available after practice Monday. Telephone interviews with the head coach or staff members can be arranged by contacting Kevin Klintworth or Gavin Lang. As with the student-athletes, interview requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance to help expedite the process.

MONDAY MEDIA LUNCHEONS

Each game week during the football season, OSU hosts a media luncheon in the south club level of Boone Pickens Stadium. Lunch is served at noon with requested players and coordinators available at 12:30. Head coach Mike Gundy speaks at 1 p.m., followed by the offensive and defensive coordinators. Contact the media relations office for more details.

CONFERENCE CALLS

Head coach Mike Gundy is available via teleconference on Sundays of game week at 3 p.m. Central time and on Mondays on the Big 12 Conference call at 10:20 a.m. Contact OSU media relations for more information on both calls.

MEDIA POLICIES

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com, a web site that is a service of the Football Writers Association of America, provides updated media information, statistics, game notes and photos from Division I (FBS) schools from around the country, including OSU and most of OSU's opponents.

WEEKDAY CAMPUS PARKING

Media who visit the OSU campus on a regular basis for practice or other media functions can obtain on-campus vendor parking permits by stopping by Parking Services, located on the northeast corner of the intersection of Monroe Street and Hall of Fame Ave.

VISITING RADIO

The visiting radio booth is located on the broadcast level (upper concourse) of Boone Pickens Stadium on the south side of the field. Only the official radio network of the visiting school will have access to the booth. OSU radio rights holder Learfield Communications provides three co-op lines in the visitors' booth and a dry pair in the visitors' locker room. Contact the media relations office for more information.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

On game days, the Boone Pickens Stadium press box opens four hours prior to kickoff. The media meal will be served beginning two hours prior to kickoff. Game notes and flip cards will be available before the game. Official stats, notes and quotes will be available during and following the game. Mike Gundy's postgame news conference will be available in the press box through the in-house television network for those on tight deadlines. Quotes will also be provided from the visiting players and coaches.

CAMPUS MAP

From Oklahoma City
(Will Rogers Airport)

Take Meridian North to I-44 East and then to I-35 North. Follow I-35 all the way to Highway 51 (Stillwater, exit #174) and travel east approximately 17 miles into town. Take a left on Western and follow it as it turns into Hall of Fame. To reach the game-day media parking lot, turn north off of Hall of Fame on Monroe Street and proceed to the parking structure.

From Tulsa
(International Airport)

Take I-244 West to the Cimarron Turnpike (Highway 64/412 West). After paying a second toll, DO NOT exit on Perkins, instead follow the road, which is Boomer and later becomes Main, into town. Turn right on McElroy and proceed west to Monroe. Turn left on Monroe to reach the parking structure.

LEARFIELD SPORTS AND THE COWBOY NETWORK

LEARFIELD SPORTS

For nearly 40 years, Learfield Sports has excelled in administering the multimedia rights for a host of reputable colleges and universities. Currently, the company not only represents Oklahoma State Athletics, but more than 50 other collegiate properties across the country. Additionally, Learfield Sports secures marketing partnerships for the Black Coaches and Administrators (BCA) and spearheads corporate partner platforms for the Big Ten Conference and the Western Athletic Conference. The company also provides exclusive sports programming to more than 1,000 radio stations throughout the country, and it shares a strategic affiliation with Team Services, LLC, affording Learfield Sports' partners a distinct advantage in the areas of venue consulting, naming rights and market research.

Texas-based Learfield Sports is the operating unit of Learfield Communications, Inc. (Learfield), which was founded in 1972. Learfield's original name, Missouri Network, Inc., was a product of Clyde Lear and Derry Brownfield that eventually grew from a small farm network heard over six Missouri radio stations into a diverse media enterprise with more than 350 employees and corporate headquarters in Jefferson City, Mo.

As a valuable extension to the company, Learfield Sports launched in 1975 with the radio rights to the University of Missouri. Today, with 200 full-time people, Learfield Sports' agreements with university athletic departments are broad in scope and include management of a wide variety of sponsorship, media and marketing inventory, leveraged through strategic long-term relationships with these partner schools. On a national level, Learfield Sports celebrates the opportunity to stamp its name on one of the industry's most prestigious awards – the Directors' Cup – renaming it the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, in partnership with USA Today and NACDA.

Learfield Sports' mission to "Build the Team, Grow the Company and Have Fun" is accentuated through a culture driven to exceed goals, serve partners enthusiastically, work as a team, celebrate successes, and do what is right and honest in every endeavor. Collectively, they remain unwavering in the commitment to ensure each and every relationship is served to the best of their ability, while building on their strengths and striving to lead the way in college sports.

Kip Racy is in his second year in Stillwater as manager of Cowboy Sports Properties.

The Cowboy Sports Network

IN THE BOOTH

Dave Hunziker is in his 10th year of calling play-by-play for Oklahoma State football and men's basketball, along with hosting the Mike Gundy and Travis Ford radio and television shows.

Hunziker came to OSU from Western Kentucky, where he served as director of marketing and broadcasting as well as the play-by-play voice of the Hilltoppers. While at WKU, he helped establish and launch the 14-station Big Red Radio Network. He has also served as the director of media relations as well as the voice of Radford Athletics for eight years. His final four years included duties as the television voice of the Big South Conference.

Hunziker is a Missouri grad and former host of the KFRU Tiger pregame and postgame radio shows. He is married to the former Mary Beth Moranville. They have two daughters.

In his sixth year on the network as analyst is John Holcomb, sports director at KOTV (CBS Channel 6) in Tulsa. He will also serve as analyst on the Cowboy basketball network for the fourth consecutive year.

Holcomb began calling games on the Cowboy Television Network in 2001. He is a graduate and former basketball player at Oklahoma Baptist University and has had professional broadcasting stops in Shawnee and Lawton, Okla., as well as the Texas cities of Sherman and Amarillo.

He is married to the former Jeanna McReynolds. They have two daughters.

Robert Allen, an Oklahoma State graduate and former Cowboy football player, is in his ninth season of providing sideline reports for the network, along with pregame and postgame duties.

Allen formerly served as a sports reporter/anchor for KFOR-TV (NBC Channel 4 in Oklahoma City). He hosts a Stillwater radio show and is a sports writer for Go Pokes Magazine. He has served as a correspondent for NBC, FSN, ESPN and ESPN Radio.

Allen is married to the former Lynne Hoover. They have two children: Zach, a former Cowboy football player, and a daughter, Katy.

COACHES SHOWS

OSU TELEVISION

Learfield Communications also produces Oklahoma State's weekly coaches shows, which air throughout the academic year. Head coach Mike Gundy and host Dave Hunziker will recap each week's football game throughout the season. At press time, distribution plans were being finalized for the football show across Oklahoma and through much of Texas. The show will air in Tulsa on KOKI and on Cox Cable, and in Oklahoma City on KOKH and Cox Cable. There are also plans for the Cowboy football show to be aired in Lawton and Wichita Falls, Texas, on KSWO-ABC 7, and in Ada, Ardmore, Duncan and Sherman, Texas, on KXII CBS 12.

Other parts of Texas that will receive the telecast include Gainesville, Waco, Tyler and Beaumont. The show will also be carried on Fox Sports Southwest throughout the region.

Other Oklahoma State football shows throughout the academic year focus on men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball and softball.

WEB SITE/SOCIAL MEDIA

The relocation of the Cowboy football operations to the west end zone in the summer of 2009 punctuated one of the largest building projects in recent NCAA history. And the result is the new home of Cowboy football.

Boone Pickens Stadium is now a state-of-the-art facility that not only provides Oklahoma State football with a unique game-day environment and a roaring home-field advantage, but also with unrivaled facilities for daily operations located in incredibly convenient proximities.

Boone Pickens Stadium officially opened a new south side in 2004, a new north side in 2006 and in 2009 put the wraps on the west end zone project. And while the new digs put OSU on the cutting edge of collegiate facilities, the Cowboys still enjoy the home-field advantage that suffocates opponents with the tightest sidelines in all of football.

The result is that every fan in attendance is close to the action and very much a part of the OSU game-day experience in the coziest 60,000-seat stadium in America.

The west end zone project provides "BPS" with a new multilevel football operations center. Some of the new features include football offices, meeting rooms, speed and conditioning center, locker rooms, equipment room, athletic medicine center, media facilities, and hall of fame areas, along with a new training table. Atop the facility, Boone Pickens Stadium is ringed by 101 suites and 4,000 club seats.

The stadium was officially re-dedicated on Sept. 5, 2009, when the Cowboys opened the season with a 24-10 win over No. 13 Georgia in front of what was then a record crowd of 53,012. That new record would fall four more times during the 2009 season.

The wheels were set in motion on the multi-faceted, multi-year stadium project when OSU graduate Boone Pickens made the single-largest gift in school history in 2003. His $70 million donation ($20 million of which was earmarked for stadium expansion) spurred the "Next Level Campaign", which generated more than $100 million in gifts and pledges and involved more than 2,500 individuals, making it the single-most successful campaign in OSU history.

Pickens capped the fundraising effort in 2005 with his monumental gift of $165 million that allowed the university to complete the overhaul of the stadium.

The gift is the largest ever received by a university athletic department.

It's not just the stadium that has changed. In 2005, the playing surface was replaced with Football Pro, a surface created by Millennium Sports Technologies. It is considered the best and most durable synthetic surface available.

OSU's football home is now far removed from the original field that opened in 1913. The Cowboys' first athletic field gained its first permanent seating in 1920 and was repositioned from north-south to east-west to "avoid the prevailing strong winds" in the early 1900s.

The first addition to the stadium came in 1924 with the steel and concrete portion of the south stadium. During the 1929-30 seasons, 8,000 permanent seats were built on the north side to bring the capacity to 13,000.

In 1947, the south stadium was increased from 20 to 53 rows and capacity climbed to over 30,000. The first permanent press box was added in 1948. Prior to the 1950 season, 10,600 more seats were added to the north stands, increasing capacity to 39,000.

The next expansion didn't come until 1971 when the cinder track around the field was removed. The field was lowered 12 feet and 20 rows of permanent seating were added to both sides.

The first artificial surface was installed in 1971 at a cost of $2.5 million, and the coaches' offices (now part of the Athletic Center and utilized by various OSU coaching staffs) were constructed prior to the start of the 1978 season.

The stadium's press box was torn down and reconstructed in 1980 and the lighting system was installed prior to the 1985 season.

A second artificial surface was installed prior to the 2000 season and remained in place until the summer of 2005.

Due to construction, official capacity at Boone Pickens Stadium had dropped to 44,700 before climbing back to a new high of 60,000 in 2008 when seats in the new west end zone were opened. As the suites across the top of the west end zone came on line, capacity rose to its current level of 60,218.

As a result of the completed stadium project, OSU had its highest average attendance in school history and shattered the school record for season tickets with nearly 46,000 purchased by the Cowboy faithful in 2009.

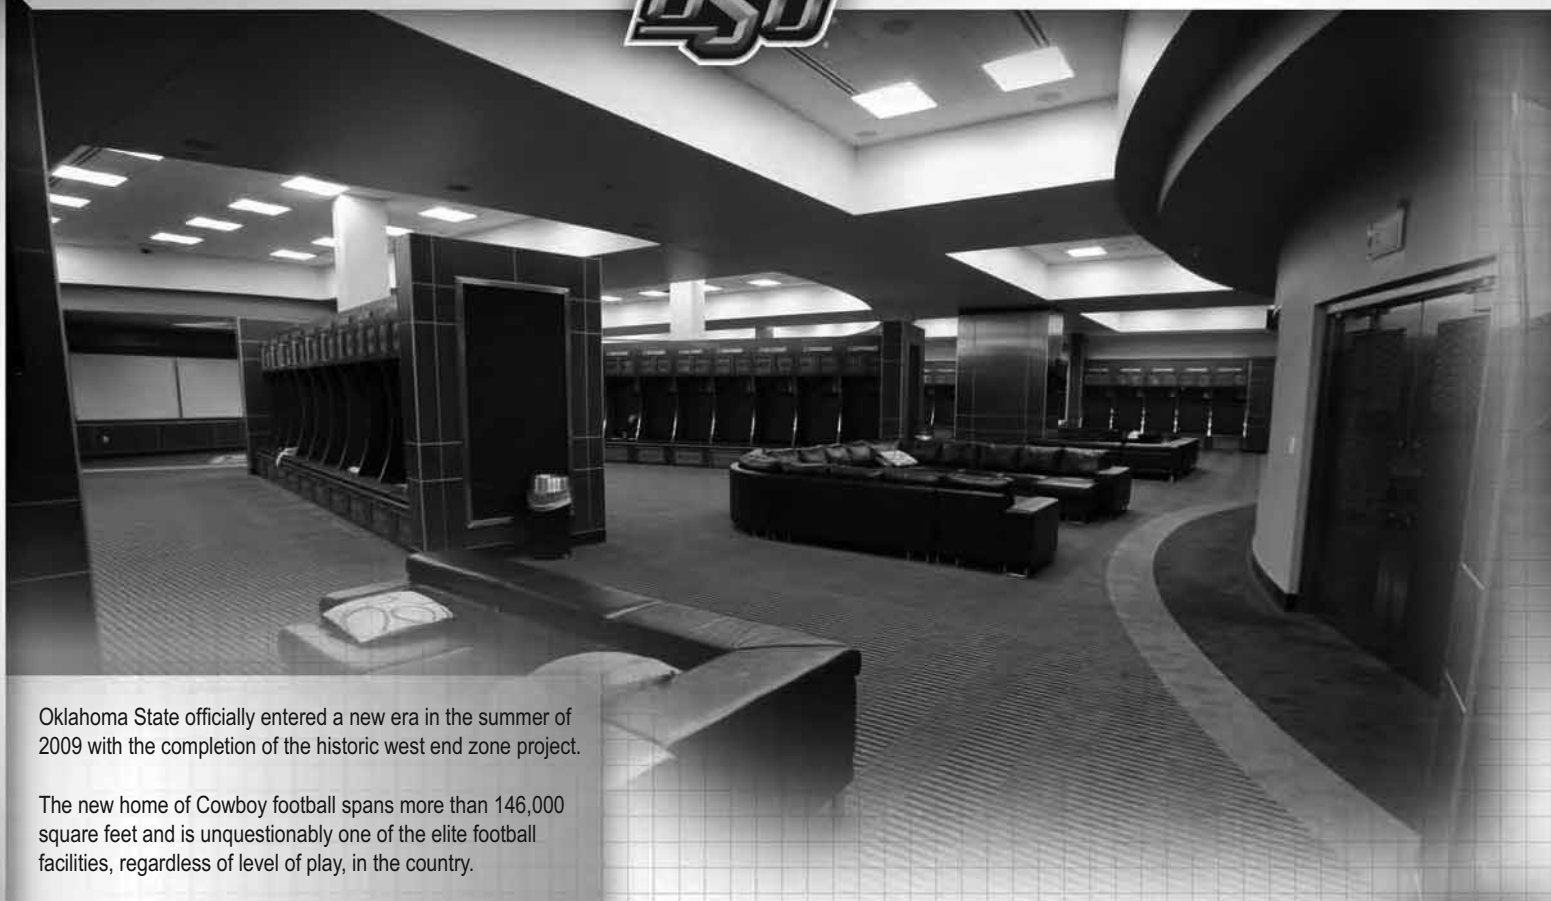

The Oklahoma State Cowboys now take to the field from the northwest corner of the stadium in front of the OSU student section.

In the east end zone is the Athletics Center, home of historic Gallagher-Iba Arena, which has been voted as the best college basketball venue in the country by at least two national media outlets. Atop the athletic center are the only suites in college athletics that can be utilized for football, basketball and wrestling.

The evolution of Boone Pickens Stadium into one of the nation's top game-day facilities is complete.

WEST END ZONE

A NEW COMMITMENT TO WINNING

Oklahoma State officially entered a new era in the summer of 2009 with the completion of the historic west end zone project.

The new home of Cowboy football spans more than 146,000 square feet and is unquestionably one of the elite football facilities, regardless of level of play, in the country.

And the glitter includes substance. Every detail that encompasses the daily life of a college football player has been included in the meticulous planning and execution of the west end zone. From ventilated lockers to functional meeting rooms at two different levels of the stadium, to the sports medicine center and its various options of hydrotherapy, OSU's student-athletes truly find themselves in a new world.

The new locker room and lounge area sprawls over 14,000 square feet and is just steps away from meeting rooms, the equipment room, a new weight room that is even larger than the locker room, the sports medicine center and the turf of Boone Pickens Stadium. The academic hub of the campus is a short stroll from the stadium and team meals are just an escalator ride away.

Just a few levels above the locker room, the team's impressive dining room area offers views inside the stadium and westward looks at the skyline of the OSU campus.

How all-encompassing is the west end zone? OSU now has 101 suites that ring the top of the stadium. When Bullet, carrying the OSU Spirit Rider, streaks across the stadium turf following an OSU touchdown, he returns to his own stall on the field level of the west end zone. The OSU spirit groups have their own warm-up area and an underground loading dock can accommodate up to three semi-trucks at the same time.

The Cowboys use oversized and ventilated lockers constructed specifically for Oklahoma State

The new Cowboy locker room covers more than 14,000 square feet and is at the geometric center of the west end zone. It is flanked by the weight room, equipment room and the sports medicine center.

State-of-the-art equipment is housed in OSU's new 20,000-square-foot weight room. The strength and conditioning facility is just steps away from the Cowboy locker room.

The Cowboys have meeting rooms located at field level and on the coaches level of the west end zone.

OSU's new sports medicine center features a variety of treatment options and includes four hydrotherapy pools as well as a digital x-ray machine.

The team room, known as the theater room, can be used in a variety of ways. It seats more than 200.

The football offices, atop the stadium and just below the suite level, are flanked by meeting rooms and the team meal area.

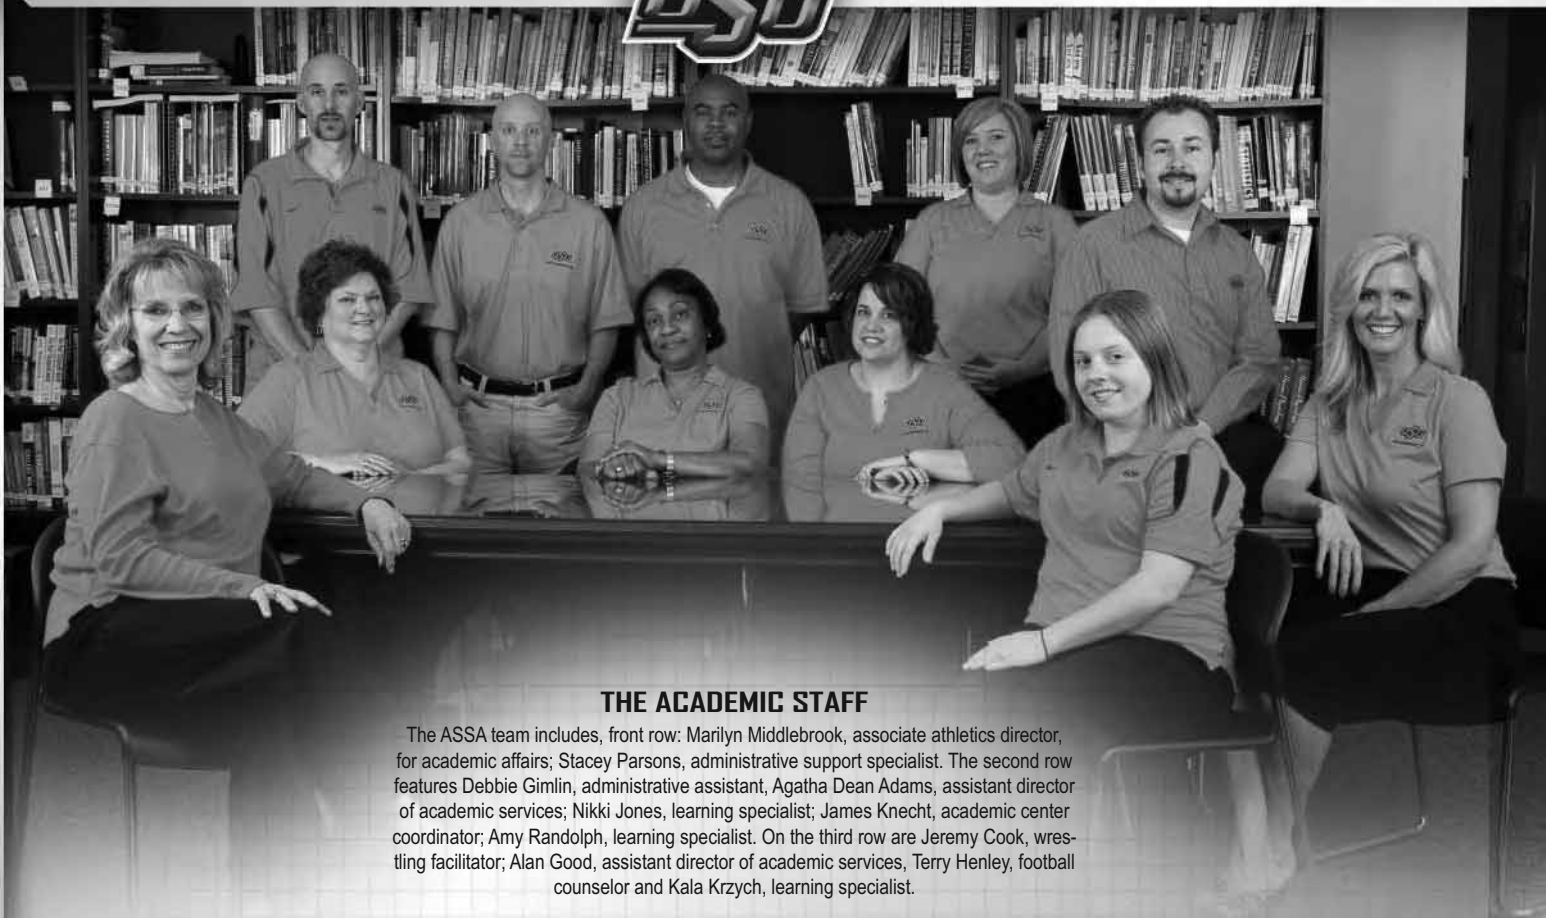

The history of Cowboy football is on display throughout the west end zone.

ACADEMIC

THE ACADEMIC STAFF

The ASSA team includes, front row: Marilyn Middlebrook, associate athletics director, for academic affairs; Stacey Parsons, administrative support specialist. The second row features Debbie Gimlin, administrative assistant, Agatha Dean Adams, assistant director of academic services; Nikki Jones, learning specialist; James Knecht, academic center coordinator; Amy Randolph, learning specialist. On the third row are Jeremy Cook, wrestling facilitator; Alan Good, assistant director of academic services, Terry Henley, football counselor and Kala Krzych, learning specialist.

One of the most unique and successful academic support programs in the country is in place at Oklahoma State University.

With a focus on individualized attention, OSU's student-athletes continue to raise the bar in the classroom. OSU is one of the few academic programs in America that does not utilize a study hall for its student-athletes. Instead, the academic course and progress is charted on an individual basis with stunning results.

MISSION STATEMENT

Academic Services for Student-Athletes provides academic, personal and career support programs that foster the development of student-athletes.

A comprehensive program on life skills provides student-athletes with educational experiences and service programs that prepare them for the demands of a well-balanced lifestyle while providing guidance and direction needed to prepare student-athletes for success beyond graduation.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

ASSA offers academic tutoring in all course areas, employing a staff of more than 100 subject tutors and 40 academic facilitators. Most tutors are graduate students or professionals from the Stillwater community.

CAREER SERVICES

ASSA employs a career counselor available to OSU student-athletes during weekday evenings. The career counselor works with student-athletes to develop resumes, create professional portfolios, select majors and careers, and ultimately find employment after graduation.

TECHNOLOGY

The Academic Enhancement Center boasts more than 100 individual desktop computers in three labs, all with internet access, campus network access, and locally networked printers. Also available on a limited basis are more than 40 personal laptop computers for use during team travel.

COWBOYS IN THE CLASSROOM

- Twice honored with the American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award.
- Ten Cowboys have been named Academic All-Americans.
- Ten OSU football players have been named an Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar for achieving at least a 3.2 grade-point average with outstanding community service.
- Twenty-one first-team academic all-Big 12 selections over last three seasons.
- A school record with 13 football players named academic all-Big 12 in 2006.

Three OSU football players have been named "Seniors of Significance" on the OSU campus over the past four years. The honor is bestowed on students who rank among Oklahoma State's top 10 percent of the graduating class. Recent football players accomplishing that feat include Seb Clements, Darnell Smith and B.J. O'Conner.

DR. MARILYN MIDDLEBROOK
Associate Athletic Director for Academic Affairs

Dr. Marilyn Middlebrook joined the athletics department in 1997. She has worked in student services on the OSU campus for 25 years, and was director of student services in the OSU College of Education before coming to athletics.

Middlebrook is a mother-away-from-home for OSU student-athletes and strives, along with the rest of the ASSA staff, to create a positive and encouraging environment for all who walk into the Academic Enhancement Center. Middlebrook's goal, besides academic success and NCAA/Big 12 compliance, is to produce well-rounded individuals ready to enter the professional world after graduation.

Middlebrook and her husband, Dan, have three children: Bruce, Amy, and Brad; and seven grandchildren: Halley Jo, Riley, Luke, Natalie, Maggie, Molly and Jolie.

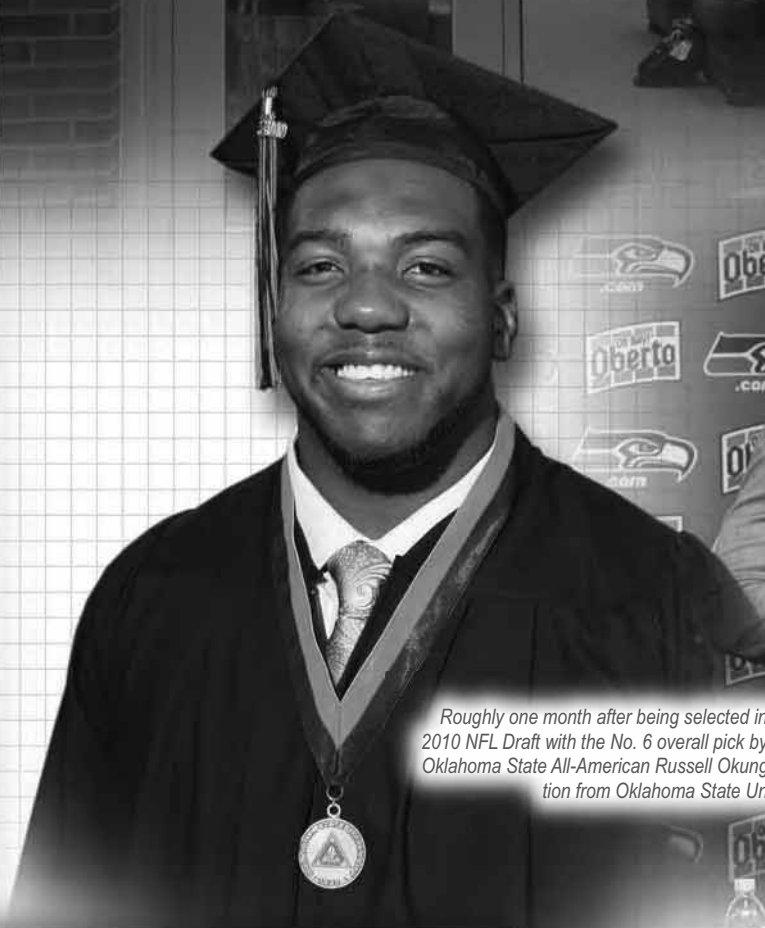

She is a graduate of Emporia State, where she also earned her masters degree. She completed work on her doctorate in education at Oklahoma State.

THE JOE AND CONNIE MITCHELL ACADEMIC ENHANCEMENT CENTER

The Joe and Connie Mitchell Academic Enhancement Center houses three computer labs and more than 100 computers for OSU's student-athletes. The center is part of the OSU Athletics Center, providing unmatched convenience for the hectic student-athlete lifestyle.

The center includes five review session rooms, nine private tutoring rooms, a writing center, a foreign languages center and a learning specialist center.

The center is home to 12 full-time employees of OSU's academic support unit, along with more than 100 tutors. Many of the tutors are retired faculty and candidates for advanced degrees.

Roughly one month after being selected in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft with the No. 6 overall pick by the Seattle Seahawks, Oklahoma State All-American Russell Okung celebrates his graduation from Oklahoma State University.

THE COWBOY LIFESTYLE

The day-to-day living for student-athletes at Oklahoma State rivals that of any campus in the country. Most Cowboys are housed on campus in spacious apartments that include living areas, private bedrooms, a full kitchen, washer and dryer, free local phone, free cable television and free internet access.

The apartments are located on north Monroe, a short walk from the football operations center and academic support center, as well as the academic heart of the OSU campus.

OSU student-athletes also enjoy one of America's top training tables. With a chef dedicated to the football menu and with the training table located inside Boone Pickens Stadium, Cowboys and Cowgirls have the best of both worlds – great food in a convenient location.

Beginning in August 2008, OSU became one of the only schools in the country to provide oversized beds for its athletes. Each apartment is furnished with a custom athletic bedding system. The beds are 95 inches in length and over 54 inches in width, meaning even the tallest and largest OSU athletes will be completely supported for a comfortable night's sleep.

STRENGTH

COWBOY

The person Mike Gundy describes as the most important to Oklahoma State's football success is Rob Glass. Glass holds the title of assistant athletic director for speed and strength and oversees OSU's strength training and speed development efforts on a year-round basis.

It is a testament to the direction of the Oklahoma State football program that Glass left his position as director of strength and conditioning at the University of Florida to return to his alma mater in Stillwater.

Glass is at the very top of his profession, as documented by his accomplishments at OSU as well as in the Southeastern Conference. While in Gainesville, he worked with numerous National Football League first-round draft picks, a Heisman Trophy winner, four SEC championship teams and a BCS national champion.

In his first stint at Oklahoma State, he tutored OSU Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders, along with All-Americans and NFL standouts Thurman Thomas (an NFL Hall of Famer), Jason Gildon and Keith Burns. He has turned down other lucrative jobs, including the NFL, and is now beginning his sixth year at Oklahoma State.

"I came back because I knew things were going to be different," Glass said. "We have things here now that are on par or better than what we had in the SEC. 'I knew Coach Gundy from his days as a player, and I knew Coach (Joe) Wickline from Florida,'" he added. "I knew what they could do."

THE COWBOY WAY

Oklahoma State football has been re-tooled for speed. In fact, OSU's speed and strength program is designed to enhance foot speed as well as strength. "Speed is what set us apart at Florida," Glass said. "We work to develop speed as well as strength. Of course, it has to be in the genes, and we are recruiting players who can run."

RESEARCH

Oklahoma State's speed and strength staff never stops investigating its own methods. Research is at the heart of the OSU conditioning program. "We do a lot of research," said Rob Glass. "It is an ever-changing process and the more research we have, the more we can refine and define our processes."

"There are a lot of elements we consider: nutrition, flexibility, advanced rehab and pre-hab."

THE THREE PRONGS

OSU's conditioning programs are based on sport, position and individuals. The football players have a foundation that is common to the squad. Workouts become more specific based on the player's position, and then are completed by workouts designed for an individual's strengths and weaknesses.

THE FACILITIES

In June of 2009, Oklahoma State's strength and speed staff moved into the country's newest weight room. The new center is completely outfitted with the newest equipment and covers more than 20,000 square feet. The room is large enough to house a sprint area, in addition to weight training, cardio areas and office space.

THE GLASS FACTOR

Some of the student-athletes that have worked with Rob Glass include...

- Dez Bryant - Consensus All-America receiver at OSU and a first-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys
- Matt Fodge - Ray Guy Award winner at OSU as the nation's top punter
- Jason Gildon - Former OSU defensive end was a long-time NFL standout and Pro Bowler with the Pittsburgh Steelers
- Rex Grossman - Quarterbacked the Chicago Bears to the 2007 Super Bowl
- Pete Incaviglia - OSU outfielder was named as the college baseball player of the century and was a long-time big leaguer
- Jevon Kearse - A first round NFL first-round pick
- Russell Okung - A unanimous All-American and the sixth overall pick in the 2010 draft
- Brandon Pettigrew - OSU's first-round pick at tight end by the Detroit Lions
- Barry Sanders - OSU's Heisman Trophy winner and NFL Hall of Famer
- Thurman Thomas - OSU All-American and 2007 NFL Hall of Fame inductee
- Robin Ventura - OSU member of college baseball's all-century team, major leaguer, and the 1980s player of the decade
- Lawrence Wright - Jim Thorpe Award winner (America's top defensive back)
- Danny Wuerffel - Heisman Trophy winning quarterback

SPORTS MEDICINE

Oklahoma State's student-athletes receive the best health care available.

A team of full-time professionals, along with a statewide network of specialists, provide the Cowboys with the ultimate in health care. OSU has an on-site team physician in Dr. Val Gene Iven. An OSU alum, Dr. Iven spent 13 years as the head team doctor for the men's athletic department at the University of Tennessee before returning to Stillwater. Dr. Mark Pascale serves as the team's orthopedic surgeon. The sports medicine staff also includes head athletic trainer Rob Hunt and athletic trainer/physical therapist John Stemm, assistant athletic trainer Scott Parker and a team of graduate assistants and undergraduate athletic trainers.

OSU's comprehensive athletic health care features top-rated sports medicine physicians from around Oklahoma.

The new sports medicine center in the west end zone includes a new digital X-ray machine and an on-site pharmacy. The hydro room includes four pools of varying depth and temperature and cameras that will observe and record underwater therapy.

COWBOYS AND THE COMMUNITY

Offensive lineman Andrew Mitchell gives a trim to teammate Noah Franklin during AT&T Cotton Bowl week. Franklin's hair was donated to "Locks Of Love".

There is a deep, deep connection between the Oklahoma State Cowboys and the citizens of Stillwater, as well as the state of Oklahoma.

The Oklahoma State Cowboys live a busy life. But they are not too busy to appreciate their lot in life and lend a helping hand to others.

While preparing for their annual holiday Bedlam clash, many of the Cowboys deliver turkeys to the less fortunate during the week of Thanksgiving.

The football players were joined by other student-athletes, members of the spirit squads and Pistol Pete in Lawton to assist in the rebuilding of a home. The effort was part of ABC's Extreme Makeover Home Edition. OSU's participation was coordinated through the local chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

And one of the annual highlights of being a Cowboy comes each spring when the City of Stillwater and the OSU campus host the Oklahoma Special Olympics.

STILLWATER

THE HEART OF THE BIG 12

The home of Oklahoma State University is Stillwater.

Located in north central Oklahoma, and easy drives from Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Kansas City and Dallas, Stillwater provides college-town atmosphere with big-city access.

As the northern most school in the South Division, Oklahoma State is the most centrally located campus in the Big 12 Conference. And because of its location, OSU arguably has the league's easiest road trips for both its teams and fans.

Stillwater is a rapidly growing city of 47,000 and is near the geographic center of the country. The U.S. Census Bureau recently named Stillwater as the fastest growing city in the state of Oklahoma.

Often called Oklahoma's premier education community, Stillwater is the home of some of the region's finest education and training institutions, including Oklahoma State University, Meridian Technology Center, Northern Oklahoma College/OSU Gateway, and one of the nation's top rated public school systems.

With such a strong commitment to education, it's easy to see why Stillwater's educational attainment is among the highest in the nation, with 48 percent of its residents holding bachelor's degrees or higher. The city is the micropolitan anchor for the state's technology triangle that includes Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

The "college town" atmosphere lends itself to a variety of recreational opportunities. Year-round arts and cultural events appeal to many different audiences and feature music, dance, theater, festivals, lectures, and concerts. A youthful community demands the best in fitness centers, spas, parks and recreational opportunities.

And for the outdoor enthusiast, nearby lakes provide a quiet respite at the city's edge, sparkling in 234 days of annual sunshine.

After a day of work or play, residents and visitors often relax in one of the many restaurants or night spots that offer everything from barbecue to fine dining, and blues to bluegrass. Stillwater's retail districts feature a unique shopping experience where you'll find museums, galleries, and shops with personality. OSU athletic events attract more than 600,000 fans to Stillwater annually.

OSU has been called the "University of Golf," and the five-star Karsten Creek, home of the 10-time national champion Cowboy golf team and perennial top-10 women's program, ranks with such well-known courses as Pebble Beach. It's one of several public and private courses that prompted Golf Digest to call the Stillwater area among the "Top 10 Places in America to retire and play golf."

Stillwater is one of America's safest cities, with a crime rate far below the U.S. average and Oklahoma State University has been considered the safest campus in the Big 12 Conference since the league's inception.

Security also comes in the form of great health care services, centered around Stillwater Medical Center's state of the art facilities. And with a cost of living that averages more than 10 percent below the U.S. average, the dollar buys more.

Whether you're here for a short time or a lifetime, you'll want to stake your claim in one of America's great university cities... Stillwater, Oklahoma!

TULSA

COSMOPOLITAN FLAVOR

Experience Tulsa's cosmopolitan flavor at the same time you delight in its small-town friendliness. It's big enough to have everything you need, but small enough to make you feel right at home.

In Tulsa you will find cowboys and classical ballet, art deco and arena football, rodeos, religion, and rolling hills. A visit to Tulsa is a great getaway to experience a delightful mix of rich culture, colorful history, terrific shopping and lively nightlife.

When the sun goes down in Tulsa, you can live it up almost any way you like. Try a night at the opera, or hit trendy eateries in the Brookside and Brady Districts. Get lucky at bingo or the horse races, yuk it up at a comedy club, cheer on a ball team, ride a roller coaster, feast at a four-star restaurant, or get messy at a barbecue joint.

The choices are endless, and whatever you do you'll have the time of your life. Tulsa is also the gateway to Green Country, northeastern Oklahoma's playground of lakes, rivers, forests and fun.

One of the reasons that Stillwater is Oklahoma's fastest growing city is its proximity to Tulsa and Oklahoma City. Downtown Tulsa is just 50 minutes from Stilwater

OKLAHOMA CITY

BIG 12 CROSSROADS

Tourism is taking off in the state capital of Oklahoma. Legendary attractions like the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum, the Myriad Botanical Gardens, Remington Park racetrack and the Oklahoma City Zoo keep things busy in Oklahoma City year around.

The authentic sights, sounds and flavor of the Old West are alive and well in Stockyards City. And historic Bricktown, the renovated entertainment and dining district, is always a hub. Oklahoma City has over 50 great attractions and activities, 12,000 hotel rooms and a million friendly people who wouldn't live anywhere else but OKC.

Oklahoma City is also a crossroads for Big 12 activity. The conference's baseball tournament, softball tournament and men's and women's basketball tournaments are already on the docket for a city located in the middle of Big 12 country.

The city is also the annual home of the Women's College World Series.

THE BRICKTOWN STORY

Bricktown has become a tourist attraction that provides residents and visitors to Oklahoma City with an outstanding place to dine, to enjoy exciting Triple-A baseball at the Southwestern Bell Bricktown Ballpark, to stroll along the Bricktown canal, or to just enjoy people-watching! The baseball facility has hosted more Big 12 tournaments than any other venue.

Oklahoma City's Ford Center is home to the Thunder of the NBA. That facility hosted the Big 12 men's and women's basketball tournaments in 2007 and 2009.

With the outskirts of Oklahoma City just over 40 minutes from Stillwater, the capital city of Oklahoma is the backyard for those who live in Stillwater.

HALL OF FAMERS

The National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame features four men from Oklahoma State University.

Coach Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1966, following a career that included five seasons in Stillwater. During his years in the orange and black, OSU claimed four conference championships and carved out a 3-0-2 record against state rival Oklahoma. Waldorf would end his career at the University of California with multiple Rose Bowl appearances.

The first OSU player to be inducted into the college hall was Bob Fenimore. Known as the "Blond Bomber", Fenimore led Oklahoma State, known as Oklahoma A&M during his playing days, to new heights. His accomplishments included an undefeated season and a final AP ranking of No. 5. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1972. Fenimore was also recently inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame.

In 2003, the most decorated player in OSU history, running back Barry Sanders, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Sanders, whose 1988 season remains the greatest in NCAA history, rewrote school, conference and NCAA record books in his three-year career at OSU. ESPN recently selected Sanders as the second-best player in college football history.

Thurman Thomas, the all-time leading rusher in Cowboy history and one of OSU's all-time fan favorites, was inducted into the hall in 2008. A two-time Big Eight Conference player of the year, Thomas is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Thomas led Oklahoma State in rushing for four-straight seasons and ended his career with 44 touchdowns and 4,595 rushing yards.

BARRY SANDERS

Barry Sanders ran for 2,628 yards in 1988 in just 11 games.

PAPPY WALDORF

Pappy Waldorf led the Cowboys to four conference championships during his Hall of Fame career.

BOB FENIMORE

FROM STILLWATER TO CANTON

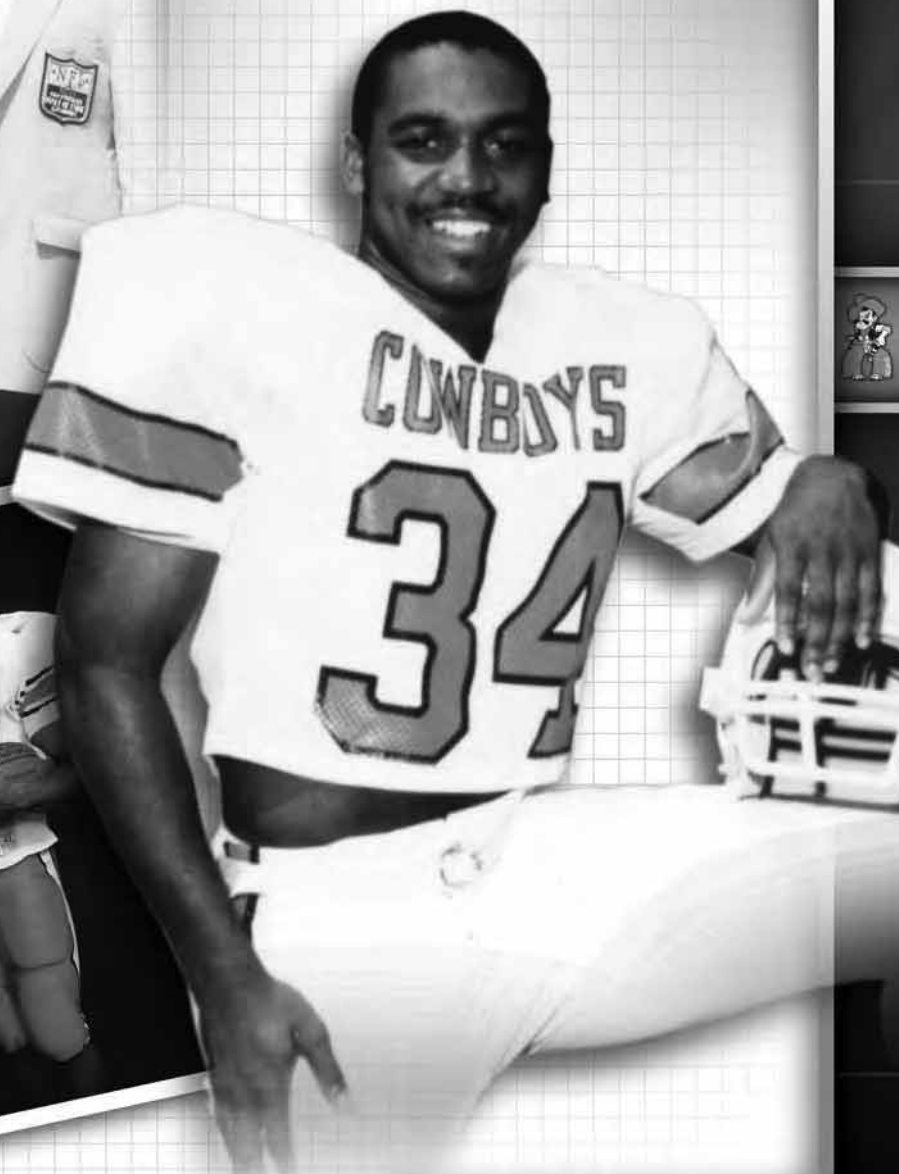

As teammates at Oklahoma State, Barry Sanders and Thurman Thomas combined to form perhaps the best backfield duo in NCAA history. And just to prove their point, the two Cowboys took their act to the National Football League, and their road together didn't stop until they were both inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Sanders was immortalized in 2004 with his induction. Thomas joined his former teammate in Canton in 2007.

Sanders and Thomas are two of the NFL's all-time leading rushers and are considered among the greatest running backs ever to play the game.

NATIONAL HONOR

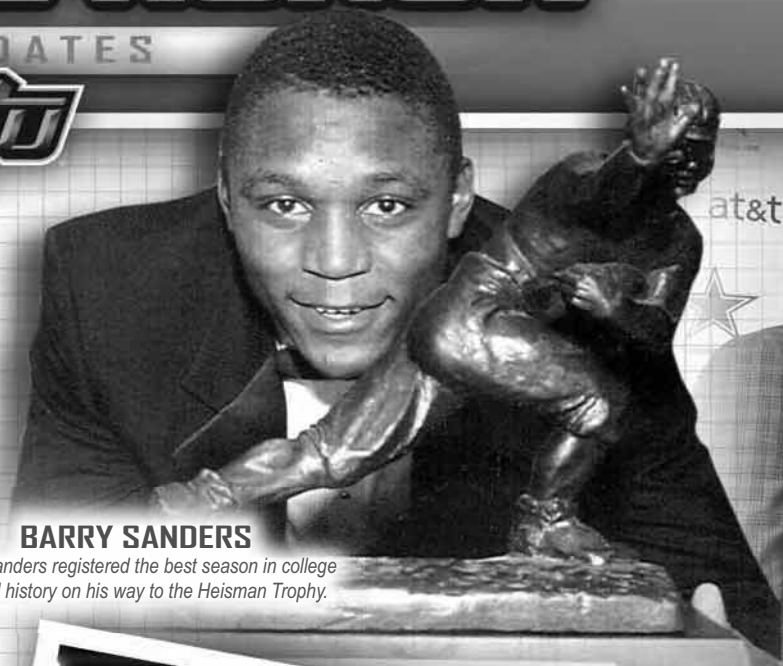

CANDIDATES

The campus of Oklahoma State University has played host to some of the greatest individual performers in not only the history of college football, but also the history of college athletics.

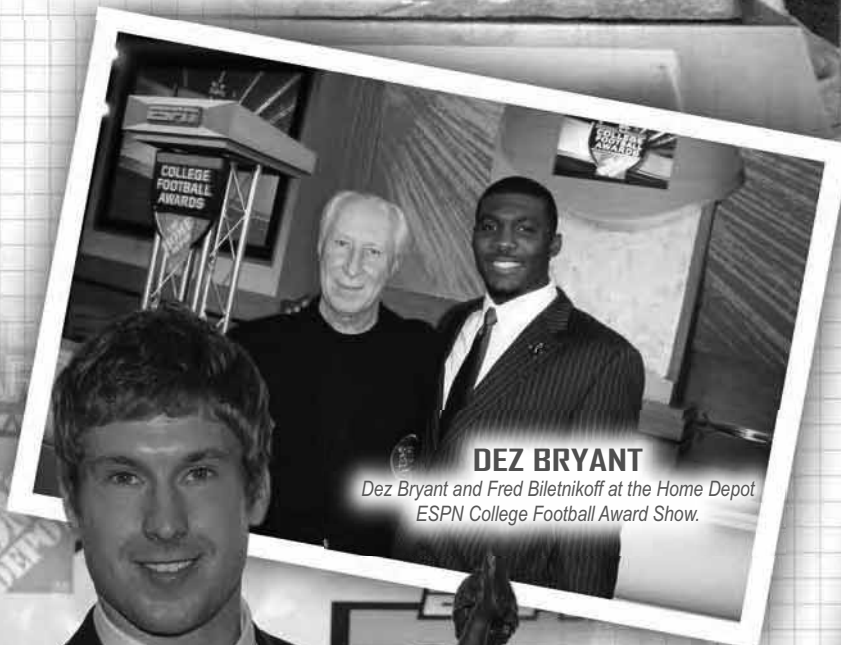

At the end of the 2009 season, once again Oklahoma State had contenders for national awards littered throughout the football roster.

- OSU offensive tackle Russell Okung was selected as a unanimous All-American, becoming only the sixth player in school history to be named to five different All-America squads. He was the sixth overall pick in the NFL Draft.
- Okung became the fourth Cowboy named first-team All-America over the last two football seasons.
- Okung was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, presented to the nation's top interior lineman on either side of the ball.
- Quarterback Zac Robinson was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, presented annually to the nation's top senior quarterback.
- Robinson was also a semifinalist for the Manning Award, given to the top quarterback in college football.
- Cornerback Perrish Cox was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award for the best defensive back in the nation and earned a spot on the Sporting News All-America squad.
- Quinn Sharp earned a College Football Performance Award as the country's most productive kickoff specialist.

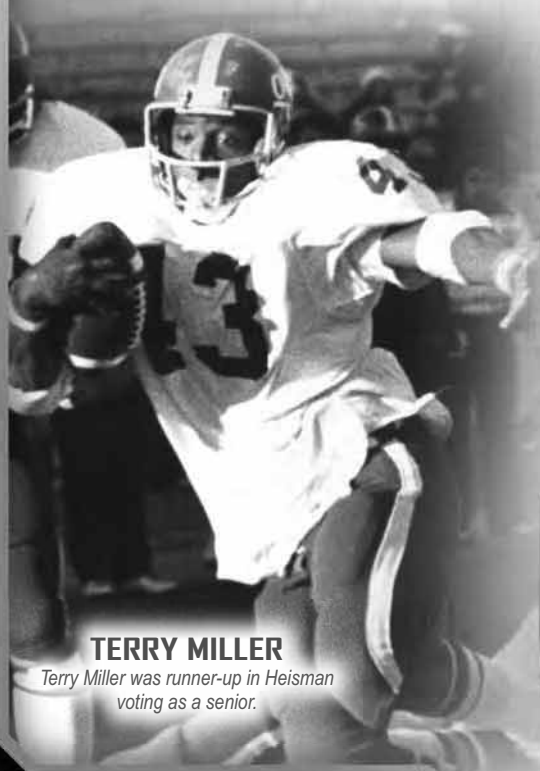

BARRY SANDERS

Barry Sanders registered the best season in college football history on his way to the Heisman Trophy.

FIRST ROUND

DRAFT PICKS

FIRST ROUNDERS

Over the last two years, three Oklahoma State Cowboys have been taken in the first round of the NFL Draft. In 2009, tight end Brandon Pettigrew was the No. 20 overall selection by the Detroit Lions.

In 2010, OSU added two more first-round picks. Unanimous All-America offensive lineman Russell Okung was the sixth overall selection in the draft, joining the Seattle Seahawks. Receiver Dez Bryant was the 24th overall selection, going in the first round to the Dallas Cowboys.

Other Cowboy first-rounders have included Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders, Heisman runner-up Terry Miller, six-time Pro Bowl defender Leslie O'Neal, receivers Rashaun Woods and Hart Lee Dykes and defensive back R.W. McQuarters.

Oklahoma State Cowboys have been blazing a trail through the NFL for decades. Along the way, the Cowboys have proven to be some of the top individual performers in NFL history.

ESPN.com recently ranked OSU among the top 15 schools in the country for producing "elite NFL talent."

Since 2000, two Cowboy running backs, Barry Sanders and Thurman Thomas, have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Both players were named as the league's Most Valuable Player during their careers. They combined for 15 Pro Bowl appearances.

Sanders and Thomas, who were teammates at OSU, rank among the all-time leading rushers in NFL history.

OSU alumni Kevin Williams (Vikings) and Jamal Williams (formerly of the Chargers and now of the Broncos) are two of the NFL's most dominating defensive tackles. Kevin Williams is a five-time Pro Bowler while Jamal Williams has made four Pro Bowl appearances.

A pair of Cowboys, offensive lineman Jon Kolb (Steelers) and running back Thurman Thomas (Bills) have played in four Super Bowls.

Former Cowboy Leslie O'Neal was a six-time Pro Bowler during his career with the San Diego Chargers.

Antonio Smith was a starter on the Arizona Cardinals' first Super Bowl team. He became the third straight Cowboy to play in a Super Bowl, following R.W. McQuarters (Giants) and Charlie Johnson (Colts). In January, two more Cowboys played in the biggest game of the year when Jacob Lacey and Charlie Johnson were in the starting lineup for the Colts against the Saints.

Former Oklahoma State head coach Jimmy Johnson led the Dallas Cowboys to a pair of Super Bowl titles.

JIMMY JOHNSON

SUPER BOWL

COWBOYS

Oklahoma State football alumni continue to add to the growing Cowboy tradition in the Super Bowl.

Last year's appearances by Indianapolis Colts starters Jacob Lacey and Charlie Johnson marked the fourth straight season that at least one former OSU player appeared in the biggest game of the year. It also marked the 28th Super Bowl game to feature at least one Cowboy.

Overall, 17 former Cowboys have participated in the Super Bowl, including Jon Kolb (Pittsburgh) and Thurman Thomas (Buffalo), who each played in four Super Bowls.

In two Super Bowls, more than one OSU player was a participant.

Thurman Thomas made history when he and the Buffalo Bills appeared in four straight Super Bowls.

Jacob Lacey was one of two Cowboys in the starting lineup for the Indianapolis Colts against the New Orleans Saints.

R.W. McQuarters won a Super Bowl ring with the Giants in 2008.

PICKENS

Boone Pickens is arguably OSU's (and the state's) most visible personality. His various endeavors and colorful demeanor have been chronicled on the covers of most American business publications and by some of the most-watched television programs in the country.

During the span of his long career, T. Boone Pickens has created thousands of jobs and made billions of dollars—for others as well as himself—and he isn't timid about spreading it around. "I like making money. I like giving it away.... not as much as I like making it, but it's a close second," he has often said.

The breadth of his philanthropy—which approaches $1 billion during his career—includes health and medical research, treatment and services; entrepreneurship; kids at risk; education and athletics, with a particular focus on his alma mater, Oklahoma State University; corporate health and fitness; and conservation and wildlife management. While many donations involve tens of millions of dollars and attract headlines, there are hundreds more ranging from hundreds of thousands to several hundred. Each is important in its own way.

The establishment of the T. Boone Pickens Foundation has ensured his continued ranking as one of the top U.S. philanthropists. The Pickens Foundation is improving lives through grants supporting educational programs, medical research, athletics and corporate wellness, at-risk youths, the entrepreneurial process and conservation and wildlife initiatives.

In 2007, Pickens brought his innovative entrepreneurial approach to the philanthropic sector, announcing the Foundation's largest gifts yet—$50 million each for two University of Texas health care institutions: UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas and The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston. Under unique agreements, the gifts create special funds at the institutions, requiring that they grow to $1 billion ($500 million each) within 25 years from earnings on the original principal and/or from new outside donations solicited by the institutions. When the $500 million marks are reached, the institutions will be able to distribute the funds as they deem fit.

In many ways, Pickens is a record-setting philanthropist. His $165 million gift to his alma mater, Oklahoma State University, in 2005 is the single largest gift for athletics in NCAA history, and the $7 million donation to the American Red Cross in 2005 is the largest individual contribution in the 150-year history of that organization.

On May 21, 2008, Pickens gave $100 million for the endowment of major faculty chairs and professorships at Oklahoma State University. The OSU School of Geology already bears his name from previous gifts to OSU.

In 2010, OSU launched its campus-wide "Branding Success" campaign and T. Boone Pickens again led the charge with yet another $100 million gift to his alma mater.

Over the last year, Pickens has become a national and indeed a world leader on the energy front with the launching of the Pickens Plan.

AMERICA'S GREATEST HOMECOMING

Homecoming Week is celebrated throughout the country. At Oklahoma State University, Homecoming has special meaning and the celebration reaches a level unmatched anywhere else. In fact, "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" at OSU is known coast-to-coast as one of the country's great college football weeks and weekends.

Throughout OSU's Homecoming activities, more than 50,000 alumni visit Stillwater. That total does not include fans and alumni who make the trek just for the football game.

From street painting to Orange Ambiance, and from the well-known "Walkaround" in which city streets are closed for a gigantic block party centered around Homecoming decorations, to "Homecoming And Hoops" nothing says college football like Homecoming Week at Oklahoma State. It is the epitome of life in a college town.

A variety of activities are held throughout Homecoming Week and they touch nearly every aspect of campus life.

The 2010 theme for America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration is "Cowboy Nation".

COWBOY FANS

THE WALK AND ROAD RALLY

The Cowboy football team and the Cowboy football fans are in it together.

From Ames to Austin and from Athens to Seattle, the Cowboys are always accompanied by their orange-clad fans on game days.

For home games, it's the Spirit Walk as OSU fans line Hester Street for the Cowboys' stroll across campus to Boone Pickens Stadium.

The Road Rally has quickly become an OSU tradition away from home as Oklahoma State football fans form the road version of the Spirit Walk, complete with the band.

The Waving Song dates back to 1908. It has its origins in a New York City operetta and was brought to Stillwater by speech instructor H.G. Seldy Seldombridge. The song debuted at a campus follies production and has been a part of the orange and black heritage ever since.

The Spirit Walk down Hester Street has become a game-day tradition in Stillwater.

THE PLACE TO BE

ORANGE WAVE OF MOMENTUM

Since the announcement of Mr. T. Boone Pickens' historic $165 million gift to Oklahoma State, the Cowboy football program has been riding a wave of momentum that might be unprecedented in school history.

The orange avalanche started with a clap of thunder in 2005 with the official announcement of Mr. Pickens' historic gift. In the years since, Oklahoma State has appeared in four straight bowl games and climbed into the top 10 in consecutive seasons. Oklahoma State reached the AP top five in 2009.

The squad featured four All-Americans in 2008 and 2009, and a total of three Cowboys have been taken in the first round of the NFL Draft over the last two years.

The Cowboys spent the summer of 2009 moving into new facilities as the completion of the west end zone project brought to a close the complete overhaul of Boone Pickens Stadium. The home of the Cowboys has been transformed into one of America's top facilities.

The day-to-day football operations now take place in cutting-edge surroundings.

In each of the past two years OSU has set a new record for season ticket sales and re-written single-game records several times over.

And the changes in Stillwater have been noticed beyond the borders of Big 12 country ...

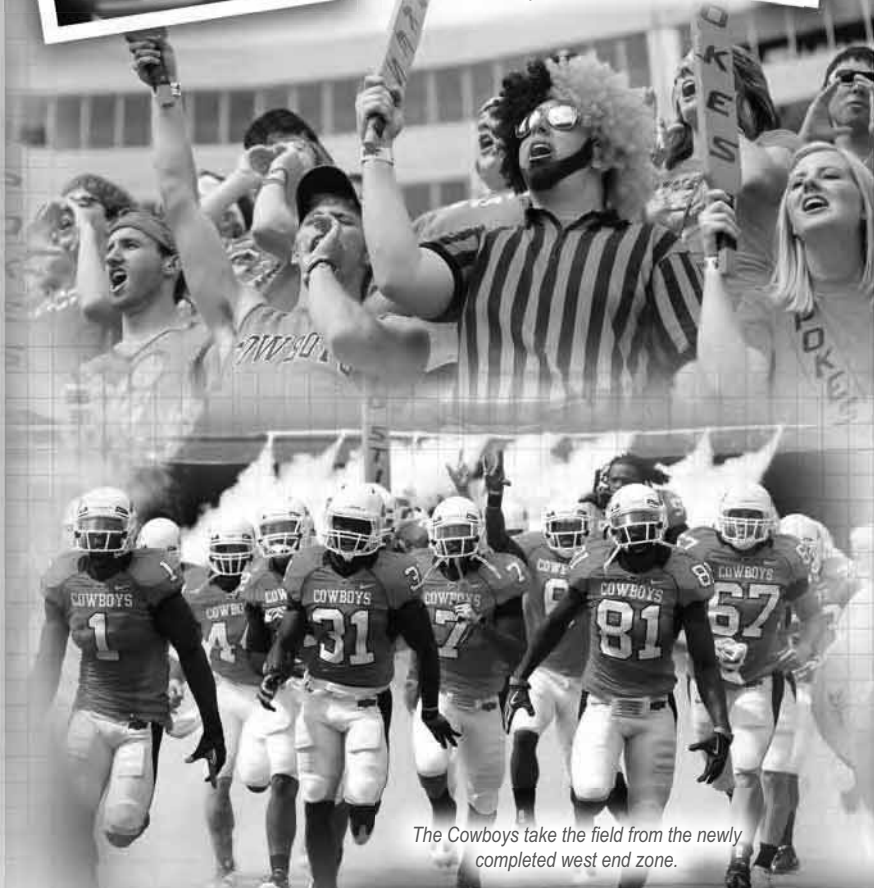

- In 2009, OSU football appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated twice and made nine appearances on national television.
- A total of 16 states were represented on the Cowboy roster last season, illustrating OSU's new-found appeal and new standing as a nationally-prominent program.
- The Cowboys appeared in four straight ABC prime-time telecasts in 2008. The ESPN on ABC Saturday night productions take place under the brightest spotlight of the college football regular season.
- ESPN GameDay spent the 2008 Thanksgiving weekend in Stillwater in a return trip to Oklahoma State.
- A national individual award winner (the Ray Guy), a national runner-up (Biletnikoff) and two more finalists (Mackey and Lombardi) further documented OSU's new national muscle.
- The landscape has changed in Stillwater...From facilities to victories and from television to attendance, OSU's new-found path is clear for all to see. And one can't help but feel that the orange momentum is just getting started.

Oklahoma State

national scene like never before.

Oklahoma State's national profile has climbed dramatically over the last two seasons.

NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Oklahoma State football has a rising national profile. Thanks to high win totals, a consistent presence in the national polls, a windfall of All-America selections, multiple first-round draft picks and seven bowl appearances over the last eight years, the Cowboys have become a national presence in college football and continue to be a rising program.

The Cowboys have appeared on national television 19 times over the last two years and graced two Sports Illustrated covers during the 2009 football season.

Before the completion of 2010 spring football drills, Oklahoma State had already been booked for three more national television appearances with more sure to follow over the summer and fall months.

OSU's weekly football news conferences are staffed by no fewer than 40 members of the media. That crowd has risen to as many as 70 at times over the past two seasons when the Cowboys were ringing up 18 victories and climbing as high as fifth in the Associated Press poll.

ESPN College GameDay has made regular stops at Oklahoma State for football as well as men's basketball. In fact, the ESPN network was launched during a weekend-long event at Oklahoma State.

BOWLING

WITH THE COWBOYS

The Oklahoma State Cowboys have one of college football's most solid postseason resumes with 12 wins in 20 bowl appearances.

And Oklahoma State's bowl tradition continues to grow. The Cowboys reached two milestones in 2009 when they appeared in their fourth straight bowl game and in the seventh postseason game in eight years.

Oklahoma State's trophy case includes championship trophies from some of the nation's most prestigious bowl games, including the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Sun Bowl and Gator Bowl. Along the way, the Cowboys have earned victories over the likes of Alabama, Brigham Young, Florida State and West Virginia.

OSU head coach Mike Gundy has participated in two bowl games as a Cowboy player, three as an assistant coach and four as a head coach. As the Cowboy head coach and quarterback, Gundy is 4-2 in postseason games.

Oklahoma State is one of only three Big 12 schools that have made Final Four runs, a New Year's Day bowl appearance and participated in the College World Series during the Big 12 years.

Oklahoma State is known for the Orange army of fans who descend upon bowl sites when the Cowboys visit. The neutral site stadiums take on the look of Boone Pickens Stadium and Gallagher-Iba Arena when the Cowboys are in town. Because of the large traveling fan base, OSU is a favorite among bowl selection committees. As a result, OSU has made bowl appearances on the east and west coasts.

Not only does Oklahoma State rank among NCAA leaders with its bowl winning percentage, but the Cowboys are among the top 30 programs in America with 12 bowl wins.

Oklahoma State's players participate in the 2010 Beef Bowl as part of AT&T Cotton Bowl week.

Oklahoma State made its third appearance in the Cotton Bowl in 2010.

The Cowboys have made bowl appearances on both coasts. OSU participated in its second Holiday Bowl game in 2008.

Mike Gundy meets the media after a bowl victory.

GAME DAY

IN STILLWATER

It's Game Day in Stillwater

That means lots of orange.

That means fans close enough to the action, they can call their own audibles.

Game Day means Bullet streaking across the field after a Cowboy touchdown.

Game Day means Cowboy players, fans, students and alumni singing the alma mater after an OSU victory.

And it all takes place in a sparkling new venue that features modern day amenities constructed on the same site that has been hosting Cowboy athletics for 110 years.

It's Cowboy Football. It's the new mixed with the old. Cutting edge coupled with tradition.

It's a setting unique to college football, and dear to the hearts of the Cowboy faithful.

It's the blossoming of a new force in college football mingled with the traditions of a campus established in the 19th century.

It's game day in Stillwater.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

The Big 12 Conference has established a consistent level of national success on the field and in the classroom as it enters its 15th season in 2010-11.

Since it began play in 1996-97, the Conference has captured 36 team NCAA Championships. The success continued in 2009-10 as Oklahoma State captured the national championship in men's cross country and Texas took home the national championship in men's swimming and diving.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with its seven appearances in BCS title games. League squads have played for the football national championship seven times in the last nine years with berths in 17 BCS games overall, including two each in 2007 and 2008. The Big 12 finished with three teams ranked in the final 2009 BCS Standings.

In basketball, 12 women's and nine men's teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past nine seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences. The six men's Final Four participants since 2002 are tied for the most of any conference.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 225 scholars have received over $1.3 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 13 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 46 million people and television households in 18 of the top 100 markets within its geographic footprint.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

In the last several years the Big 12 has increased its bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN and FSN. Most recently, the league renewed and expanded its multi-year arrangement with ABC/ESPN, Inc. The new contract began in 2008-09.

The Big 12 is scheduled to play in eight bowl games for the 2010 season, including one automatic BCS bid for the Fiesta Bowl and an opportunity for its teams to earn a spot in the BCS National Championship or one of two BCS at-large bids in the Orange Bowl and Sugar Bowl.

In its first 13 years, the Conference has distributed more than $1.1 billion to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in its 21 sports. The conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

COACHING STAFF

JOE DEFOREST

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH - SAFETIES/SPECIAL TEAMS

DeForest has long been established as one of the nation's top special teams coaches. In the last two years alone, Oklahoma State has had a Ray Guy Award winner (Matt Fodge) a first-team All-American in the return game (Perrish Cox) and the Big 12 special teams player of the year (Dez Bryant). DeForest is in his 10th year at Oklahoma State.

GUNTER BREWER

RECEIVERS

Brewer has coached an impressive list of receivers, including pro wideouts Sam Aiken, Jaworski Pollock, and Wallace Wright. At OSU, his pupils have included all-Big 12 wideouts D'Juan Woods and Adarius Bowman, along with consensus All-America pick Dez Bryant, the first round pick of the Dallas Cowboys. At Marshall, Brewer coached Biletnikoff winner and long-time NFL star Randy Moss.

BILL YOUNG

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Young's sterling reputation as one of the nation's top defensive coordinators added another chapter in 2009 as the OSU unit improved from No. 93 in total defense to No. 31 in his first season back at his alma mater. OSU also set a school-record by allowing just 95.7 rushing yards per game and finished 11th nationally in that category. OSU raised its sack total from 15 to 29 and its interception total from 12 to 18.

DANA HOLGORSSEN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Holgorsen is in his first year at Oklahoma State after spending two years at Houston. Under his direction, the Cougars led the nation in total offense, scoring offense, and passing offense in 2009. Among his former players at Houston and Texas Tech are Michael Crabtree, Graham Harrell, Case Keenum and Wes Welker.

DOUG MEACHAM
INSIDE RECEIVERS

A former OSU player, Meacham is in his sixth year at OSU and has been a part of big offenses throughout his coaching career. He coached Brandon Pettigrew at OSU, who went on to become a first round pick of the Detroit Lions. Meacham played at Oklahoma State during one of the school's most successful periods and was a part of four bowl teams.

ROBERT GILLESPIE RUNNING BACKS

In his first year at Oklahoma State, Gillespie tutored a pair of first-team all-Big 12 running backs in Keith Toston and fullback Bryant Ward. As a team, the Cowboys led the conference in rushing for a fourth straight year. Gillespie, a running back at the University of Florida as a player, spent time in the NFL with Washington Redskins before embarking on his coaching career.

JASON JONES
CORNERBACKS

Jones is in his third season at OSU. Under his direction, Perrish Cox was named a first-team all-Big 12 cornerback in 2009 and a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist. He also coached Jacob Lacey at OSU. Lacey became a rookie starter for the Indianapolis Colts during their march to the 2010 Super Bowl. OSU was No. 14 nationally in 2009 with 18 interceptions.

GLENN SPENCER
LINEBACKERS

Spencer turned in an outstanding coaching effort in 2009 after losing his starting middle linebacker to injury just days before the season opener. Two OSU linebackers were recognized by the Big 12 for their play, while a third led the team in tackles. With a history of success coaching on both sides of the ball, Spencer is one of OSU's most established position coaches.

JOE WICKLINE
OFFENSIVE LINE

One of the original staff members hired by Mike Gundy, Wickline continues to churn out quality units and pro linemen. All four OSU senior linemen from a year ago have signed professional contracts. Russell Okung, the most decorated lineman in OSU history, spent four years under Wickline and became a unanimous All-American and the No. 6 overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft.

ROB GLASS
ASSISTANT AD/SPEED, STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

An OSU graduate with a history of working with national award winners and first-round draft picks, Glass returned to his alma mater from the University of Florida. During his career, he has worked with two Heisman Trophy winners, 17 NFL first-round picks and three more NBA first-rounders. He has also trained a Golden Spikes Award winner, a Ray Guy Award winner and a winner of the Thorpe Award.

CAMPUS OF CHAMPIONS

Fans and alumni of Oklahoma State University have long been blessed with one of the nation's most well-rounded athletic departments. From bowl games in the fall and Finals Fours in March, to the College World Series in June, the cheering, and winning, never stops in Stillwater.

49

Oklahoma State has won 49 NCAA championships to rank fourth in the country and tops in the Big 12.

BIG 12 POWER

During the 2009-2010 academic year, Oklahoma State had one of only three Big 12 football players voted unanimous All-American, the men's basketball player of the year, the Big 12 women's golfer of the year (and individual national champion), the outstanding outdoor track performer, the outstanding Big 12 wrestler and the cross country individual champion.

JANUARY, MARCH AND JUNE

Oklahoma State is one of only three Big 12 schools to have made appearances in January bowl games, the men's basketball Final Four and the College World Series since the inception of the league.

IT TAKES TWO

Stillwater was the home of college basketball's first dynasty. Under Mr. Henry Iba, Oklahoma State (then known as Oklahoma A&M) became the first school to win consecutive NCAA championships in men's hoops. OSU still ranks among the nation's top 10 programs with six appearances in the Final Four and in the top 20 in all-time tournament wins.

LANDING IN OMAHA

Oklahoma State has appeared in College World Series 19 times to rank sixth among all NCAA schools. OSU has made 36 appearances in the NCAA baseball tournament.

TAKEDOWN

Oklahoma State wrestling is the winningest program in the history of college athletics with 34 NCAA team championships.

STAR POWER

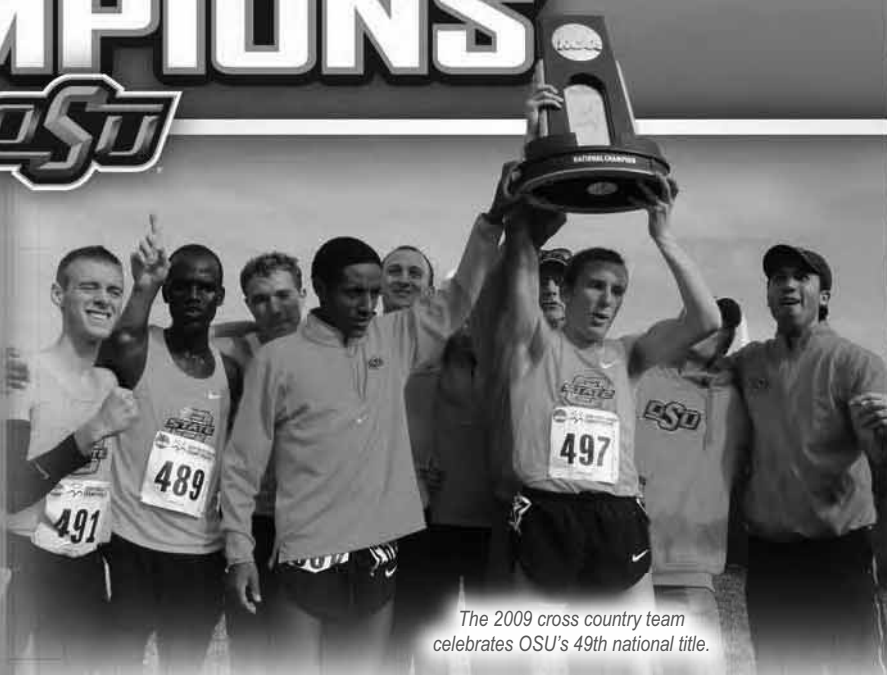

OSU's individual honors have included the college baseball player of the century in Pete Incaviglia, a college baseball player of the decade in Robin Ventura, one of the top 20 college basketball players of all-time in Bob Kurland (as selected by ESPN), a Heisman Trophy winner (Barry Sanders) and runner-up (Terry Miller) and numerous NCAA individual champions and Olympic gold medalists.

FORE

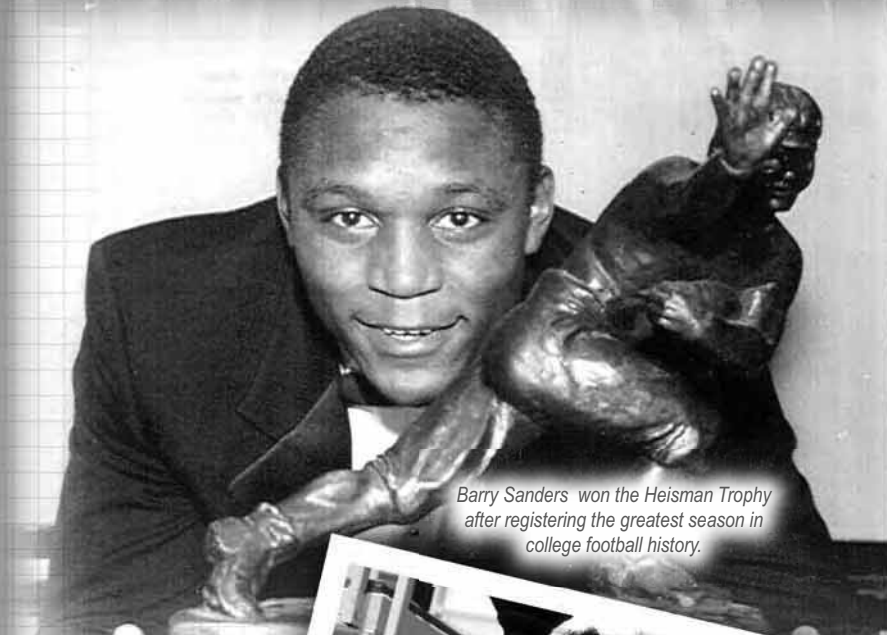

The Cowboy golf team has won 53 conference championships and is the only school in the country to appear in every NCAA Tournament. Oklahoma State has claimed 10 national championships in the sport.

WINNING WOMEN

The Cowgirl golf program has won seven of the 14 Big 12 championships that have been contested and is a perennial national title contender.

The 2009 cross country team celebrates OSU's 49th national title.

Barry Sanders won the Heisman Trophy after registering the greatest season in college football history.

OSU's German Fernandez won the national championship in the 1,500 meters as a freshman in 2009.

Mr. Henry Iba became the first college coach to earn consecutive national titles. His influence on college basketball remains in place today.

Russell Okung was a unanimous All-American and the sixth overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft.

Pete Incaviglia, college baseball's player of the century.

James Anderson was the 2010 Big 12 men's basketball player of the year.

Caroline Hedwall was crowned NCAA champion in 2010 as a sophomore.

THE 10 SPOT

During the 2006-2007 academic year, 10 different OSU teams ascended into the top 10 of their sport.

FAST PITCH

Oklahoma State has appeared in the Women's College World Series six times – tying for the most World Series appearances by a Big 12 school and ranking seventh nationally.

NET GAIN

The Cowgirl tennis program is a player on the national scene and at one point reeled off 11 consecutive conference championships.

CONSISTENCY

The Cowboy tennis team has been a postseason regular under James Wadley with nine appearances in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament.

ON TOP

The 49th NCAA championship in school history came in 2009 when the Cowboy cross country team won its second NCAA title.

EXPANSION

Two of the newest sports on OSU's campus are women's soccer and equestrian. Equestrian has already claimed a national title and is a year removed from a Big 12 title. The soccer team has reached the top 10 in each of the past four seasons and has won a regular season and Big 12 tournament title over the last two years.

TRACKING SUCCESS

OSU's track and field history includes more than 80 All-Americans.

COWGIRL RECONFIGURATION

The OSU women's basketball program has re-emerged with NCAA Tournament appearances in three of the last four seasons.

UNIVERSITY

Oklahoma's only university with a statewide presence, Oklahoma State University is a five-campus, public educational system that improves the lives of people in Oklahoma, the nation, and the world by adhering to its land-grant mission of high-quality teaching, research and outreach.

OSU research, scholarship, and creative activities promote human and economic development through the expansion of knowledge and its application.

Established as a result of the Morrill Act, the Stillwater campus is the home of the OSU System. OSU was founded on December 25, 1890, as Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College. On July 1, 1957, Oklahoma A&M College became Oklahoma State University.

The OSU System has an enrollment of more than 33,000 students across its five campuses. Named Oklahoma's inaugural Truman Honor Institution for its production of Truman Scholars, OSU today boasts students from all 50 states and nearly 120 nations. There are more than 200,000 OSU alumni throughout the world.

When it comes to outreach, OSU reaches across the state of Oklahoma. It has five campuses: Stillwater, which includes the Center for Veterinary Health Sciences; OSU-Tulsa; OSU-Oklahoma City; OSU Institute of Technology in Okmulgee; and the OSU Center for Health Sciences in Tulsa, which includes the OSU Medical Center. OSU also boasts 16 agricultural experiment stations statewide, extension offices in 76 counties, a new sensor testing facility in Ponca City, and is developing a biosciences institute in Ardmore in partnership with the Noble Foundation.

With more than 350 undergraduate and graduate degrees and options, as well as professional degree programs in medicine and veterinary medicine, OSU and its nine different colleges provide unmatched diversity of academic offerings.

OSU conducts innovative research and technology transfer that enhance Oklahoma's economic vitality and its quality of life. The focus has expanded greatly since 1890, but the third cornerstone of the university's land-grant mission remains as crucial for the future of Oklahoma as it was at statehood.

Interdisciplinary collaborations with academic institutions, government agencies, private business, and industry ensure that contributions of faculty and student researchers to the development of new knowledge and its dissemination are pertinent and lasting.

Areas of emphasis include: alternative energies and conservation; animal-based agriculture and biotechnology; environmental protection; food production and safety; health and medicine; manufacturing and advanced materials; national defense and homeland security; sensors and sensor technologies; and transportation and infrastructure.

Although OSU is a large, comprehensive university, its size does not minimize the personal attention given to each student. OSU encourages all students when they first enroll to identify the college in which they wish to major. Because the average number of students majoring in any one department is less than 150, the student can count on personal attention in a friendly environment.

OSU offers students many distinct advantages. It has more than 2 million volumes in the library; modern research laboratories and equipment; excellent physical education, recreation and student union facilities; nationally-recognized residence halls programs; outstanding cultural events; and 36 nationally-affiliated fraternities and sororities that provide a stimulating educational and social environment.

HISTORY OF OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

The story of Oklahoma State University began on Christmas Eve, 1890, at the McKennon Opera House in Oklahoma's territorial capital of Guthrie when Territorial Governor George W. Steele signed legislation establishing an Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College (OAMC) in Payne County.

OAMC's first students assembled for class on December 14, 1891, even though there were no buildings, no books, and no curriculum. The college's first students attended classes in the Stillwater Congregational Church. The original campus consisted of 200 acres of prairie that were donated by four local homesteaders. The college's first six graduates received their diplomas in 1896.

Visitors to the OSU campus often marvel at its beauty and consistency of architecture. Much of the credit goes to legendary president, Henry G. Bennett, who served from 1928-1951. Dr. Bennett's 25-year campus master plan envisioned some of the university's most famous and beautiful structures, including the Edmon Low Library and the OSU Student Union.

A new campus master plan is guiding unprecedented construction that is making OSU more competitive in academics and athletics. Starting in the fall of 2008, OSU has opened the new Multimodal Transportation Terminal, the new North Classroom Building, the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium, refurbished Old Central, the Donald W. Reynolds Architecture Building and an upgraded Murray Hall. It is completing work on the new Henry Bellmon Research Center and has started a major renovation of the Student Union. Hall of Fame Avenue on the north and University Avenue on the south have both been significantly upgraded, and the university has started an update to its campus landscape plan.

OSU grew quite rapidly following World War II. The post-war years were marked by a huge enrollment surge. Some graduates from that era may remember "Veteran's Village," a thriving community that developed on the northwest edge of campus as veterans and their families moved into surplus military housing provided by the college. The mid-1940s also were a golden era for athletics at Oklahoma A&M. In a 90-day period in early 1945, A&M teams won the Cotton Bowl, the NCAA championship in wrestling, and the NCAA championship in basketball. The next year, the wrestling and basketball teams repeated as national champions, and the football team won the Sugar Bowl. Coaches and players from that era are now sports legends. Coach Henry Iba set a national standard in basketball and Edward Gallagher took his wrestling teams to international prominence.

People often ask when OSU made the transition from college to university. By the 1950s the college had grown substantially. In 1957, Oklahoma A&M became The Oklahoma State University for Agriculture and Applied Science.

During the next three decades, OSU would build academic programs to match its new status. Enrollment more than doubled from 10,385 in 1957 to more than 23,000 in the 1980s. OSU became a statewide university system, adding branches in Okmulgee in 1946 and Oklahoma City in 1961. OSU merged with the Oklahoma College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1988, and OSU-Tulsa was born in 1999.

Today, OSU has more than 33,000 students across five campuses and a presence in every Oklahoma county through its extension offices and experiment stations. From six graduates in 1896, to nearly 5,000 annually today, the small college on the prairie has grown and prospered far beyond the dreams of its founders. OSU teaching, research and graduates are making a bigger impact on the lives of people around the world than ever before. It's a great time to be a Cowboy!

BRANDING SUCCESS™

THE CAMPAIGN FOR OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY.

Why OSU?

Every gift to Oklahoma State University's billion-dollar campaign accelerates learning and discovery. What's happening here is bold, surprising and vitally important. Join us at the forefront of innovation.

We've patented a process for converting an abundant weed—switchgrass—into biofuel that returns over five times more energy than corn ethanol. We're perfecting sensor technologies embedded in paper strips that change color in the presence of explosive compounds. Brilliant ideas can become fully realized innovations with the right people and resources. Your gift will help OSU retain world-class faculty and equip them to do groundbreaking work.

Students who choose OSU have one thing in common: They don't take resources for granted. They take pride in exceeding expectations. At every milestone, OSU students reach for yet another goal. You can foster excellence by supporting transformative learning opportunities and scholarships.

Investors in Branding Success include some of the world's leading entrepreneurs and executives. They recognize in OSU a familiar spirit of boldness, resourcefulness, and insistence on results. You can join OSU's intrepid leaders to accelerate innovation in areas ranging from agriculture to workforce development.

With Branding Success, Oklahoma State University is accelerating toward breakthroughs critically important to Oklahoma and the world.

Why Now?

Today, OSU is redefining and reimagining the land-grant mandates of openness, accessibility and service for the 21st century. This campaign will infuse OSU with the capital needed to fuel transformative initiatives and unleash the promise of people and ideas.

The world has changed in many ways since our inception in 1890. The challenges we face — as a state, as an united humankind — are invigorating. Our opportunities span all disciplines, departments and colleges. And they touch our everyday lives. From where we stand, the world is wide open.

And our time to act is now.

Consider the Facts

- State funding continues to decrease, totaling only 25.3% of OSU's annual budget. Students face not only rising tuition, but also increased costs for books, fees, room and board.
- Average combined income (in Oklahoma) is approximately $41,000.
- A historic number of OSU students are applying for financial aid.
- Approximately 4,000 current OSU students are receiving no financial support from their families.
- 83% of the OSU student population receive some type of financial assistance.

- Average student loan debt for undergrads last year exceeded $19,000, exceeding $21,000 for nonresident undergraduates.
- OSU students received in excess of $221 million in financial aid, grants and loans last year.
- Federal and state aid comprised 32% of all dollars awarded.
- Institutional aid comprised 58% of all dollars awarded.
- Student and parent loans comprised 43% of all dollars awarded.
- Community college's relative lower cost has forced families to make college choices based on cost rather than value.

It is an understatement to say the needs of our students, faculty, facilities and programs are at an all-time high. Even greater — their ability to have immediate impact on our world at this moment is also at an all-time high. The common denominator: private support.

This campaign is simple and focused. Centering on significant support for four areas critical to our success, they are the driving force in achieving our transformative vision of recreating the nation's modern-day land-grant university: $500 million for student support, $200 for faculty support, $200 for facility support, and $100 million for program support.

Our time is now. So is yours. Together we can brand Oklahoma State University with success.

GREAT OSU MOMENTS

1944-1945

Led by Bob Fenimore and Neill Armstrong, Oklahoma A&M was one of America's dominant teams at the conclusion of World War II. Behind the duo, the Aggies posted a two-year record of 17-1 and claimed Sugar and Cotton Bowl victories. During that period, the Aggies outscored in-state rival OU by a combined 75-6 count. Both Armstrong and Fenimore earned All-America honors, becoming the first Oklahoma A&M players to accomplish the feat. The 1945 squad was Oklahoma State's first undefeated team and would finish No. 5 in the Associated Press poll.

BEDLAM STREAK

The Cowboys ended a losing streak against Oklahoma with a pair of one-point victories over the Sooners in 1965 and 1966. In 1965, OSU got 76 rushing yards and a TD from Walt Garrison, and 12 tackles from Charles Harper, in the 17-16 win. It was the first victory for the orange and black in Norman in 20 years. The following year, quarterback Ron Johnson ran for two scores and OSU stopped a two-point try in the last 90 seconds of the win.

CHAMPS

The 1976 Cowboys of Jim Stanley earned a share of the Big Eight championship during a 9-3 season. The campaign culminated with a Tangerine Bowl victory over Brigham Young. Critical to the success of the season was a 31-24 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma as Terry Miller rushed for 159 yards and OSU rallied from a 17-14 halftime deficit.

THE FIRST BARRY

The 1984 Gator Bowl announced OSU's re-emergence on the national stage as ninth-ranked Oklahoma State scored late for the 21-14 win over South Carolina. Quarterback Rusty Hilger found tight end Barry Hanna for a 25-yard touchdown with just 1:04 remaining in the game for the final points. Hanna carried a handful of Carolina players across the goal line to clinch it. The victory capped off the first 10-win season in OSU history and it came in Pat Jones' first year as the OSU head coach.

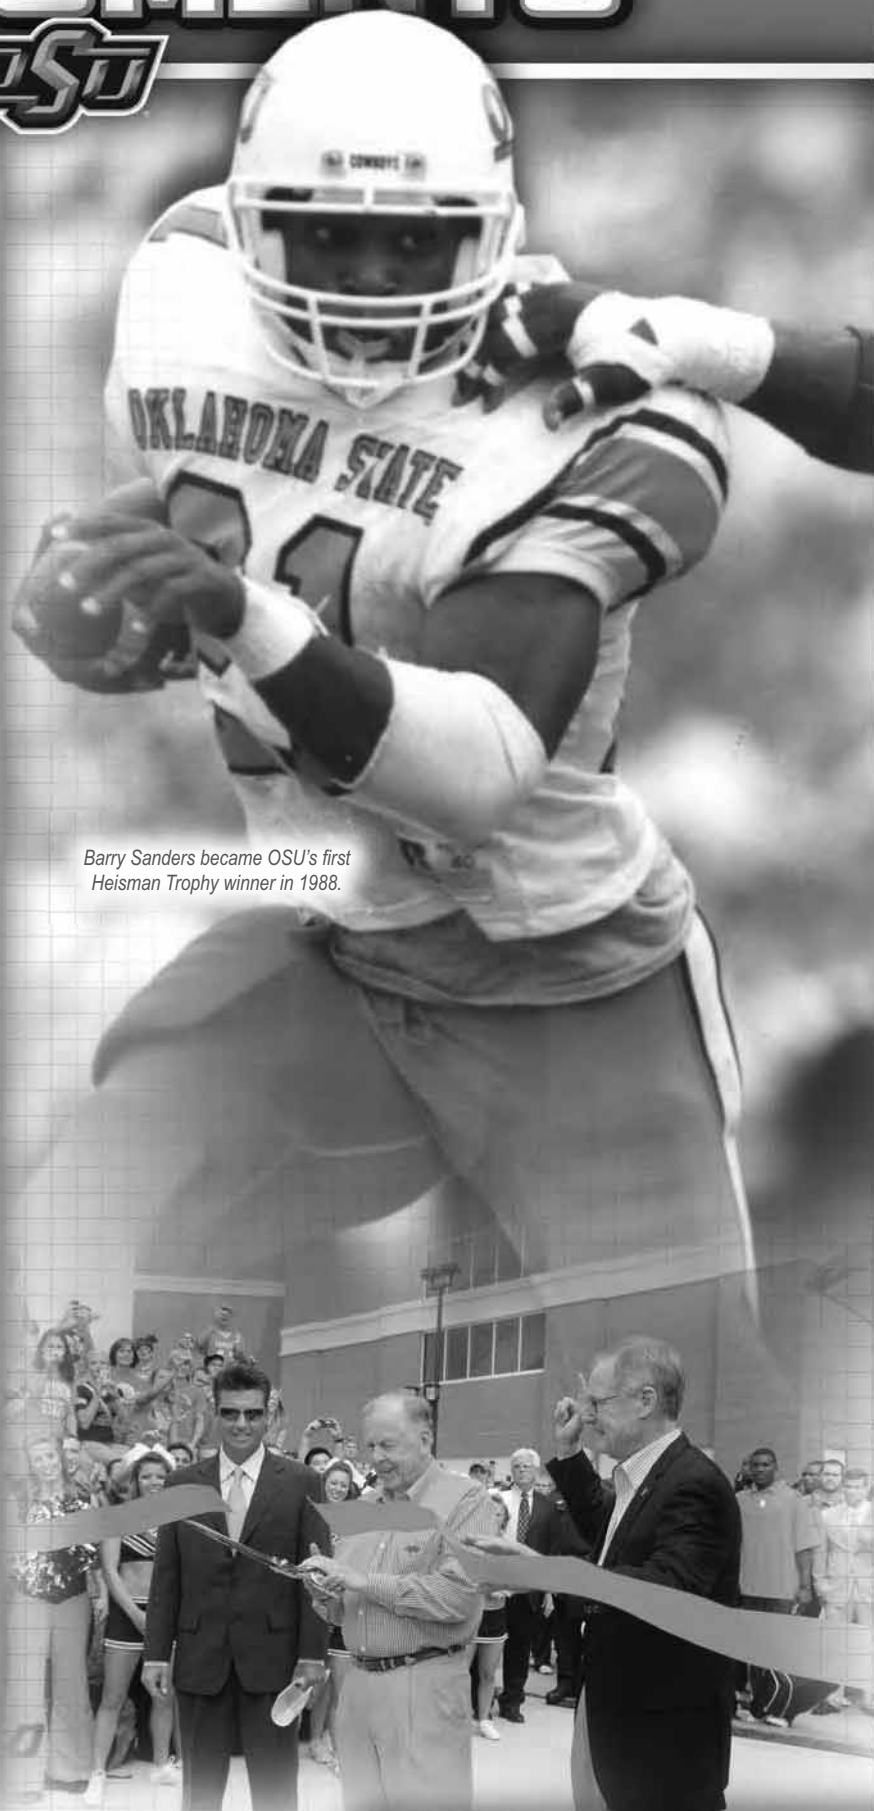

SNOW IN THE SUN

Oklahoma State wrapped up another 10-win season in 1987 with a dramatic 35-33 Sun Bowl win over West Virginia. Thurman Thomas ran for 157 yards and four scores in weather that fluctuated between sunny and blizzard. Despite the offensive firepower, it was Shawn Mackey's tackle on a Mountaineer two-point try with just 1:13 remaining that clinched the victory. Thomas was named the game's MVP in his final contest as a Cowboy. He left Stillwater as OSU's all-time leading rusher.

THE HEISMAN

The greatest individual season in the history of college football came in 1988 and was authored by Barry Sanders of Oklahoma State. Sanders rushed for more than 2,600 yards and re-wrote the NCAA record book as he led the most potent offense in OSU history on his way to the Heisman Trophy. He was joined on the offensive attack by the Big Eight's all-time leading passer and the league's all-time leading receiver (Mike Gundy and Hart Lee Dykes). The 1988 season also marked the third time in five seasons that the Cowboys reached the 10-win mark.

Barry Sanders became OSU's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1988.

OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

16-13

In one of the most shocking results in Bedlam history and certainly the biggest upset of 2001, the 3-7 Oklahoma State Cowboys knocked No. 4 Oklahoma out of the national title hunt with a 16-13, come-from-behind win in Norman. Rashaun Woods caught a 14-yard pass from Josh Fields with 1:36 remaining for the game's final points. OU was limited to just 220 yards. OSU got a pair of 52-yard field goals from Luke Phillips.

COTTON ENCORE

Oklahoma State returned to the Cotton Bowl for the first time since the 1940s following a 9-3 regular-season campaign in 2003. The season included a 38-10 win at Texas A&M and a 38-34 come-from-behind victory over Kansas State.

STREAK STOPPER

When the Cowboys end a streak, they really end a streak. Oklahoma State broke a long dry spell in Lincoln, Neb., during the 2007 season with a resounding 45-14 victory over the Cornhuskers. OSU, which had not won at Nebraska since the early 1960s, has now won three of the last four meetings between the two schools. Over the last two meetings, OSU has outscored the Huskers, 86-43.

COLUMBIA DAY

Oklahoma State sent shock waves throughout the nation with a 28-23 win at No. 3 Missouri in 2008. Missouri became the highest ranked opponent an Oklahoma State team had ever beaten on the road. The victory propelled OSU into the top 10 while improving the Cowboys to 7-0 on the season. The game was made even more prominent nationally as the Tigers figured to be America's new top-ranked team with a win over the Cowboys.

SEPT. 5, 2009

Oklahoma State re-dedicated the now-60,218-seat Boone Pickens Stadium with a 24-10 win over No. 13 Georgia in perhaps the most high profile opener in school history. The victory vaulted the Cowboys onto the cover of Sports Illustrated and into the Associated Press top five.

Bob Fenimore was OSU's first All-American.

Barry Hanna's touchdown run against South Carolina capped OSU's first 10-win season.

Terry Miller helped lead the Cowboys to a share of the Big 8 title.

The Cowboys celebrate their road win at No. 3 Missouri.

NIKE EQUIPMENT

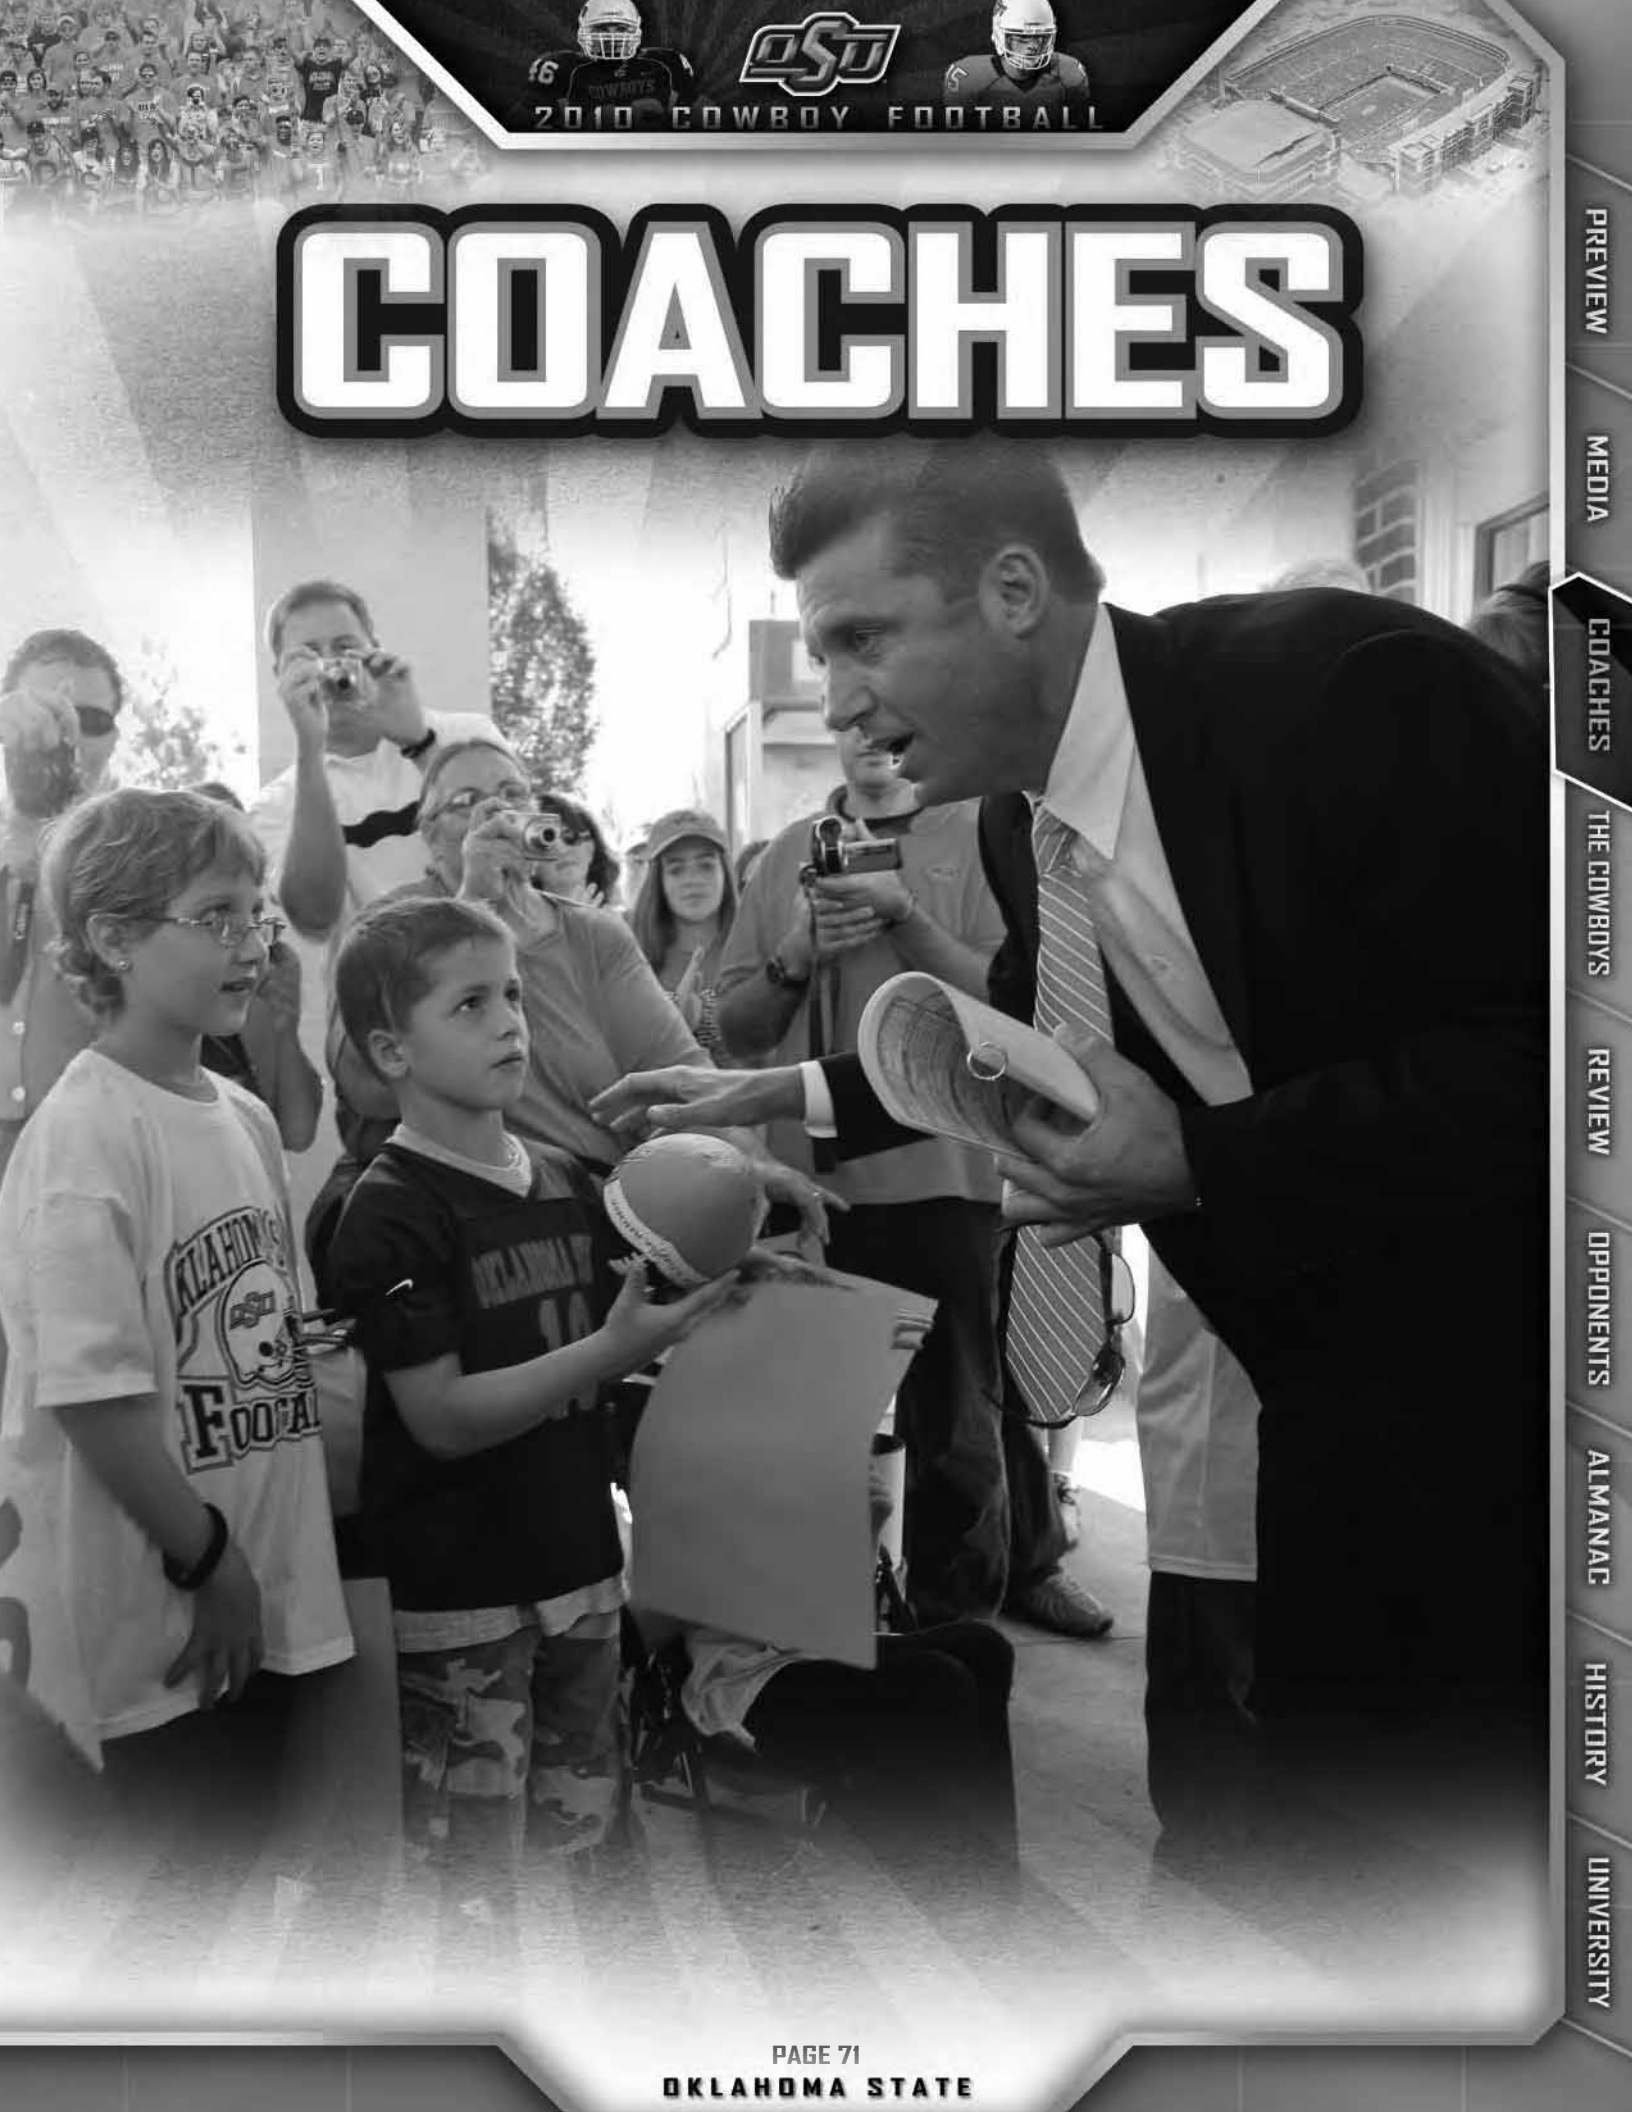

The Oklahoma State football program partners with Nike to bring its student-athletes the best apparel and gear for the weight room, for practice, for travel and for game day.

In addition, the OSU equipment staff then takes the extra steps to tailor gear to the exact specifications of the Cowboys. When each individual player reports in the summer, he is fitted to find the right shoe, shoulder pads and helmet to suit his needs.

As part of Oklahoma State's deal with Nike, the Cowboys were provided with all black uniforms that they wore in their nationally-televised win over Colorado in 2009.

Nike is known worldwide for developing products that help athletes of every level of ability reach their potential.

COACHING STAFF

MIKE GUNDY

Head Coach
Oklahoma State, 1990

In the world of college football, five seems to be an important number. Five-year plans, five-year contracts, five-year spans of player eligibility. A strong case can be made that it's difficult to judge the direction of a football program before a coaching staff has been in place for five years.

If one is a believer in the five-year theory, Mike Gundy draws rave reviews after five years as head football coach at Oklahoma State. During his tenure, OSU has climbed to one of the high points in school history.

The list of accomplishments over the past five years is lengthy.

Under Gundy's watch, the Cowboys have registered four-straight seasons with at least seven wins for the first time in school history. The Cowboys have played in four-straight bowl games for the first time ever and OSU has recorded consecutive nine-win seasons for just the second time in school history. In 2009, OSU also reached six conference wins for the first time ever and climbed to second in the Big 12 South for the first time since the league was formed. Also in 2009, OSU appeared in the Associated Press preseason top 10 for the first time ever and OSU football made its first two appearances on the cover of Sports Illustrated while cracking the AP top five for the first time in 24 years.

Gundy and Oklahoma State agreed on a new seven-year contract on Dec. 5, 2008. The new agreement keeps the former Cowboy quarterback in charge of OSU's football fortunes through at least 2015. And it is documentation of the progress that Oklahoma State has made since the 1990 OSU grad became the school's head coach.

Under Gundy's watch, the Cowboys have registered four-straight seasons with at least seven wins for the first time in school history.

Gundy is 36-27 during his head coaching career, but that record hardly tells the story of the renaissance of Cowboy football. Under his guidance, OSU's Big 12 record has improved every season: from 1-7 in 2005 to 3-5 in 2006, 4-4 in 2007, 5-3 in 2008 and 6-2 in 2009. During that same time period, the overall win total has climbed from four to nine.

Oklahoma State spent the entire 2009 season ranked in the top 25, reaching as high as fifth in the AP poll during its 9-4 season. Along the way

OSU set a new record for season ticket sales, and played in front of the five largest home crowds in school history. OSU entered the final week of the regular season very much in contention for its first BCS bowl berth and the Cowboys' 6-2 Big 12 record propelled OSU to No. 2 in the Big 12 bowl pecking order.

In 2008, the Cowboys ascended into the top 10 for the first time in 20 years, climbed to sixth in the BCS rankings and picked up a road win against a member of the Associated Press top five.

The successes over the past two years are also a testament to Gundy's patience as a program builder. He entered his tenure as head coach with a clear-cut blueprint in mind in January of 2005 after being promoted from his position of offensive coordinator under Les Miles. His early days were often challenging and the news not always good, but the energetic former Cowboy continued to lay the groundwork for a complete OSU makeover.

In very short order, Gundy put together an all-star coaching staff that proved it could not only coach the game on the field, but could recruit with the best. The four highest ranked recruiting classes in OSU history have come under Gundy. He has overhauled the Cowboy offense into one of the nation's most impressive, lured tried and true OSU alum Bill Young back to Stillwater to coordinate OSU's defense, and he continues to push his student-athletes in their endeavors away from football.

The first year was tough. Oklahoma State was 4-7 with one conference win and a sixth-place finish in the Big 12 South. Gundy, however, never wavered. He faced early and difficult decisions in his head coaching career. Those challenges included the dismissal of several players, some who figured to be headliners going into the 2005 campaign. He also had to deal with the shocking death of Vernon Grant, an inspirational team leader and multi-year starter. Gundy handled the early adversity with a steady hand beyond his years. The young Cowboys spent year one in transition with a new head coach, a new offensive coordinator and a new defensive coordinator.

1996	Baylor Quarterbacks Coach /Passing Game Coordinator
1990-95	Oklahoma State Offensive Coordinator (1994), Quarterbacks (1991-93), Receivers (1990)

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

Gundy was a four-year starter and letterman at Oklahoma State from 1986 through 1989. He is the Big Eight Conference's all-time leading passer and is second all-time at OSU with 7,997 yards. He led the Cowboys to back-to-back 10-win seasons in 1987 and 1988. His 429-yard passing performance against Kansas in 1989 is still the second-best passing game at Oklahoma State and he owns six of Oklahoma State's top 30 single-game passing performances. He also still holds Oklahoma State career records for completion percentage (58.3 percent) and interception avoidance (36 in 1,035 pass attempts).

FAMILY

Gundy is the son of Ray and Judy Gundy. His father attended OSU on a basketball grant. He and his wife, Kristen, have three sons, Gavin, Gunnar and Gage. Kristen is also an OSU graduate. His brother, Cale, is on the coaching staff at Oklahoma.

Following the Cowboys' 2006 landmark home win over No. 20 Nebraska in a game in which the Cowboys overcame a 16-0 deficit and won going away, Gundy continued to keep his eye on the big picture. His postgame address to his team began and ended with off-the-field responsibilities that come with wearing the orange and black. That theme of accountability, expectations and hard work are the new staples of Cowboy football and clearly show the link of Gundy to past Cowboy teams.

In 2007, despite facing the NCAA's toughest schedule, the Cowboys won their second straight bowl game (Insight) and the climb up the Big 12 ladder continued with OSU finishing third in the South. Oklahoma State entered the final week of the regular season playing for a share of the Big 12 South championship. The bowl titles marked the first time since 1987 and 1988 (Gundy's playing days) that the Cowboys won postseason games in consecutive seasons. The Cowboys' 45-14 win at Nebraska was OSU's first in Lincoln since the Kennedy Administration.

The Cowboy offense followed up its 2006 success with something unprecedented in 2007 when it finished the season with 3,161 rushing yards and 3,161 passing yards. OSU finished seventh nationally in total offense (486.3 yards per game). The season culminated with a 49-33 win over Indiana in the Insight Bowl and sophomore quarterback Zac Robinson set a new OSU single-season record in total offense.

In 2006, OSU's second year under Gundy, the record improved to 7-6, with a win in the Independence Bowl over Alabama. OSU fielded one of the country's most exciting offensive squads, displayed some talented underclassmen on defense and proved capable of bumping helmets with the elite of the Big 12. And that win total, as impressive as it was, could have been even more pronounced as four Cowboy losses were decided on the final play of the game. The season included a win over Big 12 North champ Nebraska and a last-play loss to South champ Oklahoma.

The 34-31 win over Alabama in the PetroSun Independence Bowl was OSU's fourth bowl appearance in five seasons, but marked just the second postseason win for OSU since Barry Sanders hung up his orange-colored cleats in 1988.

The four highest ranked recruiting classes in OSU history have come under Gundy.

Scoring was up by more than two touchdowns per game as the 2006 edition of Cowboy football became one of the most prolific offensive teams in school history, averaging more than 35 points per game. Oklahoma State joined undefeated Boise State as the only two teams in the country to average more than 200 yards per game rushing and passing.

OSU's 2006 roster also produced some of the Big 12's brightest stars, including the offensive newcomer of the year in first-team all-Big 12 receiver Adarius Bowman, and defensive freshman of the year in safety Andre Sexton. Bowman and offensive lineman Corey Hilliard were consensus first-team all-Big 12 selections. Bowman was Gundy's second straight offensive newcomer of the year (Mike Hamilton in 2005).

The Cowboys finished Gundy's second year seventh nationally (and tops in the Big 12) in rushing, seventh nationally in scoring and No. 16 in total offense. The conference rushing title was a first for Oklahoma State. OSU followed up that ground attack with more team rushing titles in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

And as much fun as the Cowboys enjoyed on the field in 2006, away from the stadium, the improvement showed as well. Oklahoma State set a school record with eight players named to the first-team academic all-Big 12 team and 13 selections overall. Included in that total was academic All-American Darnell Smith.

The season culminated with a 49-33 win over Indiana in the Insight Bowl and sophomore quarterback Zac Robinson set a new OSU single-season record in total offense.

As a team, the Cowboys went 9-4 for just the eighth nine-win season in school history. OSU appeared in a bowl game for a third straight season for just the third time ever. The 2008 Cowboys, with Gundy calling the plays, were the second highest scoring team in school history at more than 40 points per game.

It was a season that saw OSU enter the polls on Sept. 28 and camp out in the rankings for the rest of the year. Oklahoma State climbed as high as No. 7 in the AP balloting. Along the way came a win at No. 3 Missouri and a four-point near miss at No. 1 Texas. The season ended in San Diego with OSU's first trip to the Holiday Bowl since 1988.

In 2008, Oklahoma State's growing success extended beyond the sidelines. OSU set a new record for season ticket sales with 39,976. Oklahoma State also saw a climb in average attendance to 48,261 per game and along the way set a then-single-game record (52,463 vs. Troy) while earning nine wins. Robinson became the school's career total offense record holder, surpassing the mark of his head coach. The Cowboy offense finished sixth nationally with 488 yards per game. Along the way, OSU set a new school record with four straight games of more than 50 points and finished the year No. 16 in the Associated Press poll.

The 2008 breakthrough season was followed by another nine-win season in 2009, which ended with a trip to the AT&T Cotton Bowl. It was OSU's first trip to the Dallas bowl since 2004 and third overall. The season saw OSU set five more new records for single-game attendance, culminating with a record 58,516 on hand for the Texas game.

The record for season tickets was elevated to 45,694. Along the way, Zac Robinson continued to smash records, including career marks for passing yards, TD passes and single-game completion percentage. Mike Gundy had held all three records. The Cowboy defense showed stunning improvement, rising from 93rd in total defense to No. 31. Oklahoma State also set a school record with 11 television appearances.

The year saw two Cowboys, offensive lineman Russell Okung and receiver Dez Bryant, selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. Okung, a unanimous All-American and the Big 12 offensive lineman of the year, was the sixth overall pick.

The 2009 season opener, a 24-10 win over No. 13 Georgia, was a watershed event at Oklahoma State with the rededication of Boone Pickens Stadium. The ribbon-cutting ceremony was held two hours before OSU's win over the Bulldogs.

And the individual awards continued. Along with Okung, Keith Toston, Perrish Cox and Bryant Ward were first-team all-Big 12 selections. Cox also joined Okung as a first-team All-American.

Gundy, a member of the Cowboy coaching staff for 12 of the past 16 seasons, became the school's 22nd head football coach on Jan. 3, 2005. It was the culmination of a legendary career for one of Oklahoma's all-time great high school athletes.

Mike Gundy first arrived on the Oklahoma State campus in 1986 after a heavily-decorated prep career. He was an Oklahoma all-state selection in football and baseball and was selected as state's prep football player of the year by The Oklahoman and the Tulsa World. At the same time, he was a stellar student and a member of the National Honor Society.

COACHING STAFF

As a senior, he led Midwest City High School to a state championship, including a dramatic come-from-behind win in the title game held on the OSU campus. Along the way, he completed 63 percent of his passes for nearly 1,800 yards while calling many of his own plays at the line of scrimmage.

After a heavyweight recruiting battle that centered on the state's two largest schools, Gundy cast his lot with Oklahoma State and prepared to redshirt his freshman season. But just four games into his true freshman season, he took over the quarterback duties for Pat Jones' Oklahoma State Cowboys. He ended 1986 by being named as the nation's top freshman quarterback by The Sporting News. He became a four-year starter at Oklahoma State (1986-89), and led the Cowboys to a pair of bowl wins, the 1987 Sun Bowl over West Virginia and the 1988 Holiday Bowl over Wyoming. During those two seasons, OSU accumulated a 20-4 record. Gundy was voted into the Hall of Fame of the Holiday Bowl for his efforts in San Diego when he completed 20-of-24 passes for 314 yards.

The 1988 offense is the most prolific in OSU history, scoring more than 47 points per game. It was led by the trio of Mike Gundy, Barry Sanders and Hart Lee Dykes. Gundy ended his career as the Big Eight Conference's all-time leader in passing and total offense, and he is still second all-time at OSU with 7,997 passing yards. He is also second at OSU in total offense and third in career touchdown passes (54). He passed for 2,106 yards in 1987 and 2,163 in 1988.

After graduation, Gundy joined the Oklahoma State football staff. He coached the receivers in 1990, the quarterbacks from 1991-1993 and in 1995, and served as offensive coordinator during the 1994 season in the final year for Gundy's college coach, Pat Jones. Gundy has coached in Stillwater under each of the three previous Cowboy head coaches (Jones, Bob Simmons and Les Miles).

He spent one season at Baylor (1996) as quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator before heading to the ACC, where he coached at Maryland (1997-2000). He returned to Stillwater in 2001 as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator, and he also coached OSU quarterbacks.

GUNTER BREWER

Wide Receivers
Sixth Season at OSU
Wake Forest, 1987

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

COACHING CAREER

- Gunter Brewer enters his sixth season at Oklahoma State and will be in charge of the outside receivers after spending the last two seasons in the role of co-offensive coordinator. Brewer coached receivers in 2009 and quarterbacks in 2008 and served the previous three seasons as wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator.
- Brewer has coached 16 players who have gone on to professional football careers, highlighted by record-setting receivers Randy Moss and Dez Bryant.
- Under Brewer, the Cowboys averaged 28.4 points per game in 2009 and continued to be one of the most balanced offenses in the nation. OSU's offense averaged 376.2 yards per game — a Big 12-best 187.8 yards per game on the ground and 179.5 through the air.
- The 2009 Cowboy offense produced three all-Big 12 first team selections — running back Keith Toston, fullback Bryant Ward and tackle Russell Okung, who was a finalist for the Outland Trophy.
- With Brewer serving as co-offensive coordinator, the 2008 Cowboy offense produced a pair of first-team All-Americans in wide receiver Dez Bryant (Walter Camp and American Football Coaches Association) and running back Kendall Hunter (Football Writers Association of America), to go with a first-team all-Big 12 offensive lineman in Russell Okung and a first-round draft pick in tight end Brandon Pettigrew.
- In 2008, Brewer served as a co-coordinator for a Cowboy offense that boasted a Manning Award finalist (Zac Robinson), a Biletnikoff Award finalist (Dez Bryant) and a Mackey Award finalist (Brandon Pettigrew).
- With Brewer as his position coach, Cowboy quarterback Zac Robinson was a finalist for the Manning Award presented to the nation's top quarterback and ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency at 166.8 and was 18th nationally in total offense.
- The 2008 Cowboy offense ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing, total offense, scoring and pass efficiency.
- The 2007 Cowboy offensive unit ranked seventh in the nation with 486.3 yards of total offense per game.
- Brewer coached receiver Adarius Bowman to consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons in 2006 and 2007, as Bowman totaled 1,181 yards in 2006 and 1,006 yards in 2007. Brewer also coached Dez Bryant to 622 receiving yards and a spot on Rivals.com's 2007 Freshman All-America second team.

- Brewer's 2006 OSU corps featured a pair of the Big 12's top wideouts in D'Juan Woods and Bowman. Bowman was a first-team all-league selection and the Big 12 offensive newcomer of the year. Woods was a 2005 all-Big 12 pick and ended his career as OSU's third all-time leading receiver in both receptions and yards.
- In 2005, Brewer helped Woods turn in his best season as a Cowboy (second-team all-Big 12 after hauling in 56 passes for 879 yards and eight touchdowns).
- At North Carolina, he coached three receivers who rank among the top 20 in UNC history.

- During his tenure at Carolina, Brewer coached record-setter Sam Aiken, and Chesley Borders (UNC single-game record four touchdowns at Arizona State). Carolina receivers helped the offense establish school records in passing yards per game, and completions. In 2004, the Tar Heels had eight receivers with 100 or more yards. As a unit, UNC receivers had 202 receptions for 2,573 yards and 18 touchdowns. Brewer also coached Jaworski Pollock, UNC's all-time receiving leader and single-season receptions leader (71 catches in 2003).

- Add to the list of impressive pupils the accomplishments of Bowman, who set a Big 12 record with 13 catches for 300 yards and four touchdowns in the Cowboys' win at Kansas in 2006 (11th best game in NCAA history).

- At Marshall, he coached 1997 Biletnikoff Award winner Randy Moss. In 1999, Marshall completed a perfect 13-0 season to earn a No. 10 final national ranking. In Brewer's four seasons at Marshall, the Thundering Herd had a 50-4 record.

- He arrived at Carolina for the 2000 season and had four receivers catch at least 15 passes and average more than 15 yards per catch. The next season, Carolina had two receivers with 40 or more receptions for just the second time in school history. Also that season, Brewer's Carolina receivers tied a school record with 25 touchdown receptions.

The Brewer Family

PERSONAL

- Brewer was a two-year letterwinner as a receiver at Wake Forest, where he earned his degree in science and health sports in 1987. In 1989, he was awarded a master's in education with a specialization in exercise physiology from Mississippi.
- Brewer and his wife, Rhonda, have a son, Keaton, and a daughter, Lauren. He is the son of former Ole Miss head coach Billy Brewer.

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

PERSONAL

- A former running back and team captain at the University of Florida, Gillespie played for Spurrier from 1998-2001, earning a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team and SEC Player of the Week recognition during his time with the Gators. Gillespie finished his college career ranking second all-time at Florida in receiving yards by a back. A two-time member of the SEC Fall Sports Academic Honor Roll in 2000 and 2001, Gillespie returned to Gainesville to earn a degree in sports management from Florida in 2005.
- Gillespie played for the NFL's Washington Redskins in 2002 and 2003 and played for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 2003 before taking a teaching job at his alma mater, Hattiesburg High School in Hattiesburg, Miss., in 2004. He stayed on at Hattiesburg for an internship in the athletic department in 2005 before making his way to South Carolina.
- Gillespie and his wife, the former Crystal Moore, were married during the summer of 2009.

The Gillespie Family

COACHING CAREER

- The 2009 season was Robert Gillespie's first at Oklahoma State. He came to Stillwater after serving on Steve Spurrier's staff at South Carolina from 2005 through 2008.
- Under Gillespie's tutelage, senior Keith Toston blossomed into an all-Big 12 first team performer who rushed for 1,218 yards, and the Cowboys led the conference in rushing offense at 187.8 yards per game. Fullback Bryant Ward also earned first-team all-conference honors in Gillespie's first season.
- With Gillespie on staff, the Gamecocks appeared in the 2005 Independence Bowl, the 2006 Liberty Bowl and the 2009 Outback Bowl.
- Gillespie was promoted to the Gamecocks' running backs coach on Dec. 16, 2005, after spending the 2005 campaign as a graduate assistant for video at South Carolina.
- Under Gillespie's watch, the South Carolina backs combined to rush for 1,876 yards in 2006, marking a 61 percent increase from the year prior to his appointment as running backs coach. South Carolina averaged 144.31 rushing yards per game in 2006, ranking 49th nationally just one year after ranking 108th among Division I-A teams with a 95.17 yards per game average.
- In 2007, Carolina tailback Cory Boyd rushed for 903 yards, the most yards for a Gamecock back since Derek Watson logged 1,066 yards rushing in 2000. Boyd was selected in the NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Bucs.

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

COACHING CAREER

- Dana Holgorsen joined the Oklahoma State coaching staff in January of 2010 after a two-year stint as offensive coordinator at the University of Houston.
- Prior to his time with the Cougars, he was on the staff at Texas Tech from 2000 through 2007.
- In his two years at Houston, Holgorsen and the Cougars put up explosive offensive numbers. Under his direction, UH ended the 2009 season as the national leader in total offense with 563 yards per game, scoring offense with 42.2 points per game, and passing offense with 433.7 yards per game.
- His first year in Houston saw the Cougars rank second in the nation in passing offense (401.62 yards per game) and total offense (562.77 yards per game). UH scored 40.62 points per game to rank 10th nationally.
- Under Holgorsen's guidance, Houston quarterback Case Keenum led the nation in total offense in both 2008 and 2009, racking up 403.15 yards of total offense per game his sophomore year and 416.36 yards of offense per game his junior year.

- Keenum ranked among the nation's top-10 passing efficiency leaders each of his two seasons under Holgorsen's watch.
- During his stay in Lubbock, his various titles included inside receivers coach, co-offensive coordinator, and eventually offensive coordinator (2005 through 2007) and quarterbacks coach. Over that period of time, the Red Raiders increased their offensive numbers from 324.8 yards per game to 529.6 yards per game.
- With Holgorsen serving as offensive coordinator in 2007, Texas Tech led the nation in passing offense (470.31 yards per game), ranked second nationally in total offense (529.62 yards per game) and was seventh nationally in scoring offense (40.92 points per game). Quarterback Graham Harrell led the nation in total offense and receiver Michael Crabtree led the nation in receptions per game and receiving yards per game. Crabtree won the Biletnikoff Award as America's top receiver in 2007.

- In 2006, the Red Raiders ranked third nationally in passing offense and sixth in total offense. Harrell was third nationally in total offense with 344.38 yards per game.

- In 2005, Texas Tech led the nation in passing offense with 388.83 yards per game, was fourth in scoring offense at 39.42 points per game and was sixth in total offense with 495.83 yards per contest. Quarterback Cody Hodges ranked second in the country with 369.08 yards per game.

- A native of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa who played at Iowa Wesleyan, Holgorsen has been in the coaching ranks since 1993. His other career stops have included Valdosta State, Mississippi College and Wingate.

PERSONAL

- Born June 21, 1971, Holgorsen graduated from Iowa Wesleyan in 1993 and went on to earn a master's degree in health and physical education from Valdosta State in 1995.
- He has three children: McClavne, Logan and Carlyn.

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

COACHING CAREER

- Jason Jones completed his second year as cornerbacks coach at Oklahoma State in 2009.
- Jones coached senior Perrish Cox to first-team All-America honors in 2009 and saw him named a Thorpe Award semifinalist. He is part of a defensive coaching staff that helped OSU improve to 31st nationally in total defense in 2009.
- With Jones serving as his position coach, Jacob Lacey ranked second in the Big 12 and 16th nationally in passes defended in 2008. He was honored as a second-team all-Big 12 cornerback by the conference's coaches.
- Jones came to Stillwater from Tulsa, where he served as cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator in 2006. He helped the Golden Hurricane to a 10-4 record, an appearance in the Conference USA championship game, and a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2008 GMAC Bowl.

• Success has followed Jones at each of his coaching stops. In 2006, Jones served as the cornerbacks coach at Rice University, helping the Owls to their first bowl trip in 45 years as the Owls competed in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl. In his first stint at Tulsa, Jones coached cornerbacks and helped the Golden Hurricane to a Conference USA championship and an appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. His first coaching job came as a graduate assistant at Alabama, where he helped his alma mater to an appearance in the Music City Bowl.

• With Jones leading the Tulsa secondary in 2005, the Hurricane defense ranked third nationally in takeaways (36) and interceptions (22) and was 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense and 17th in pass defense. Jones' cornerbacks totaled 13 of those interceptions and had 29 passes defended.

PERSONAL

- Born Nov. 13, 1977, Jones is a 2001 graduate of the University of Alabama with a degree in financial planning. Jones was a two-year starter at defensive back for the Crimson Tide and was part of three Alabama bowl teams, competing in the 1996 Outback Bowl, the 1998 Music City Bowl and the 1999 FedEx Orange Bowl.
- A member of Crimson Tide teams that played in the Southeastern Conference championship game in 1996 and 1999.
- Jones earned a master's degree from Alabama in sports management in 2005. He and his wife Kysha have a 15-year-old son, Andrew. They also have a son, Jace, who was born in 2009.

GLENN SPENCER

Linebackers
Third Season at OSU
Georgia Tech, 1987

- Prior to his time at Tech, Spencer spent 11 seasons at West Georgia, highlighted by a successful three-year run as head coach from 1998-2000. Spencer compiled a 28-7 record that included Gulf South Conference championships and NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 1998 and 2000. The American Football Coaches Association honored him as the NCAA Division II Region Coach of the Year in 1998 after he coached the Braves to a 10-2 record. He led the team to an 8-3 mark in 1999 and a 10-2 record in 2000 and left West Georgia with a Gulf South Conference-record .800 winning percentage.
- Spencer started his coaching career as an assistant at West Georgia in 1990. He coached the defensive line and linebackers for seven years before taking over as defensive coordinator in 1997 when the Braves captured the school's first Gulf South Conference title while establishing a single-season school record for scoring defense.

PERSONAL

- A native of Douglasville, Ga., Spencer graduated from Lithia Springs High School before lettering four seasons as a defensive tackle at Georgia Tech from 1982-85. He helped the Yellow Jackets to a 9-2-1 mark and a 17-14 win over Michigan State in the All-American Bowl his senior year.
- A 1987 graduate of Georgia Tech with a bachelor's degree in management, Spencer is married to the former Angela Folds of Carrollton, Ga., and the couple has two sons, Luke and Abraham.

The Spencer Family

COACHING CAREER

- Glenn Spencer enters his third year at Oklahoma State and his second as linebackers coach. He coached the Cowboy defensive line in 2008. He spent the previous three seasons as assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach at Duke.
- Spencer had a pair of linebackers – Patrick Lavine and Andre Sexton – earn honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades in 2009. He is part of a defensive coaching staff that helped OSU improve to 31st nationally in total defense and a group that ranked 11th nationally in rushing defense in '09.
- Under Spencer's watch, defensive linemen Jeray Chatham and Tonga Tea were both singled out as 2008 honorable mention All-Big 12 selections.
- During his time with the Blue Devils, Spencer coached John Talley to first-team all-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in both 2005 and 2006. He did remarkable work on the recruiting front for Duke, helping the Blue Devils land the nation's No. 31 class in 2005 and the No. 36 class in 2006, according to Scout.com.
- Prior to his arrival at Duke, Spencer coached the defensive line at Georgia Tech in 2002 and 2003 and served as the Yellow Jackets' running backs coach in 2001. With Spencer coaching the defensive line, Georgia Tech ranked 12th nationally in rushing defense, 20th in total defense and 27th in scoring defense in 2003 and placed a pair of representatives on the all-ACC squad. Eric Henderson earned first-team recognition after leading the conference with 11 quarterback sacks and logging 24 tackles for loss, and Travis Parker earned honorable mention honors. In addition, Spencer coached Mansfield Wrotto to Freshman All-America honors.
- Spencer coached all-ACC tailback Joe Burns in 2001, helping Burns to become just the fifth 1,000-yard rusher in Yellow Jacket history.
- During his time with Georgia Tech, he coached the Yellow Jackets in the Silicon Valley Football Classic in 2002 and the Seattle Bowl in 2001. He helped Georgia Tech to an appearance in the 2003 Humanitarian Bowl, but did not coach in the game as he accepted the assistant head coach job at Duke following the regular season but prior to the bowl game.

JOE WICKLINE

Offensive Line
Sixth Season at OSU
Florida, 1983

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

COACHING CAREER

• Joe Wickline is entering his sixth year at Oklahoma State and his 29th year as a college football coach. He will serve as the offensive line coach in 2010 after also spending last season as the Cowboys' co-offensive coordinator.

• Under Wickline, the Cowboys averaged 28.4 points per game in 2009 and continued to be one of the most balanced offenses in the nation. OSU's offense averaged 376.2 yards per game — a Big 12-best 187.8 yards per game on the ground and 179.5 through the air.

• Wickline oversaw one of the most productive offensive lines in OSU history in 2009, a unit that helped OSU lead the league in rushing offense for the fourth-straight season. The Cowboys ranked among the NCAA leaders in sacks against, allowing just 12 on the season, and the line paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher for the third-straight season, just the second time in school history that has happened.

• Coached left tackle Russell Okung, an all-Big 12 first team honoree in 2008 and 2009, to unanimous All-America status in 2009. Okung was the only offensive lineman included on the list of three finalists for the 2009 Outland Trophy. He was also named the 2009 Big 12 offensive lineman of the year.

• Under Wickline's tutelage, the 2008 Oklahoma State offensive line keyed the nation's No. 8 rushing attack, the nation's No. 6 unit in total offense and the nation's No. 9 unit in scoring offense.

• With Wickline's offensive line leading the way, Oklahoma State had at least one running back rush for 100 yards or more in 15 consecutive games during one stretch of time spanning from the 2007 season through the 2008 season.

• In 2008, Wickline's charges helped running back Kendall Hunter to earn first-team All-America honors by the Football Writers Association of America and wide receiver Dez Bryant to earn first-team All-America honors by the Walter Camp Foundation and the American Football Coaches Association.

• Despite having only one senior, the 2007 Cowboy offensive line ranked third in the nation with just 11 sacks allowed in 13 games.

• In Big 12 play, the 2007 Cowboys allowed a league-

low five sacks in eight conference games.

• OSU ended the 2007 season eighth nationally in rushing (243.2 yards per game) and easily led the Big 12 in that category.

• When the dust had settled in 2006, Oklahoma State had ended the season with an offense ranked No. 16 nationally and a rushing attack that finished seventh nationally. Along the way, senior tackle Corey Hilliard was a unanimous first-team all-Big 12 selection. The accomplishments came despite 13 starts up front by two OSU freshmen (Brady Bond and Russell Okung).

• Wickline helped Charlie Johnson make a successful transition to the tackle spot from tight end. Johnson became the first OSU offensive lineman selected in the NFL Draft since 1985 when Indianapolis took him in 2006. He went on to a solid rookie season and played a pivotal role in the Colts' Super Bowl win over Chicago.

• The 2006 offensive line helped the Cowboys average more than 35 points per game and for the first time ever, the Cowboys had four players rush for at least 500 yards.

• At Ole Miss (1988-1994), Wickline coached All-American Everett Lindsay, who went on to a long career with the Minnesota Vikings. At Florida, he coached five All-Americans, including first-teamers Lomas Brown, Shannon Snell and Jeff Zimmerman. Wickline also coached Max Starks, a former tackle for the Gators who now plays for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

• Wickline helped Florida's running game improve from 122.4 yards per game to 155.8 yards per game during his three years as offensive line coach. The 2004 Gator running game finished the regular season second in the SEC in yards per carry (4.5).

• He was the running game coordinator for Middle Tennessee in 2001 when Dwon Hicks broke the school record for single-season rushing touchdowns (20). The Blue Raiders also set new standards for total offense per game (481.4) and total offense per play (6.8) that season and ranked fifth nationally in total offense.

PERSONAL

• Wickline played at Florida, where he was a three-year letterman. He was selected to play in the Blue-Gray Game following his Gator career. Wickline also lettered one season in wrestling.

• He was born Oct. 23, 1958, in St. Petersburg, Fla., and earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Florida in 1983. He is married to the former Nicki Sturdivant and has three children, Lacey, Kelby and Lauren.

BILL YOUNG

Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line
Second Season at OSU

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

PERSONAL

• Young was born in Hereford, Texas, but attended Grant High School in Oklahoma City. He earned a bachelor's degree in education at OSU in 1968 and a master's degree in education at Central Oklahoma in 1971. He spent six years in the Oklahoma high school ranks at Carl Albert and Putnam City West before returning to OSU as a graduate assistant coach. His wife, Lawana, is also a native Oklahoman and a graduate of Northeastern State in Tahlequah.

The Young Family

COACHING CAREER

- OSU graduate Bill Young returned to Stillwater to join Mike Gundy's staff as defensive coordinator in January of 2009. Young, who has a long history of success at the highest levels of football, came to OSU after spending the 2008 season as the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami (Fla.).
- He was instrumental in one of the most impressive defensive turnarounds in the NCAA in 2009. The Cowboys ranked fourth in the Big 12 and 31st nationally in total defense, allowing 332.54 yards per game. OSU's rushing defense allowed just 95.7 yards per outing, a total which ranked fourth in the league and 11th nationally. That mark broke the existing school record of 99.2 yards per game set in 1983. The year prior to Young's arrival, OSU was No. 93 in total defense.
- Adding to OSU's 2009 defensive improvement, the Cowboys racked up 29 sacks after recording just 15 all of the 2008 season. OSU also had 18 interceptions compared to only 12 in '08.
- Prior to his year at Miami, Young was part of the major turnaround at Kansas, where he coached from 2002 through 2007. His 2007 Jayhawks finished the year No. 12 nationally in total defense and fourth in scoring defense as KU won the Orange Bowl. It was the highest national ranking for a KU defense in 39 years. His 2005 Kansas squad led the Big 12 in rushing defense.

- Young's collegiate coaching stops have included OSU, where he coached the offensive and defensive lines from 1976 through 1978. He also spent a year at Iowa State before joining the staff at Tulsa, where he coached from 1980-84, serving as defensive coordinator from 1983-84. He then made the move with TU head coach John Cooper to Arizona State.
- Young spent three years coaching the defensive line at ASU before three straight stints as a defensive coordinator (Ohio State, Oklahoma and Southern California). After a season as the defensive line coach of the Detroit Lions, Young returned to the college game and spent 2002 through 2007 as the defensive coordinator at Kansas, prior to joining the Hurricanes.
- Young's accomplishments are many. He has been part of 17 bowl teams. While at USC, Young's Trojan defenders led the Pac-10 in total defense and were second nationally in takeaways.
- His longest coaching stint came at Ohio State, where he was the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator and defensive line coach from 1988 through 1995.

PLAYING CAREER

- Bill Young was an outside linebacker and defensive end at Oklahoma State. He was a three-year starter and an academic all-Big Eight honoree. He received OSU's outstanding football award in 1967, when he was also named honorable mention all-conference. He was named an alternate to the Oklahoma high school all-state team after his senior season at Oklahoma City Grant.

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

- Rob Glass is in his sixth year as assistant athletic director for speed, strength and conditioning at his alma mater.

- Glass, one of the most recognized and preeminent strength and conditioning experts in college athletics, returned to OSU after a 10-year stint at Florida. Glass first worked for the Cowboys as both a football graduate assistant coach and strength coach from 1986-95 and his current tenure brings his total to 16 years at Oklahoma State.
- During his 26-year career, Glass has worked with two Heisman Trophy winners (Barry Sanders and Danny Wuerffel), a Golden Spikes Award winner (Robin Ventura), a Thorpe Award winner (Lawrence Wright) and a Ray Guy Award winner (Matt Fodge) in addition to 17 first-round NFL draft picks and three first-round NBA draft picks as well as countless All-Americans and Olympians.
- After earning his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State in 1984, Glass served on Pat Jones' football staff as a graduate assistant coach. He was named head strength coach at OSU in 1989 and served in that capacity until 1995, when he accepted a position as coordinator of strength and conditioning at Florida. He became Florida's director of strength and conditioning in 1998.
- In May of 2002, Glass was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach, the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach, by the National Conference of Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.
- Glass has been associated with 16 bowl teams since 1987, including the Sun, Holiday, Insight and Cotton Bowls at Oklahoma State, and 10 bowls at Florida, including the 1996 Fiesta Bowl, two Orange Bowls and two Sugar Bowls. He was at Florida for a national championship and worked with two Gator squads that played in the national title game. He worked with four UF teams that played in the SEC championship game.
- At Oklahoma State, Glass was instrumental in the development of All-Americans Barry Sanders, Thurman Thomas, Jason Gildon, Keith Burns, Dez Bryant, Kendall Hunter, Brandon Pettigrew and Russell Okung.

- Glass was born July 3, 1961, in Newkirk, Okla. He is married to the former Laurie Lipe, and they have two children, Garrison and Jared.

PROFESSIONAL

- Joined the OSU staff in the summer of 2004 after a highly successful run as the head coach at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College in Miami.
- In eight seasons as head coach at NEO, Patterson guided the Golden Norsemen to a 60-26 record, including Southwest Junior College Football Conference championships in 2000, 2002 and 2003. High national rankings were commonplace for NEO under Patterson, including a No. 2 finish in 2002 and 2003, and he was named the SWJCFC Coach of the Year in 2000, 2002 and 2003.
- Finished his career as the third-winningest coach in NEO football history behind only the legendary S.A. "Red" Robertson and Glen Wolfe.
- In 2004, he received the Merv Johnson Integrity in College Football Award from the Oklahoma Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the National Junior College Athletic Association Football Hall of Fame in 2005.
- Patterson served in many different football and administrative capacities during his time at NEO, which spanned from 1981-2004.
- Patterson coached in the Oklahoma high school ranks with stops at Cushing HS from 1970-74 and Okmulgee HS from 1975-80. He won a state title in his first year at Okmulgee.

PERSONAL

- Patterson graduated from Okmulgee High School in 1965 and attended NEO, where he lettered under Robertson as an offensive lineman. He earned his associate's degree from NEO in 1967 before transferring to Drake, where he received his bachelor's degree in 1969. He later received a master's degree from Pittsburg State in 1983.
- Patterson and his wife, Donna, have two children and four grandchildren.

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

Dr. Val Gene Iven is in his fourth year at his alma mater, serving as Oklahoma State head team physician since May of 2007.

A member of the OSU graduating class of 1985, Dr. Iven spent the previous 13 years at the University of Tennessee, where he served as the head team physician for the Volunteer men's athletic department.

In Knoxville, he was also a clinical assistant professor of family medicine at Tennessee's College of Graduate Medicine. His tenure at Tennessee made him dean of the Southeastern Conference's Eastern Division team physicians at the time of his departure.

At OSU, Dr. Iven oversees all Cowboy and Cowgirl athletic health care out of Oklahoma State's sports medicine/athletic training facility in the Athletics Center.

A native of Pond Creek, and a graduate of Pond Creek-Hunter High School in 1980, Dr. Iven earned his bachelor of science from OSU in 1985, and his M.D. from the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine in 1989. Following the completion of a Family Medicine Residency program, he was selected as the first Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellow at OU in 1992.

In 1996, Dr. Iven served as a volunteer physician at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs. Subsequently, he was selected as a team physician for the United States at the 1998 Goodwill Games in New York City.

Dr. Iven is board certified by the American Board of Family Medicine and has earned a Certificate of Added Qualifications in sports medicine. He is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine, the American Medical Society of Sports Medicine, and the Oklahoma Academy of Family Physicians. He has been awarded "Fellow" status in the American Academy of Family Physicians.

Dr. Iven is married to the former Angela Hight, an Oklahoma City native. The couple have two children: daughter Austyn and son Carson.

Dr. Mark Pascale is in his sixth year of serving as the head team orthopedic surgeon for Oklahoma State and provides orthopedic and musculoskeletal care for all of the OSU athletes.

In addition to his responsibilities with OSU, he has been the head team physician for Bishop McGuinness Catholic High School for the past 17 years, and assists with several other area high schools. Dr. Pascale is the team orthopedic consultant for the triple-A Oklahoma City Redhawks baseball team and is also involved with the coordination of orthopedic care for the Oklahoma City Barons hockey team.

After graduating summa cum laude from Florida State University in 1977, Pascale attended the University of Florida College of Medicine and graduated with honors in 1981. He completed an internship at Georgia Baptist Medical Center in Atlanta, followed by a residency in orthopedic surgery at the University of Florida College of Medicine Department of Orthopedic Surgery.

Dr. Pascale has had specialty training in Sports Medicine and Arthroscopic Surgery with completion of a Clinical Visiting Sports Medicine Residency at the Hughston Clinic in Columbus, Ga., and a fellowship in sports medicine and arthroscopic surgery at the University of Oklahoma Department of Orthopedics. He is an active member in the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine, American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, and the Arthroscopy Association of North America.

Dr. Pascale is a board certified orthopedic surgeon with a subspecialty certification in sports medicine. He practices in Oklahoma City and is President of the McBride Clinic. He is a clinical assistant professor in the Department of Orthopedics at the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine and participates actively in the teaching of the orthopedic surgery residents, and was recently named "Outstanding Clinical Faculty".

Dr. Pascale rotates his time between offices in Oklahoma City and Norman. He and his wife, Renee, live in Oklahoma City and have four children, Nick, Blaise, Luke, and Madeleine.

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

Earned first-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America in 2008, but spent much of 2009 sidelined with injury and saw action in just eight games with two starts ... Showed flashes of his All-America form down the stretch, including the bowl game ... In 2008, he became Oklahoma State's first All-America running back since Gerald Hudson in 1990 and joined teammate Dez Bryant as the first Cowboy sophomore position players to be named All-America since Thurman Thomas in 1985 ... Is No. 10 on OSU's all-time rushing chart with 2,633 yards ... For his career, he averages 6.02 yards per rush ... Was expected to redshirt in 2007 but played his way into an important role on the squad and ended the season as OSU's third leading rusher ... Named to The Sporting News' all-Big 12 freshman team ... One of the top big-play threats in the Cowboy arsenal ... One of just three players to be a unanimous selection to the Associated Press all-Big 12 first team ... Good student ... Two-time OSU academic achievement award winner ... Academic all-Big 12 selection ... Has been clocked at 4.38 in the 40.

2009 (Junior): Ran for 382 yards on 89 carries in eight games ... Wasn't truly healthy until the bowl game and he showed familiar form when ran for 94 yards on just nine carries against Ole Miss in the Cotton Bowl, including a 46-yard scamper ... Also caught two passes for six yards and returned two kickoffs for 41 yards against the Rebels ... Best rushing game pre-injury came when he ran for 75 yards in the win over No. 13 Georgia ... Did not play against Rice, Grambling State, Texas A&M, Missouri or Baylor ... Had just one carry against Texas ... Ran nine times for 47 yards at Iowa State and rushed 17 times for 68 yards against Texas Tech ... Managed 47 yards on 11 totes vs. Colorado.

2008 (Sophomore): The Big 12's leading rusher by more than 30 yards per game ... Enjoyed a sensational season that saw him run for 14 touchdowns and grab one TD pass (vs. OU) ... The nation's seventh leading rusher with 119.6 yards per game, including nine 100-yard rushing games ... His nine 100-yard outings in a single season represent the fifth best total in Cowboy history, behind only Heisman winner Barry Sanders (12), Heisman runner-up Terry Miller (11), all-Big 12 back Dantrell Savage (10) and All-American and NFL Hall of Famer Thurman Thomas (10) ... Ran for at least one score in 10 games ... Ran for 1,555 yards for the sixth best season total in OSU history ... Five of his rushing touchdowns and his lone TD catch came from beyond 20 yards ... For the season, he had 15 carries that covered at least 20 yards ... Longest run of the season was a critical 68-yard TD jaunt at No. 3 Missouri ... Ran for a 58-yard touchdown against Houston, a 43-yard score at Colorado and a 36-yard touchdown vs. Iowa State ... Against the nation's No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3-ranked teams (Texas, Texas Tech, Oklahoma), he averaged 133 yards and 6.7 yards per carry ... Set a career high with 210 yards on just 22 carries (9.5 yards per attempt) against Houston ... Ran for 169 yards vs. Troy and 161 at No. 1 Texas ... Opened the season with 107 yards and two scores against Washington State ... Had at least two rushing touchdowns against WSU, Houston, Missouri State, Troy, Texas Tech and Oregon ... Other 100-yard efforts included 132 against Missouri State, 154 vs. No. 3 Missouri, 104 vs. Iowa State and 112 at Texas Tech ... Finished third on the team with 22 receptions, including a 23-yard TD against Oklahoma ... Had a 31-yard catch and run at Texas.

2007 (Freshman): Led OSU with a 6.5-yard rushing average ... Ran for 696 yards and four scores ... Also caught 10 passes for 137 yards to rank seventh on the squad in receiving ... Carried the ball 16 times for 125 yards at Troy in his second game at the collegiate level ... His 125 rushing yards against the Trojans were the most for an OSU true freshman since David Thompson rushed for 155 yards against Kansas on Oct. 30, 1993 ... Followed up that effort with 113 yards (on 14 carries) in OSU's 49-45 win over Texas Tech ... His totals against the Raiders were highlighted by a 46-yard touchdown scamper ... His games against Troy and Tech made him the first OSU true freshman since Jamaal Fobbs (1997) to rush for 100 yards in consecutive games ... Carried the ball eight times for 57 yards (7.1 yards per carry) with a 33-yard touchdown run against Florida Atlantic in his first college game ... Also caught a 47-yard touchdown pass against the Owls ... Found the end zone for his third touchdown in his first four career games when he broke loose for a nine-yard run to cap the scoring in OSU's 39-3 win over Sam Houston State ... Piled up 64 yards on only nine carries (7.1 yards per carry) against the Bearkats ... Rushed for 82 yards on 10 carries at Texas A&M, highlighted by a 24-yard carry ... Carried the ball 10 times for 67 yards, including a 33-yard TD scamper, in the Cowboys' 45-14 win at Nebraska ... Also had two catches for 37 yards vs. the Huskers ... Carried the ball nine times for 65 yards (7.2 yards per carry) in the win over No. 25 Kansas State ... Added 77 yards on 15 carries at Baylor ... Had a 24-yard reception in the bowl win against Indiana.

High School: Rushed for 1,200 yards and 14 touchdowns as a senior ... Also had 29 receptions for 429 yards ... Recorded a 1,000-yard rushing season as a junior ... Career totals included 2,799 rushing yards, 3,396 all-purpose yards and 32 touchdowns ... A second-team all-state pick ... A top-20 prospect in Texas, according to Texas Football ... A first-team all-east Texas selection ... Two-time first-team all-district selection ... Selected as America's No. 40 prospect at running back by Rivals.

Personal: Also considered TCU, Iowa State, Kansas State and Baylor among others ... Born Sept. 16, 1988, in Tyler ... Son of Freddie and Kenneth Hunter ... Education major ... Played for Thomas Brooks at John Tyler High School ... Also ran track.

2009 IN REVIEW

A 9-4 overall record and a 6-2 mark in the Big 12 Conference that resulted in a berth in the AT&T Cotton Bowl paints a picture of a successful 2009 season for the Oklahoma State football team. However, it was how the Cowboys got to where they did that made the season one to remember.

OSU dealt with an inordinate amount of adversity before and during the season and winning nine games and finishing second in the rugged Big 12 South was a testament to how special the 2009 season actually was.

Fifth-year coach Mike Gundy and his team were bitten by injuries early on, with senior middle linebacker Orie Lemon lost for the year the week of the season opener and returning All-America running back Kendall Hunter lost for five games after sustaining an injury early in the second game of the season.

Wide receiver Dez Bryant, the unanimous preseason pick as the nation's top receiver, was lost to NCAA suspension after playing only three games.

All of a sudden, the vaunted Cowboy offense fueled by a pair of All-Americans in Hunter and Bryant was turned into a group of largely unproven players surrounding senior quarterback Zac Robinson.

But the Cowboys kept winning.

Two of the primary reasons for their success were the emergence of Keith Toston as a first-team all-Big 12 running back and a defensive unit that far exceeded preseason expectations under first-year coordinator Bill Young.

Toston went from being a solid backup who averaged 41.9 rushing yards per game in his career to leading the Big 12 with 112.1 rushing yards per game in conference play. He logged 100-yard rushing performances in wins at Texas A&M, at Baylor, at Iowa State and at home against Colorado. Toston enjoyed a career day in the Cowboys' win over the Cyclones, rushing 25 times for 206 yards with three touchdowns.

The OSU defense, considered to be one of the biggest question marks of the team heading into the season, ended up being perhaps its greatest exclamation point. Young's crew ranked fourth in the Big 12 and 31st nationally in total defense, allowing just 332.5 yards per game. With Lemon lost for the year, Donald Booker was thrust into the starting spot at middle linebacker, and he responded by leading the team with 99 tackles.

OSU ranked 31st nationally in total defense, allowing 332.5 yards per game.

As a unit, the Oklahoma State defense held every Big 12 opponent but Oklahoma below its season rushing average, and the 13 rushing yards gained by Colorado represented the 14th lowest total by an opponent in Cowboy history. OSU allowed only 95.8 rushing yards per game to rank 11th in the country and set a new school record in the process. Oklahoma State had not had a defense end the season allowing less than 100 yards per game on the ground since 1983 when the Leslie O'Neal-led Pokes yielded a then-school record low of 99.2 yards per game.

The Cowboys ranked 14th nationally with 18 passes intercepted. OSU was No. 11 in the country in turnovers forced with 30. OSU had at least one interception in 10 of the 13 games last season, picking off a season-best four passes against Ole Miss in the Cotton Bowl and racking up three interceptions in wins over Missouri, Iowa State and Texas Tech.

Several Cowboys enjoyed career years on the defensive side of the ball, with senior cornerback Perrish Cox securing All-America honors from The Sporting News and the Associated Press and being named a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, presented to America's top defensive back. Cox led the nation with 1.73 passes defended per game. He was spectacular in the Cowboys' win over Texas Tech, picking off two passes and recording four tackles, one of which was for loss.

While the defense garnered headlines all season for their remarkable improvement from recent seasons, the leadership and steady hand of quarterback Zac Robinson were not to be overlooked.

Robinson wrapped up his career as Oklahoma State's all-time leader in total offense, passing yards and touchdown passes. Completing 180-of-301 passes for 2,084 yards and 15 touchdowns to go with 111 rushes for 305 yards and four scores, Robinson's numbers were down from previous seasons, but there is little wonder why. Without the country's top receiver almost all season, Robinson wasn't able to enjoy the explosive plays that he had helped generate before.

Though his numbers were down, Robinson provided the kind of leadership that resulted in the Cowboys turning in a nine-win season.

While Robinson played the role of steady leader, left tackle Russell Okung turned in perhaps the greatest season ever for an Oklahoma State offensive lineman. Okung was a unanimous first-team All-American, garnering a spot on each of the five recognized teams (Walter Camp, AFCA, FWAA, Sporting News and Associated Press). Additionally, he was the only offensive lineman to have a spot among the three finalists for the Outland Trophy. Okung was universally considered to be the best offensive lineman in America in 2009.

Russell Okung was a unanimous first-team All-America selection and one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy.

Oklahoma State's defense enjoyed a comeback year in 2009.

	(13/13) GEORGIA	10
	(9/11) OKLAHOMA STATE	24

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Zac Robinson threw two touchdown passes to star receiver Dez Bryant and also scored on a quarterback sneak as No. 9 Oklahoma State proved itself deserving of its highest preseason ranking ever by beating 13th-ranked Georgia 24-10 on Saturday.

The Cowboys capitalized on a fourth quarter fumble by new Georgia starting quarterback Joe Cox to seal the season-opening win on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Robinson to Bryant.

The two also hooked up on an impressive 46-yard score in the first half that got Oklahoma State's offense going after a sloppy start.

Robinson finished with 135 yards on 11 for 22 passing, and Bryant made the most of his three catches for 77 yards.

A record crowd of 53,012 turned out as billionaire donor T. Boone Pickens rededicated the stadium. Career rushing-leader Thurman Thomas made a cameo, too.

Eventually, the Cowboys' current stars also showed up.

Bryant got Oklahoma State's scuffling offense going when he got behind the defense and made a diving catch of Robinson's 46-yard pass in the second quarter, tying the game at 7.

Safety Lucien Antoine then knocked the ball free from tailback Carlton Thomas on the second snap of Georgia's next drive, and Terrance Anderson scooped it up at the 6. Oklahoma State settled for Dan Bailey's 28-yard field goal and a 10-7 halftime lead after a holding call negated Robinson's scramble for a 1-yard TD on fourth-and-goal.

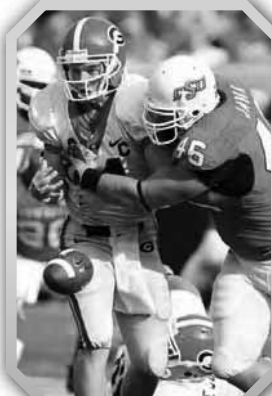

Perrish Cox returned the second-half kickoff 75 yards to get the Cowboys going again.

After another fourth-down gamble inside the 5 by Oklahoma State coach Mike Gundy, Robinson put OSU up 17-7 with his 1-yard sneak.

	(RV/) HOUSTON	45
	(5/6) OKLAHOMA STATE	35

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Case Keenum threw for 366 yards and three touchdowns, and Bryce Beall caught the go-ahead 6-yard pass off a batted ball as Houston stunned No. 5 Oklahoma State 45-35 on Saturday.

The Cougars (2-0) gave second-year coach Kevin Sumlin his first marquee win with the program's first victory over a Top 5 team since an upset of third-ranked Texas in 1984.

Oklahoma State (1-1) was coming off of perhaps the biggest opening win in the program's history last week against Georgia and vaulted into the Top 5 for the first time since 1985. But after overcoming a 17-point halftime lead, the Cowboys squandered their final chances for a win.

Zac Robinson fumbled a snap to end one OSU drive in the fourth quarter, and Jamal Robinson then returned his interception 32 yards for a score to seal the upset with 3:14 remaining.

Dez Bryant returned a punt for a touchdown against Houston for the second straight year as Oklahoma State reeled off 21 straight third-quarter points to surge ahead 28-24. But, unlike last year, Keenum and the Cougars had an answer this time.

And Oklahoma State ran out of weapons. Kendall Hunter, last year's Big 12 rushing leader, didn't play in the second half due to an apparent leg injury and Bryant also missed time. He lay sprawled out on the turf for a few moments after tipping the pass that led to Jamal Robinson's return, and trainers stretched out his right leg before he left the field.

	RICE	24
	(16/17) OKLAHOMA STATE	41

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) -- Zac Robinson rushed for one touchdown and threw for two others--both to Dez Bryant--as No. 16 Oklahoma State rebounded from a home loss to Houston to beat Rice 41-24.

"He had a couple passes that I thought he could have thrown better," Coach Mike Gundy said. "I thought he ran the ball and played better. He took care of it. Overall, I thought it was the best he had played this season."

Oklahoma State (2-1) didn't exactly get its offense rolling--which Gundy attributed to a lack of snaps--but the Cowboys did enough to beat Rice (0-3).

Robinson completed 14 of 20 passes for 227 yards--about nine yards below last season's per-game average--against a defense that entered the game ranked last against the pass. And Bryant had nine catches for 161 yards, including touchdown grabs of 23 and 10 yards.

Their play helped Oklahoma State overcome the absence of star running back Kendall Hunter, who missed the game with a sprained right ankle.

Each time Rice threatened, Oklahoma State answered with points. Beau Johnson, who joined Keith Toston in subbing for Hunter, followed a 38-yard Robinson-to-Bryant pass with a 2-yard scoring run with 1:56 left in the third quarter.

Toston carried 18 times for 75 yards, while Johnson had 12 carries for 28 yards. The Cowboys had just 56 offensive snaps.

Robinson's two touchdown passes raised his career total to 56, pushing him past Josh Fields for the Oklahoma State career lead.

	GRAMBLING STATE	6
	(16/16) OKLAHOMA STATE	56

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) -- Keith Toston ran for 84 yards and three first-half touchdowns, and No. 16 Oklahoma State overpowered Grambling State 56-6 on Saturday night even without its star running back and wide receiver.

All-America receiver Dez Bryant and all-Big 12 tailback Kendall Hunter watched from the sidelines as the Cowboys (3-1) piled up 587 yards of total offense, including 321 on the ground, against their only Football Championship Subdivision opponent this season.

It was the most lopsided win for Oklahoma State since a 59-7 victory over SMU in 2004, the year before Mike Gundy took over as coach.

Freshman Dameron Fooks made the first four receptions of his career and scored twice. He caught a 24-yard toss from Zac Robinson in the first half and walked into the end zone for a 19-yard score from third-stringer Brandon Weeden in the third quarter.

Fellow freshman Jeremy Smith had runs of 69 and 51 yards in the most prolific college debut for an Oklahoma State rusher. He finished with 160 yards on 15 carries and scored his first touchdown on a 5-yard run in the fourth quarter.

The only lingering concern for the Cowboys was a pair of turnovers by Robinson, who threw a first-quarter interception and fumbled a snap to set up the Tigers' first field goal. Backup Alex Cate replaced him in the second half and also fumbled on his second play from scrimmage. Cate didn't return after trainers attended to him on the field.

Weeden played the rest of the game, with Cate joining a slew of injured starters - Bryant, Hunter, cornerback Perrish Cox and defensive end Jermiah Price - on the sidelines.

OSU	(15/13) OKLAHOMA STATE	36

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) - Zac Robinson threw two touchdown passes and No. 15 Oklahoma State overcame the absence of their top two playmakers to beat Texas A&M 36-31 on Saturday.

The Cowboys (4-1, 1-0 Big 12) played without All-America receiver Dez Bryant, who was ruled ineligible by the school this week for lying to the NCAA about contact he made with a former NFL player. Oklahoma State was also missing Kendall Hunter, the Big 12's leading rusher in 2008, who sat out with an ankle injury.

Robinson completed 14 of 25 passes for 279 yards, Keith Toston ran for 130 yards and Beau Johnson ran for two scores as the Cowboys won at Kyle Field for only the second time since 1983.

Jerrold Johnson threw three touchdown passes for the Aggies (3-2, 0-1) and set a Big 12 record by extending his streak of consecutive passes without an interception to 228. But Johnson faced constant pressure and the Aggies, who came in with the nation's second-ranked offense, were held to 382 yards.

Leading 29-25 early in the fourth quarter, the Cowboys put it away with a 16-play, 93-yard touchdown drive that chewed up almost eight minutes. Robinson converted two third downs with long passes and Beau Johnson scored with 7:15 left in the game.

OSU	(RV/24) MISSOURI	17
OSU	(16/24) OKLAHOMA STATE	33

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Hubert Anyiam had a career-high 119 receiving yards and the go-ahead touchdown, and No. 16 Oklahoma State shut out Missouri in the second half in a 33-17 victory Saturday night.

Dan Bailey hit three field goals, including a career-long 51-yarder, for the only points after halftime but it was enough for the Cowboys (5-1, 2-0 Big 12) as they limited Missouri (4-2, 0-2) to 80 yards in the second half after giving up 313 in a first half that was all about offense.

Zac Robinson threw for 227 yards, and Lucien Antoine added an interception return for a touchdown to help the Cowboys snap a four-game losing streak on their home field against the Tigers.

Missouri's pass-heavy offense fell flat after that prolific first half, and even a 60-yard punt return on a reverse couldn't spark a comeback. The Tigers were shut out in a half for the first time since a 13-3 loss to Kansas on Oct. 29, 2005, when they also went scoreless in the second half.

Oklahoma State started Big 12 play with back-to-back wins despite being without top running back Kendall Hunter, who missed his fourth straight game because of a sprained ankle.

Anyiam had only nine career catches coming into the game, but had a breakout performance. Anyiam had eight catches in the first half, including the go-ahead score with 2 seconds left when he darted in front of Kevin Rutland to catch Robinson's 8-yard pass and make it 24-17.

	(14/12) OKLAHOMA STATE	34
	BAYLOR	7

WACO, Texas (AP) - With injured running back Kendall Hunter and suspended receiver Dez Bryant still missing from the lineup, Oklahoma State quarterback Zac Robinson completed 23 of 27 passes for 250 yards with a season-high three touchdowns and the 14th-ranked Cowboys (6-1, 3-0 Big 12) stretched their winning streak to five games - the last four without their top runner and top receiver from a year ago.

Robinson's 85-percent completion percentage was the best-ever for an Oklahoma State quarterback with at least 20 attempts, breaking the record Mike Gundy set by hitting 27 of 35 passes (77 percent) against Kansas in 1989.

Keith Toston ran for 109 yards and a 1-yard TD on his 15 carries, and Beau Johnson added 93 yards on 22 carries.

Nine different players caught passes, including tight ends Wilson Youman and Cooper Bassett each with their first career TDs.

Oklahoma State, which plays No. 3 Texas at home next weekend, led 10-0 after its first two possessions. It was 24-0 on Robinson's 19-yard TD to Bassett that capped an 87-yard drive to open the second half.

David Gettis' 17-yard touchdown catch with 7:17 left kept Oklahoma State from getting its first shutout in a Big 12 game since 2001.

The Cowboys led 10-0 after a 22-yard TD catch by Youman, who grabbed the ball with both hands and bobbled it briefly before pulling it in and holding on when he was popped by safety Jordan Lake. Anyiam had two first-down grabs that drive.

On Dameron Fooks' 16-yard TD catch for a 17-0 halftime lead, he leaped to make the catch between two defenders and held on despite being propelled into a mid-air spin before hitting the ground.

	(3/3) TEXAS	41
	(13/13) OKLAHOMA STATE	14

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) -- Curtis Brown and Earl Thomas each returned interceptions for touchdowns, and Cody Johnson had two short TD runs as No. 3 Texas downed No. 13 Oklahoma State 41-14 on Saturday night to establish themselves as the clear frontrunner in the Big 12 South.

McCoy had an efficient 171-yard performance and threw his 100th career touchdown pass, and the Longhorns avoided the kind of letdown on Halloween weekend that cost them a chance to play for the Big 12 and national championships a year ago.

Texas (8-0, 5-0) came in with the nation's toughest defense against the run, then played havoc with Zac Robinson and the Oklahoma State (6-2, 3-1) passing attack. Robinson came in as the conference's top-rated passer after breaking the Cowboys' record for accuracy in a game last week, but threw a career-high four picks against the Longhorns.

Texas scored 28 points off of Oklahoma State's five turnovers, with Brown and Thomas cashing in immediately and Johnson scoring on runs of 2 and 1 yards after two other takeaways.

That left McCoy, the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, needing to do nothing spectacular in front of a Boone Pickens Stadium record crowd of 58,516.

He had a 44-yard pass to Malcolm Williams to set up Hunter Lawrence's 40-yard field goal on the opening drive of the second half. Two plays later, Thomas jumped in front of Hubert Anyiam to intercept Robinson's pass and race 31 yards untouched into the end zone for a 34-7 lead.

	COLORADO	28
	(12/13) OKLAHOMA STATE	31

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Brandon Weeden, the third-string quarterback for No. 12 Oklahoma State, threw for 168 yards and two touchdowns in the second half to lead the Cowboys back from an 11-point deficit for a 31-28 win against Colorado.

With starter Zac Robinson injured and backup Alex Cate ineffective, the Cowboys (9-2, 6-1 Big 12) turned to Weeden to spark the offense.

His 28-yard touchdown pass to Justin Blackmon with 8:11 remaining proved to be the winner, keeping pressure on No. 3 Texas in the Big 12 championship race. The Longhorns would have clinched the Big 12 South with an OSU loss.

Colorado got out to a 21-10 lead against the one-dimensional Cowboys before Weeden finally provided a viable passing threat. He went 10 for 15 and threw a 47-yard touchdown pass to Keith Toston.

The Buffaloes (3-8, 2-5) had one final chance to go for the win after stuffing OSU on fourth-and-short for the third time in the game with 3:14 remaining but decided to punt after Tyler Hansen threw three straight incomplete passes. The Cowboys, the Big 12's top rushing team, ran the final 2:45 off the clock.

Oklahoma State wore black uniforms for the first time since 1994.

Cate, who had attempted only five passes in his career, started in Robinson's place but went 0-for-9 with an interception in the first half -- and it could have been worse. Colorado players had chances for at least two more picks, but let the ball slip through their hands.

	OKLAHOMA	27

NORMAN, Okla. - Oklahoma State's three-game winning streak came to an end Saturday at Memorial Stadium as it dropped a 27-0 decision to Bedlam-rival Oklahoma.

The loss was the seventh in a row for the Cowboys against OU as coach Mike Gundy's squad fell to 9-3 overall and 6-2 in Big 12 Conference play. OSU was shut out for the first time since Oct. 1, 2005 against Colorado, a streak of 46 games.

OSU managed just 109 yards of total offense in the contest, while the Sooners (7-5, 5-3) picked up 367. DeMarco Murray rushed for a pair of touchdowns, and Ryan Broyles had nine catches for 103 yards and returned a punt 87 yards for a touchdown to lead OU.

The Sooners limited OSU to 105 yards of offense in the opening half and forced the Cowboys to punt nine times en route to building a 10-0 lead at intermission.

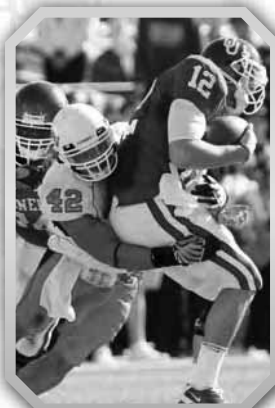

After a scoreless opening quarter, OU got on the scoreboard with a 24-yard field goal by Patrick O'Hara early in the second period. The Sooners added to their lead on the next possession when Murray capped a scoring drive with a 13-yard run to give the home team a 10-point advantage.

OSU was held to just four yards of offense in the second half and did not pick up a first down after the break.

	OLE MISS	21

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) - Dexter McCluster gave Mississippi fans a finale to remember, rushing for 182 yards and two touchdowns, including the go-ahead 2-yard run on a direct snap with 4:03 left as the Rebels beat No. 21 Oklahoma State 21-7 in the Cotton Bowl on Saturday.

McCluster also had an 86-yard TD run in the second quarter after the senior had already become the first Southeastern Conference player with 1,000 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving in the same season.

Ole Miss (9-4) had five turnovers in the game, but Oklahoma State had six in the fourth quarter, and seven overall.

The Cowboys (9-4) missed a chance for their first 10-win season since 1988 when coach Mike Gundy was their starting quarterback. Ole Miss coach and former Oklahoma State quarterback Houston Nutt was one of their coaches then.

Ole Miss and Oklahoma State, also 9-4 a year ago, came into this season with unprecedented expectations. Both were in the AP preseason Top 10 before early losses. Each entered the Cotton Bowl coming off decisive losses against their in-state conference rivals in their regular-season finales.

ALL-AMERICANS

TWO-TIME ALL-AMERICANS

1944, 1945 BOB FENIMORE

Running Back | Woodward, OK

If Bob Fenimore seemed like he was all over the field, it is probably because he was. Fenimore excelled on the offensive side of the ball, the defensive side of the ball, and on special teams. His exceptional talent and play earned the "Blond Bomber" consensus All-America honors in 1944 and 1945.

In 2007, he was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame.

The leader of OSU teams that went 8-1 with a Cotton Bowl victory in 1944 and a perfect 9-0 with a Sugar Bowl win in 1945 and a ranking of fifth in the final Associated Press poll, Fenimore's play was legendary.

From his halfback position, he established himself as one of the nation's finest players. The numbers speak for themselves. In 1944, he led the nation in total offense (1,758 yards), was third in rushing (899), eighth in passing (997), ninth in scoring (77), and 13th in punting (37.3).

In OSU's undefeated 1945 season, he was the national leader in both total offense (1641), and rushing (1119), while ranking seventh in punting (39.0), and 13th in scoring (72). His 18 interceptions during his OSU career remain a school record, and his 4,627 career yards of total offense have been eclipsed only by Mike Gundy and Zac Robinson 55 years after his playing days.

1976, 1977 TERRY MILLER

Running Back | Colorado Springs, CO

Only three players in Big Eight history rushed for 4,000 yards during their careers and Terry Miller is one of them. Mike Rozier of Nebraska (4,780) and Thurman Thomas of Oklahoma State (4,595) were the only others.

Miller gained 4,581 yards while establishing himself as one of the nation's best in the late 1970s. He owns three of the 18 1,000-yard rushing seasons in OSU history. As a sophomore in 1975, he gained 1,026 yards and then, during All-America seasons in 1976 and 1977, he led the Big Eight with 1,541 as a junior and 1,680 as a senior. Those numbers ranked fifth in the nation in 1976 and third in 1977.

Miller was tabbed as the Big Eight offensive player of the year in both 1976 and 1977. He finished runner-up to Earl Campbell in the 1977 Heisman Trophy balloting.

Miller's 45 career touchdowns at OSU still rank second on the school list behind the 55 Barry Sanders scored from 1986-88. Miller was a first-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 1978. His jersey number 43 is one of three that have been retired by Oklahoma State. He was a Football Writers Association of America and Associated Press All-American in 1976 and 1977 and a Walter Camp All-American and AFCA All American in 1977.

1984, 1985 LESLIE O'NEAL

Defensive Lineman | Little Rock, AR

Oklahoma State's defenses in 1984 and 1985 may have been the best in school history, and they were anchored by two-time All-American lineman Leslie O'Neal.

O'Neal was a dominant force on teams which allowed just a total of 28 touchdowns over two seasons, the lowest totals ever at OSU. He was named Big Eight defensive player of the year in 1984 and earned all-Big Eight honors in each of his last three seasons as a Cowboy.

O'Neal finished his career at OSU fifth in career tackles with 351, including a tie for the 10th best season in Cowboy history with 134 tackles in 1984. He was a first-round draft choice of the San Diego Chargers in 1986. O'Neal retired following the 1999 season. During his career, the defensive end was selected to the Pro Bowl six times, while recording 136.0 career sacks.

During O'Neal's career, the Cowboys played in the Bluebonnet Bowl and consecutive Gator Bowls. His All-America accolades came from the Walter Camp Foundation as well as the Football Writers Association of America. He was a two-time All-America selection by Associated Press.

1985, 1986 MARK MOORE

Safety | Nacogdoches, TX

Mark Moore was one of the most feared defensive players, not only in the Big Eight Conference, but around the nation. The hard-hitting safety roamed the defensive secondary looking for opponents to knock down and he picked off numerous passes.

Moore registered 311 tackles during his four-year career, including 91 in 1985 and 96 in 1986. He intercepted seven passes during his All-America junior season, one shy of the school record of eight and the fifth-best total in the nation that year. He was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press.

During his All-America seasons, OSU allowed just 135 yards per game passing in 1985 and 121 in 1986, the lowest two averages since 1978. Moore was a fourth-round pick by the Seattle Seahawks in 1987.

1985, 1987 THURMAN THOMAS

Running Back | Missouri City, TX

The all-time leading rusher in Oklahoma State football history, Thomas ran for 4,595 yards and scored 44 touchdowns over his four-year career. He was Oklahoma State's leading rusher in each of his four seasons and was the Big Eight leader in both 1985 and 1987. He was voted the Big Eight Conference's offensive player of the year after both seasons.

In 1985, he finished the season with 1,553 yards, good for fourth in America. In 1987, his 1,613 yards were the third-most nationally. His 21 career 100-yard rushing games are second in OSU history only to Terry Miller's 26.

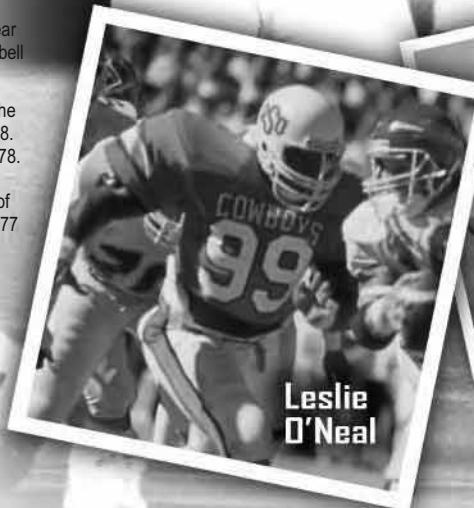

A knee injury prevented Thomas from being a first-round draft choice, but Buffalo stole Thomas with a second round pick in 1988. He was that team's most effective weapon in four straight Super Bowl seasons, and he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player after the 1991 season.

He is a 2007 inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining his OSU teammate, Barry Sanders. His No. 34 jersey is one of three that have been retired at Oklahoma State.

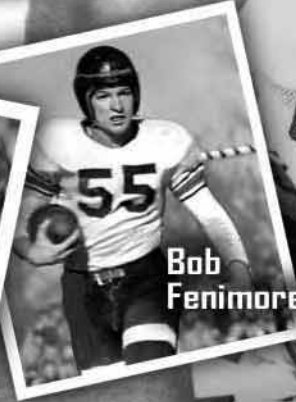

Thomas was a 2008 inductee in the National College Football Hall of Fame. His All-America selections came from the Associated Press.

BARRY SANDERS

Running Back | Wichita, KS

While playing behind starting tailback Thurman Thomas in 1987, Barry Sanders had to make his mark somewhere on the field during his sophomore season. He did that returning kickoffs and punts and in fact, his exploits earned him All-America honors as a return man.

With the departure of Thomas to the NFL, Sanders became the go-to guy in 1988 and he responded with a season that may not be matched for years, if ever. He established 34 NCAA records, while posting the best rushing season in college football history.

He carried for 2,628 yards and recorded four 300-plus yard games during his record-breaking season. His domination of college football that season earned him consensus All-America honors, the Heisman Trophy, and helped make the Oklahoma State offense one of the most productive in college football history. And Sanders achieved his numbers in just 11 games with his five-touchdown, 222 rushing yards from the Holiday Bowl not included in his totals.

Despite playing just one complete season as the starting tailback before skipping his senior season, Sanders ranked as the ninth leading career rusher in Big Eight history, and his 330 points are just one touchdown shy of the league's career record.

Sanders was a first-round draft choice by the Detroit Lions in 1989. The No. 21 jersey Sanders wore as a Cowboy is one of just three numbers retired at Oklahoma State. He is also a member of both the Pro Football and College Football Halls of Fame.

RASHAUN WOODS

Receiver | Oklahoma City, OK

Rashaun Woods' Oklahoma State career was nothing short of phenomenal. The Oklahoma City native finished his career with 293 catches for 4,414 yards and 42 touchdowns to top OSU in every category.

Woods became the first OSU receiver to have three 1,000-yard seasons in a career and was the first player in Big Eight or Big 12 history to reach the 4,000-yard receiving mark. As a senior, he was an all-Big 12 selection, and a first-team All-American by the AFCA, Rivals.com and the Walter Camp Foundation.

Woods' 2003 numbers (77 receptions for 1,367 yards and 15 touchdowns) would be impressive standing alone, but considering he was one of the most marked wide receivers in the country and drew double coverage every time out, those numbers become even more remarkable. He finished his collegiate career with a string of 45 consecutive games with at least two receptions. Woods also set an NCAA record with an astounding seven touchdown receptions against SMU, breaking a 34-year old record (13 catches for 232 yards).

Woods proved game in and game out that he was the premier pass catcher in the country. Woods led OSU to its first bowl victory since 1988 with his nine-catch, 164-yard, one-touchdown performance in the 2002 Houston Bowl.

In 2001, Woods had more receiving yards (1,023) than any receiver in the Big 12 and set an OSU single-season record for receptions (80). In addition, he became the second player in State history to have 1,000 or more receiving yards in a single season.

PERRISH COX

Kick Returner/Defensive Back | Waco, TX

The versatile Perrish Cox was a CBSsportsline.com All-America kick returner his junior season as he continued a career that ranked among the NCAA's all-time best in the return game. He ended his OSU stay by being named a first-team All-America defensive back by The Sporting News as a senior. He was a second-team All-America corner as selected by the Associated Press in 2009.

As a senior, Cox led the NCAA with 1.73 passes defended per game. He had four interceptions and he ended his career as the Big 12 Conference's all-time leader in kickoff return yards with 2,804. His final numbers included an OSU record with four kickoffs returned for touchdowns and six overall returns for scores with his two punt returns added to the total.

In 2008, Cox had 90-yard kickoff returns for scores in the season opener at Washington State and in the regular season finale against Oklahoma.

Cox finished his All-America return season third in the nation with an average of 29.8 yards per attempt.

NEILL ARMSTRONG

Defensive End/Receiver | Tishomingo, OK

Known to his teammates as "Felix the Cat", Neill Armstrong helped guide Oklahoma A&M during its glory days. He was a four-year letterman from 1943-46 for head coach Jim Lookabaugh's Aggies.

Armstrong, a native of Tishomingo, played on two of Oklahoma A&M's most successful teams, winning the Cotton Bowl in 1944 and the Sugar Bowl in 1945. In 1946, Armstrong earned All-America honors at defensive end, while also calling plays for the Aggies.

In A&M's vaunted single-wing offense, Armstrong twice led the nation in receiving, while teammate Bob Fenimore led the nation in total offense. As a senior in 1946, he caught 32 passes for 479 yards.

Armstrong was a first-round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles and played from 1947-51. Armstrong then joined the coaching ranks, eventually becoming the head coach of the Chicago Bears from 1978-81.

JIM WOOD

Defensive End | Tonkawa, OK

Jim Wood was OSU's third All-American and was the first since 1946 when he was voted the honor by America's football coaches.

Wood, who was honored as a defensive end, played a little bit of everything for the Pokes. On the offensive side of the ball, he led the team in receiving with 21 catches for 282 yards. He also handled the punting chores for the Cowboys, averaging 39.3 yards per kick.

Wood was a third-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins in 1959.

HARRY CHEATWOOD

Defensive Back | Oklahoma City, OK

Named after the former president, Harry Truman Cheatwood made a name for himself picking off passes in Oklahoma State's defensive backfield from 1965-67.

Cheatwood was honored as an All-American in 1967 for his work at safety. He logged 127 tackles in 1967 to rank 16th in the OSU record book, while his 266 career tackles are the 20th-best total in school history.

He also tied for the team lead in interceptions in 1966 (2) and 1967 (3), and earned first-team all-Big Eight plaudits as a senior.

JON KOLB

Offensive Lineman | Owasso, OK

Jon Kolb anchored the Oklahoma State offensive line from the center position from 1966-68. He earned All-America accolades during his senior campaign in 1968.

Kolb was also a two-time all-conference selection, earning that distinction in 1967 and 1968.

Following his senior season, Kolb participated in the Senior Bowl, the North-South Shrine Bowl, the Coaches All-American Game and the College All-Star Game.

After being selected in the third-round of the NFL Draft by Pittsburgh, he competed for the Steelers from 1969-81. Kolb helped lead the Steelers to championships in Super Bowls IX, X, XIII and XIV.

He was inducted into the OSU Hall of Honor in the spring of 2001.

JOHN WARD

Offensive Lineman | Tulsa, OK

In 1969, John Ward earned Kodak and FWAA All-America honors on the football field and on the wrestling mat for OSU. The star offensive tackle anchored the Cowboys' line from 1967-69.

Ward displayed his skills at four all-star games, including the East-West Classic, Senior Bowl, Coaches All-American Game and the College All-Star Game.

Ward was a first-round draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1970. He spent five seasons with the Vikings, before splitting the 1976 season between Tampa Bay and Chicago.

CLEVELAND VANN

Linebacker | Seguin, TX

A two-time all-Big Eight performer, Cleveland Vann captured All-America honors in 1973 by the Football Writers Association of America.

Vann racked up 241 tackles in his three-year career for the Pokes, ranking him in the top 25 on OSU's career charts.

He led the team in tackles in both his junior (122) and senior (117) seasons. His 122 tackles in 1972 tied for 20th on OSU's single-season list.

The linebacker showcased his skills at the 1973 Blue-Gray Game and the East-West Classic before being drafted in the fifth round by the Miami Dolphins.

ALVIN BROWN

Safety | Ravenna, TX

Alvin Brown, who didn't play high school football until his junior year, covered the Oklahoma State secondary with lightning speed in 1972 and 1973. His outstanding 1973 season earned him All-America recognition as well as all-conference honors.

The Ravenna, Texas, native picked off eight passes that year, tying a school record and leading the Big Eight Conference. Brown also played in the 1973 Hula Bowl.

JAMES WHITE

Defensive Tackle | Hot Springs, AR

Nicknamed "Duck," James White was Oklahoma State's first four-year letterman. White accounted for 203 tackles in his career, including 86 tackles during his All-America season of 1975.

White also played on the Cowboys' victorious Fiesta Bowl team in 1974.

A first-round draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1976, White played eight years in the NFL and was a member of the Vikings' legendary "Purple People Eaters" defense.

PHILLIP DOKES

Defensive Tackle | Little Rock, AR

Phillip Dokes instilled fear in the hearts of opponents, prowling along the Pokes' defensive front from 1974-76. He was a two-time all-Big Eight selection (1974, 76) and was honored as an All-American in 1976.

Dokes' 277 tackles are 16th in the Cowboy record book. He turned in his career best season in 1976 with 100 tackles, while leading OSU with 92 tackles in 1975. The Cowboys earned a share of the Big Eight title in 1976.

Dokes was also a two-time academic all-conference selection (1974-75).

In 1976, Dokes played in the Blue-Gray Game and the Senior Bowl before being drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the first round. He spent two years on the Bills' defensive line.

DERREL GOFORTH

Center | Parsons, KS

One of the most decorated offensive linemen in OSU history, Derrel Goforth anchored the Oklahoma State offensive front from 1974-76. Twice chosen as an all-Big Eight performer (1975-76), Goforth captured consensus All-America honors in 1976.

Goforth played in four all-star games, including the Blue-Gray Game, Hula Bowl, Senior Bowl and the Japan Bowl. He was a seventh-round selection of the Green Bay Packers in 1977.

The Parsons, Kan., native spent six seasons with the Packers before moving on to the San Diego Chargers in 1983 and 1984.

Ernest Anderson

1978

JOHN CORKER

Linebacker | Miami, FL

This linebacker was everywhere for Oklahoma State from 1976-79. John Corker finished his four years in Stillwater as the Cowboys' all-time leading tackler and a 1978 Associated Press All-American.

Corker is the lone Cowboy to post four seasons of at least 100 tackles. In his sophomore and junior seasons, he posted OSU's 12th and 13th best all-time single-season tackle totals with 132 and 130, respectively. He was also recognized as the Big Eight defensive player of the year in 1978, the first OSU player to win the honor.

As a freshman, the Miami, Fla., native posted 111 tackles to help lead the Pokes to a Tangerine Bowl victory over Brigham Young, 49-21.

Corker was a fifth-round draft choice of the Houston Oilers in 1980. He spent three seasons in Houston before playing the 1988 season for Green Bay.

1981

RICKY YOUNG

Linebacker | Chicago, IL

Ricky Young followed John Corker as OSU's dominant linebacker.

Young was a three-time all-Big Eight selection. In 1980, he was the Big Eight player of the year after the Chicago native posted 146 tackles. Young then earned All-America honors in 1981 following a season in which he collected 128 tackles.

Young was a 12th-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears in 1982.

ERNEST ANDERSON

Running Back | Orange, TX

Ernest Anderson burst onto the national scene in 1982 to lead the nation in rushing while earning All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation. He ran for 1,877 yards during his All-America season for what was, at the time, the fifth best season in NCAA history. He broke the 1,000-yard mark just five games into the season to become the first Big Eight player to accomplish the feat.

Anderson tied a Big Eight record with four 200-yard games in 1982 and had 58 carries for more than 10 yards.

A preseason All-America and Heisman hopeful in 1983, Anderson struggled with injuries his senior season but still helped lead the Cowboys to a Bluebonnet Bowl appearance and victory.

He ended his career with 3,529 rushing yards to rank behind only Terry Miller on OSU's career rushing chart.

GARY LEWIS

Defensive Line | Oklahoma City, OK

Gary Lewis solidified the Cowboy defensive front from 1980 to 1982. The defensive tackle utilized his speed to disrupt the opposition's offense.

Lewis garnered Associated Press All-America honors during his senior season of 1982. He was also a two-time all-Big Eight performer in 1981 and 1982.

Lewis participated in the 1982 Blue-Gray Game and the Senior Bowl. He was a fifth round draft choice of New Orleans in 1983 and played one season for the Saints.

ALL-AMERICANS

LARRY ROACH

Kicker | Dallas, TX

Larry Roach's name is peppered throughout the Oklahoma State record book. He was a three-time all-Big Eight selection and an All-America performer in 1982.

The Dallas native is third on OSU's all-time scoring chart with 290 points, trailing only the legendary Barry Sanders (1st, 330), and fellow kicker Cary Blanchard (315). His 68 field goals are the most ever by a Cowboy. His five field goals against Missouri in 1982 are also a school record.

Roach kicked the longest field goal in OSU history, a 56-yarder against Kansas in 1981.

ROD BROWN

Defensive Back | Gainesville, TX

Roaming the Oklahoma State secondary from 1981-84, Rod Brown achieved Walter Camp and AFCA All-America status and all-Big Eight status in 1984.

The fleet-of-foot, hard-hitting Brown picked off six passes in '84, helping the Cowboys to a national ranking as high as No. 3 as well as a Gator Bowl win over South Carolina.

In 1984, Brown also racked up 50 tackles, eight pass deflections, one sack and recovered one fumble.

During his career, Oklahoma State went 29-16-2 and participated in three bowl games, including two wins.

HART LEE DYKES

Receiver | Bay City, TX

From 1985-88, Hart Lee Dykes electrified Cowboy crowds, catching nearly every pass within his reach and earning Walter Camp and AP All-America honors.

The wideout left OSU as not only the top pass catcher in Cowboy history, but tops in the history of the Big Eight Conference.

In his career, Dykes caught 203 passes for 3,171 yards. His reception totals of 60, 61 and 74 during his sophomore, junior and senior season, respectively, are the fourth-, fifth- and sixth-best single-season totals in OSU history. His senior season yardage total was a Big Eight record as well.

Dykes also caught 29 touchdown passes in his career, setting a Big Eight record. Dykes played on one of the most prolific offenses in history as OSU averaged 47.5 points per game in 1988.

In his four years, OSU teams went 36-11 and went to three bowl games.

Dykes was a first-round draft choice of the New England Patriots in 1989, the 16th-overall selection. Debilitating knee injuries cut his career short after just two seasons and 26 games in the NFL.

GERALD HUDSON

Running Back | Waxahachie, TX

Gerald Hudson continued a long line of great running backs at OSU in 1990.

He became the fourth Cowboy to lead the nation in rushing, pounding out 1,642 yards, the fourth-best total in OSU history. Hudson led the Pokes in rushing in 1989 and 1990, amassing 2,921 rushing yards in his career to rank seventh on the school charts.

Hudson was chosen in the ninth round by the Minnesota Vikings in the 1991 NFL Draft.

ALONZO MAYES

Tight End | Oklahoma City, OK

Alonzo Mayes provided a large target for OSU quarterbacks during his stint in Stillwater. Mayes, a 6-5, 265-pound tight end, caught passes for the Pokes from 1994-97.

The Oklahoma City Douglass product hauled in 92 passes in his career, 10th on the OSU all-time receptions chart. During his Walter Camp All-America season of 1997, Mayes caught 29 passes for 424 yards. He was also a Football Writers Association of America All-America selection as well as an AP All-American.

Mayes helped lead the Cowboys to their first bowl game since 1988 and an 8-4 record in 1997. He was also a two-time all-Big 12 selection at tight end. Mayes was selected in the fourth round by the Chicago Bears in the 1998 NFL Draft. He was traded to the Miami Dolphins during the 2000 season where he played through 2002.

DEZ BRYANT

Wide Receiver | Lufkin, TX

Dez Bryant's sizzling sophomore season made him a consensus All-America selection as a receiver and the Big 12's special teams player of the year thanks to his efforts in the return game.

Bryant finished second nationally with 19 touchdown receptions, establishing a new OSU record in the process. He was third nationally with 114 receiving yards per game and second in America in scoring (9.7 points per contest). He was third nationally with 17.9 yards per punt return, including two touchdowns. His 128 points for the season rank second at OSU, behind only Barry Sanders' NCAA record of 234 points. His 1,480 receiving yards in a season represent the second best total in OSU history.

He finished his season as the runner-up for the Biletnikoff Award, presented annually to the nation's top receiver. His junior season was cut short by NCAA issues and Bryant declared himself eligible for the NFL draft at the conclusion of the season.

KENDALL HUNTER

Running Back | Tyler, TX

Kendall Hunter was an excellent role player as a freshman. As a sophomore, he earned All-America honors. Hunter was awarded first-team All-America status by the Football Writers Association of America and first-team all-Big 12 honors as well.

Hunter finished seventh nationally and easily led his conference with 119 rushing yards per game and a season total of 1,555 yards. He ran for 14 touchdowns in 2008 and broke the 100-yard mark nine times to become just the fifth Cowboy to accomplish that feat in a single season.

RUSSELL OKUNG

Offensive Line | Houston, TX

A four-year starter and two-time all-Big 12 selection, Okung capped his stellar career as a unanimous All-America selection while being named a semi-finalist for the Lombardi and the Outland trophies. He started the final 47 games of his career for the second best streak in OSU history while becoming the most decorated offensive lineman ever at Oklahoma State.

Twice during his career, Okung held the nation's sack leader without a sack and in one instance, without a single tackle. He played on four bowl teams and paved the way for three different Cowboys to reach 1,000 rushing yards in a season. During Okung's career, Oklahoma State led its conference in rushing for the first four times in school history and ranked among the nation's leaders in fewest quarterback sacks allowed.

Oklahoma State won 18 games over the final two years of his career, which ended with OSU's appearance in the 2010 AT&T Cotton Bowl.

1945 COTTON BOWL

January 1, 1945 • Dallas, Texas

OKLAHOMA A&M	34

DALLAS -- The first bowl appearance for Oklahoma A&M turned into a pleasant experience for the orange and black faithful as the Aggies used a season-ending 28-6 win over Oklahoma as a springboard to a dominating bowl performance.

Oklahoma A&M sophomore tailback whiz Bob Fenimore, the nation's total offense leader, lived up to All-America billings as the Cowboys bounced the local team from TCU, 34-0, in the third-largest margin of victory in Cotton Bowl history. Fenimore scored on runs of one and seven yards and completed 6-of-13 passes for 136 yards. Fullback Jim Spavital powered his way for 120 yards, including a 52-yard scoring bolt.

Meanwhile, the Poke defense smothered TCU, not allowing the Horned Frogs past midfield until the second half. Coach Jim Lookabaugh's muscular single-wing offense harvested 494 yards of total offense, while TCU could manage only 105. In the fourth period, A&M's reserves took over with Joe Thomas and Mack Creager adding touchdowns on short plunges.

The Aggies finished the year with an 8-1 record. It was their best win total since the 1932 squad won nine games.

Fenimore, Neill Armstrong (who would later coach the Chicago Bears) and tackle Ralph Foster were all Aggies who were named as the game's outstanding players. Fenimore was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in the spring of 2007.

NEW ORLEANS -- A capacity crowd of 75,000 gathered to watch the battle of All-Americans, Oklahoma A&M's Bob "Blond Bomber" Fenimore and St. Mary's "Squimin'" Herman Wedemeyer.

Wedemeyer's 47-yard touchdown pass to Dennis O'Conner opened the scoring, but Fenimore matched it with a 28-yard scoring toss to Cecil Hankins as the first quarter ended. Fenimore's short plunge gave A&M the lead for keeps, but just before the half, Wedemeyer lateraled to Fred DeSalvo, who weaved his way through Aggie defenders 44 yards for a touchdown. The conversion missed, and A&M led at halftime.

While the Cowboy passing game was off, the ground game produced another Fenimore TD plunge in the third period, and Jim Reynolds opened the fourth stanza by leaping a yard for a score. Reynolds winged a 20-yard TD pass to Joe Thomas in the final minutes to end the wild scoring derby.

In his battle with Wedemeyer, Fenimore got the best of the total offense struggle, netting 206 yards in 36 plays while Wedemeyer had 184 yards in 25 plays. Fenimore also punted four times for an average of 53.2 yards.

MEMPHIS -- Only 15,069 fans braved chilling weather in Crump Stadium as the William and Mary Indians made the most of Oklahoma A&M's mistakes for a 20-0 win in the second and final Delta Bowl.

The Indians never got outside their own 36-yard-line in the first half, but quarterback Tommy Korshcowski passed 12 yards to Lou Hoitsma in the third period for a touchdown. A Cowboy fumble set the stage for Korshcowski's 22-yard scoring aerial to Jack Bruce in the fourth period.

With A&M driving, Indian tackle Lou

Creekmur picked off a deflected Bob Carey pass and rumbled 70 yards for the game's last tally. Jack Cloud was the only Indian rusher of the day, gaining 78 yards in 14 tries while Kenny Roof had 63 in seven cracks for the Cowboys.

LOUISVILLE - Playing on a baseball diamond and in tennis shoes, Oklahoma State's ground game, behind Duane Wood and Forrest Campbell, staked the Pokes to a 15-point lead, and a rock-ribbed defense surrendered only a late TD pass from Joe Majors to Carl Meyer.

Wood scored both OSU touchdowns on rushes of one and 17 yards. But Campbell, who netted 130 yards on 26 carries, was chosen outstanding player of the game. Dick Soergel engineered the OSU offense while Vandiver Childs, Jim Howard, Sonny Keys, John Calvin and Fred Latham manned a mauling Cowpoke defense.

The game was televised over ABC-TV with Harry Wismer handling the play-by-play duties and Howard Cosell providing color commentary. Only 7,000 frigid fans turned out for the first and last edition of the Bluegrass Bowl.

BRIGHAM YOUNG	6

TEMPE -- A slow-starting offense aided by a spunky defense lifted OSU to a 16-6 verdict over Brigham Young, champs of the WAC.

State didn't get a first down in the opening quarter as the Cougars posted a pair of field goals. Midway in the second period Charlie Weatherbie pitched to Kenny Walker, who scored from 12 yards out. OSU made three deep drives in the third period but settled for a single field goal, a 42-yarder by Abby Daigle.

After subduing a fourth-quarter Cougar drive at the OSU 28, the Pokes wedged their way past midfield in a time-consuming drive. Leonard Thompson then lofted the halfback pass to split end Gerald Bain for 40 yards and the clinching score.

State's Phillip Dokes decked Cougar quarterback Gary Shiede late in the first period with a jarring tackle which dampened BYU hopes but understudy Mark Giles almost bailed the Cougars out of trouble with his fourth-quarter efforts. Dokes picked up the outstanding defensive player trophy and Walker was chosen top offensive player as OSU dominated play in the second half.

ORLANDO -- Billed as a showdown between Brigham Young pass-happy quarterback Gifford Nielsen and Oklahoma State running back Terry Miller, the Cowboy defense and Miller were the standouts in a 49-21 triumph for Oklahoma State.

Defensive tackle Chris Dawson intercepted a Nielsen pass in the first quarter and returned it 36 yards for a TD. And while Nielsen completed 23-of-34 passes for 209 yards and a TD, he was intercepted three more times by defensive backs Milton Kirven, Gary Irons and Jerry Cramer.

Meanwhile, Miller ran wild for 173 yards and had scoring jaunts of 78, 6, 3 and 1 yards. The Cowboys rolled up 402 yards total offense, including 375 on the ground, to rout BYU. Cowboy running back Robert Turner supported Miller's running with 80 yards on 22 attempts and a TD, and All-America tackle Phillip Dokes led a parade of OSU defenders that kept constant pressure on Nielsen.

TEXAS A&M	33
OKLAHOMA STATE	16

SHREVEPORT -- Oklahoma State's nationally-ranked defense did its job for a while, but Texas A&M opened up late in the first half to score two quick touchdowns and went on to hand the Cowboys just their second bowl loss, 33-16, in the Independence Bowl.

OSU's opportunistic offense turned an Aggie fumble into a 7-0 lead only minutes into the game. Defensive back Pete Diclementi recovered a fumble for the Pokes at A&M's 25, and running back Ernest Anderson got the score several plays later on a one-yard plunge.

The Aggies responded with the first of four David Hardy field goals to cut the margin to 7-3, but all-Big Eight kicker Larry Roach put OSU back up by seven, 10-3, with a 43-yarder of his own. Midway through the second period, Hardy closed the margin to 10-6, and moments later the Aggies scored two lightning quick cross-country aerial touchdowns to move to a 20-10 halftime lead.

Two Hardy field goals upped that lead to 26-10 before the Cowboys drove 66 yards for Vince Orange's five-yard TD burst. OSU was crippled by injuries to several running backs during the contest, and A&M showed its versatility with 223 rushing yards and 225 passing yards before a record 47,300. Linebacker Mike Green led OSU's defense and was voted outstanding defensive player.

OKLAHOMA STATE	24

HOUSTON -- Quarterback Rusty Hilger and tailback Ernest Anderson sparked Oklahoma State past Baylor, 24-14, as a near-sellout crowd of 50,090 in the Astrodome watched the 25th Bluebonnet Bowl.

Anderson carried the ball 27 times for 143 yards and a touchdown while Hilger completed 12-of-17 for 137 yards and a pair of touchdowns to ignite the Oklahoma State win. Hilger, who was later named MVP, left the game late in the first half with a slight concussion. He didn't return but Anderson's nifty running and another strong performance by the Cowboy defense kept Baylor at bay.

OSU held the Bears to just 134 yards on the ground and the Cowboy secondary picked off two passes to help seal the win. Touchdown passes from Hilger to Malcolm Lewis and Jamie Harris and a one-yard scoring run by Anderson gave OSU a 21-0 advantage before Baylor got on the scoreboard late in the first half.

The Pokes added a Larry Roach field goal in the first half while Baylor found the endzone an additional time in the second to complete the scoring.

OKLAHOMA STATE	21
SOUTH CAROLINA	14

JACKSONVILLE -- After South Carolina overcame a 13-point Oklahoma State lead, the Cowboys stormed 88 yards to score the decisive touchdown on a bruising, 25-yard Rusty Hilger-to-tight end Barry Hanna pass play with just over a minute left in the game to hand OSU a 21-14 victory before a record crowd of 82,138 in the 40th Annual Gator Bowl.

Hanna, who scored his only touchdown of the season on that play, banged off two tacklers and carried a few more into the end zone with him as he tip-toed down the sideline for the game-saving score.

Earlier in the game, the Cowpokes bullied their way to a 13-0 lead. Freshman tailback Thurman Thomas, the game's MVP when he rushed for 155 yards and a touchdown and passed for a TD, leaped over from one yard out at the end of O-State's first possession. Then, early in the second quarter when it appeared the Gamecocks had stalled the Cowpokes at the Carolina six-yard line, Thomas took a Hilger pitch, ran right and suddenly stopped and threw back left to a wide open Hilger for the score. The conversion attempt was wide and it was a play to haunt the Pokes until Hanna's heroics.

Carolina regained the lead quickly in the third quarter on aerial bombs of 24 and 57 yards, but the rest of the time the stubborn Cowboy defense kept the Gamecock attack in a fog. OSU's final drive was endangered only once, that on a fourth-and-sixth situation at midfield, but Hilger hit the reliable Hanna for 13 yards to the Carolina 36. Hilger mixed up the defense beautifully by sending Thomas up the middle on a draw play for 11 yards and then came heart-stopping magic on the TD pass to Hanna.

FLORIDA STATE	34
OKLAHOMA STATE	23

JACKSONVILLE -- The 17th-ranked Florida State Seminoles sprinted out to an early 13-point margin before No. 18 Oklahoma State got untracked, and despite a third-quarter surge, the Seminole aerial attack was too much as the Cowboys dropped a 34-23 decision in front of a bi-partisan crowd of 79,417 in the 41st annual Gator Bowl.

In what was touted as an explosive FSU offense versus a stingy OSU defense, FSU coach Bobby Bowden decided to go with a freshman quarterback and a third-string senior tailback just two weeks prior to the game. The decision proved effective as the Seminoles exploded for 569 total yards, 231 on the ground and 338 through the air.

FSU stunned the Pokes with a 45-yard pass on the first play of the game and threw for 214 yards in the opening half. The Seminoles took a 27-3 lead into the middle of the third quarter but OSU put a pair of quick touchdowns on the board to cut the deficit to 27-17.

Following a blocked punt by OSU freshman Milton Cockrell a comeback seemed possible. However, the Cowboys could not mount a drive and were forced to punt.

Florida State MVP quarterback Chip Ferguson then went to work again and nine plays later finalized the scoring on a one-yard keeper. OSU, losing for only the third time in ten postseason appearances, totaled 369 yards, but saw sophomore sensation Thurman Thomas limited to just 97 yards on 26 carries.

WEST VIRGINIA	33
OKLAHOMA STATE	35

EL PASO -- In one of the most entertaining postseason games of the year, Oklahoma State rallied to defeat West Virginia 35-33 in the snow of the 1987 John Hancock Sun Bowl.

The heroes for Oklahoma State were many but the list was topped by tailback Thurman Thomas who rushed for 157 yards on 33 carries and scored four touchdowns. It was a fitting way for the Cowboy All-America to end his collegiate career. He was named MVP of the bowl and played in front of a national television audience on CBS.

It wasn't easy for OSU, however. The Cowboys scored first on a five-yard run by Thomas, set up by a long Mike Gundy-to-Hart Lee Dykes pass play. West Virginia tied it 7-7 later in the first quarter, but OSU came back to take the lead 14-7 on a nine-yard run by Thomas.

The OSU lead was short-lived. West Virginia scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the second quarter that went unanswered by Oklahoma State and the Mountaineers led 24-14 at the half.

The Cowboys took the lead with 1:43 left in the third quarter on a six-yard pass from Gundy to J.R. Dillard and the successful PAT made it 28-27. The Cowboys took a 35-27 lead in the fourth quarter on a four-yard run by Thomas. O-State had to hold one more time, however, as West Virginia drove for a touchdown with just 1:13 left. OSU defender Shawn Mackey's goal line tackle on the two-point conversion try stopped West Virginia from tying the game in the final minute.

1988 HOLIDAY BOWL

December 30, 1988 • San Diego, Calif.

OKLAHOMA STATE	62
WYOMING	14

SAN DIEGO -- Touted as one of the great offensive showdowns of the '88 season, Oklahoma State and Wyoming found themselves in a 7-7 deadlock at the conclusion of the first quarter of the Sea World Holiday Bowl.

But one set of Cowboys, the group from Stillwater, forged a 17-7 lead at halftime and broke the contest wide open in the third quarter on their way to a 62-14 romp. OSU's high-powered offense was as explosive as ever, as the trio of Heisman winner Barry Sanders, All-American Hart Lee Dykes and Mike Gundy joined forces for the last time in front of a crowd of 60,718 at Jack Murphy Stadium.

Sanders rushed for 222 yards on 29 carries with five touchdowns -- all Holiday Bowl records. Dykes broke the Holiday Bowl record for reception yardage, as he caught 10 passes for 163 yards, including a 25-yard strike from Gundy in the fourth quarter. Gundy completed 20-of-24 passes for 315 yards and two touchdowns and caught a 17-yard pass from Sanders to set up another score.

Not only bowl records fell, though. Gundy's 315 yards through the air set a school record, and the Cowboys' 698 yards in total offense was the third-highest output in OSU history. OSU's defense proved to be the biggest surprise of the contest, however, as they allowed Wyoming only 33 yards rushing and 204 yards in total offense. Sim Drain, named the Defensive Player of the Game, had four tackles and two sacks and led the OSU defense to its lowest yardage allowance since 1986.

PURDUE	33
OKLAHOMA STATE	20

SAN ANTONIO -- Oklahoma State earned its first postseason appearance since 1988 and a berth opposite Purdue in the Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

The Big 12 vs. Big 10 showdown was tight through three quarters before Purdue sprinted past the Cowboys by a 33-20 margin. More than 55,000 were in the Alamo Dome, including 30,000-plus Orange-clad Cowboys fans.

Oklahoma State drew first blood when Tim Sydnies connected on a 34-yard field goal with 5:31 left in the first quarter. The lead was short-lived, however, as Purdue scored on an 18-yard pass from Billy Dicken with 1:19 left in the initial quarter. Another Sydnies field goal brought OSU to within one, 7-6 before Purdue ended the first-half scoring with a field goal of its own and a 10-6 halftime advantage.

The second half opened with the teams trading touchdowns. Purdue scored first at the 12:02 mark on a one-yard run by Dicken. OSU answered with a 21-yard run by Jamaal Fobbs and trailed by a 16-13 margin with nine minutes left in the third. Purdue put the game away with two straight touchdowns and a 37-yard field goal. The Boilermakers led 33-13 when R.W. McQuarters scored on a 17-yard pass from Tony Lindsay with 55 seconds to play to account for the final margin.

SOUTHERN MISS	23
OKLAHOMA STATE	33

HOUSTON -- Rashaun Woods put on another memorable show for Oklahoma State, catching nine passes for 164 yards and a touchdown in a 33-23 victory over Southern Mississippi in the Houston Bowl.

Woods earned Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Game honors, helping the Cowboys complete a memorable season that included victories over Nebraska, Texas A&M and Oklahoma.

Tatum Bell ran for 160 yards on 13 carries, including a 22-yard score with 8:07 to play that gave Oklahoma State the lead for good. Luke Phillips kicked two of his four field goals in the decisive fourth quarter for the Cowboys (8-5).

Trailing 20-13 at the half, Southern Miss (7-6) took its only lead of the game on a 2-yard touchdown run by James Walley and a 30-yard field goal by Curt Jones, his third of the game, in the third quarter. The Cowboys pulled even on the first play of the fourth quarter on Phillips' 28-yard field goal.

Josh Fields threw for 310 yards, and his 33-yard pass to Billy Bajema set up Bell's go-ahead touchdown, which put Oklahoma State back in front 30-23. Following a punt by Southern Mississippi to the Oklahoma State 2, Bell broke off a career-long 88-yard gain to the Golden Eagles 10. Phillips kicked a 24-yarder with 5:15 to play. He also connected from 46 and 52 yards.

Woods highlighted Oklahoma State's first half with a 51-yard touchdown catch from Fields with 1:38 left in the second quarter. Woods was double-covered on the play, but Southern Mississippi defenders Greg Brooks and Antoine Cash collided, allowing Woods to sprint untouched into the end zone.

MISSISSIPPI	31
OKLAHOMA STATE	28

DALLAS — Eli Manning threw for 259 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score to lead No. 16 Mississippi to a 31-28 victory over No. 21 Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl on Friday.

Manning's 1-yard keeper in the fourth quarter capped a 97-yard drive, and completed a run of 24 straight points by Ole Miss (10-3), which finished with its first 10-win season since 1971. That was just enough to overcome the Cowboys (9-4).

Rashaun Woods caught a 17-yard TD pass to get Oklahoma State to 31-28 with 4:38 left, just four minutes after Vernand Morency's second touchdown run.

Woods set Cotton Bowl records with 11 catches for 223 yards. On the 72-yard drive that ended with Morency's second TD, he caught two passes for 63 yards, both on plays when cornerback Travis Johnson was called for pass interference and still couldn't prevent the catches.

Oklahoma State's Josh Fields set a Cotton Bowl record with 307 yards on 21-of-33 passing. The junior's touchdown gave him 55 in his career, breaking the school record set by offensive coordinator Mike Gundy (1986-89).

The appearance at the Cotton Bowl was the first for the Cowboys since Jan. 1, 1945 and it marked OSU's first January bowl game since Jan. 1, 1946 when the Cowboys won the Sugar Bowl.

SAN ANTONIO — Justin Zwick, replacing the suspended Troy Smith, threw for 189 yards and a touchdown, and Ted Ginn Jr. and Lydell Ross each scored, leading No. 24 Ohio State to a 33-7 win over Oklahoma State in the 12th annual Alamo Bowl.

Zwick, who lost the starting job to Smith after hurting his shoulder in the sixth game, completed 17 of 27 passes despite a mild hamstring pull.

Ross rushed for 99 yards on 12 carries, and Mike Nugent kicked four field goals for the Buckeyes (8-4) to become the school's career scoring leader.

The Buckeyes took advantage of two early turnovers, and never let the Cowboys (7-5) get anything going offensively.

Oklahoma State quarterback Donovan Woods completed 15 of 34 passes for 137 yards and rushed for another 80 yards. Vernand Morency, one of the nation's top rushers this season, was limited to 24 yards on eight carries.

On the first series, Woods underthrew receiver Chijuan Mack and the pass was picked off by Ohio State linebacker Bobby Carpenter. Three plays later, Zwick hit a diving Anthony Gonzalez with a 23-yard touchdown pass.

After a 37-yard field goal by Nugent, the Cowboys were driving when Woods lost his grip on the ball near midfield while trying to run up the middle. Defensive lineman Joel Penton recovered and Nugent capped the drive with a 35-yard field goal to give Ohio State a 13-0 lead with nearly six minutes remaining in the first quarter.

OKLAHOMA STATE	34
ALABAMA	31

SHREVEPORT, La. — Oklahoma State's dominating performance was jeopardized by a couple of late mistakes, but OSU still rallied past Alabama for its first bowl win since the 2002 season.

Jason Ricks kicked a 27-yard field goal with 8.9 seconds remaining to give Oklahoma State a 34-31 victory over the Crimson Tide. Dantrell Savage ran for 112 yards and a touchdown and made the key play on the winning drive as he took a screen pass from Bobby Reid for 26 yards on third-and-9 to the Alabama 15 to put Ricks in prime position.

Alabama tried to ice Ricks with three timeouts, but the sophomore sent the kick through the uprights.

OSU - ranked 16th nationally in total offense - outgained Alabama, 419-276. The Cowboys rushed for 207 yards compared to 108 yards for the Tide. The Cowboys scooped up an Alabama fumble on the Tide's 38-yard line to set up the opening score. Savage ran the final yard to cap a 38-yard drive and make it 7-0 Oklahoma State.

Alabama tied it on an 18-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Matt Caddell with 3:32 remaining in the first quarter, but OSU went ahead 14-7 on Toston's 4-yard run. The Cowboys stretched their lead to 17-7 on a 28-yard field goal by Ricks. Alabama cut the margin to 17-14 on a 1-yard run by fullback Tim Castille but was unable to stop the Cowboys final drive of the half. Oklahoma State took it 64 yards, capped by a 7-yard run by Toston for a 24-14 lead at the half.

In the third quarter Jamie Christensen kicked a 24 yard field goal to pull Alabama three points closer before Reid hit Adarius Bowman for a 10-yard score to give Oklahoma State a 14 point lead at 31-17. Keith Toston became the first Cowboy true freshman to run for two touchdowns in a bowl game.

TEMPE -- In a season of full of offensive superlatives, even Oklahoma State fans had to be impressed by the juggernaut the Cowboys put on the field in the Insight Bowl.

OSU scored touchdowns on its first five offensive possessions and generated 322 yards of offense in the first half on its way to a 49-33 victory over Indiana in the Cowboys' second bowl win in two seasons.

Zac Robinson, offensive MVP, ran for 70 yards and passed for 302 in one of the top total offense outputs in Oklahoma State history. Freshman Dez Bryant had 117 receiving yards and two touchdowns in the win.

The Cowboys gouged the Hoosiers with five scoring drives, all less than four minutes in length, to take complete control of the game in the first half.

2008 HOLIDAY BOWL

Dec. 30, 2008 • San Diego, Calif.

OKLAHOMA STATE	31
OREGON	42

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Oklahoma State quarterback Zac Robinson passed for a Cowboy bowl-record 329 yards despite playing most of the second half with a separated throwing shoulder and receiver Dez Bryant set a new Holiday Bowl record with 13 receptions for 167 yards and a touchdown despite badly injuring his left ankle in the second quarter, but it was not enough to push the Cowboys to victory over No. 15 Oregon, who won the 2008 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl, 42-31.

Behind Robinson and Bryant, the Cowboys raced out to a 17-7 lead after the first quarter, but the game changed when Bryant went down with his injury in the second. Neither team was able to muster any points in the second quarter, but a 91-yard kick return by Oregon's Walter Thurmond to open the second half led to a 1-yard touchdown run by Duck quarterback Jeremiah Masoli. Oregon took the lead later in the quarter after Masoli struck with a 41-yard touchdown run.

Playing with a debilitating shoulder injury for most of the third quarter and the entire fourth quarter, Robinson was gutsy in bringing the Cowboys back for two more touchdown drives, but the Oregon defense made the stops it needed down the stretch to seal the Duck victory.

Oregon was clearly the more physical team on both sides of the ball, with running back Jeremiah Johnson (119 rushing yards) and Masoli (106 rushing yards) both going crossing the century mark in the game.

Playing after having his knee scoped after the regular-season finale vs. Oklahoma, Cowboy running back Kendall Hunter was clearly not himself with 13 carries for only 37 yards. He did punch in a pair of touchdowns from three yards and four yards, respectively.

2010 COTTON BOWL

Jan. 2, 2010 • Arlington, Texas

OLE MISS	21

In a game dominated by defense from the start, Mississippi was a 21-7 winner over Oklahoma State in the 2010 Cotton Bowl Classic. It was the first Cotton Bowl game played at the brand-new Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

Oklahoma State's defense recorded a goal-line stand and forced five turnovers (four interceptions and one fumble recovery), but it was not enough to overcome OSU's seven turnovers.

Senior linebacker Andre Sexton earned the game's defensive most valuable player honor by bagging 10 tackles, one tackle for loss and two interceptions. Seniors Lucien Antoine and Terrance Anderson also added interceptions and defensive end Jeremiah Price recovered a fumble.

While the defense played well enough to win on most days, the OSU offense had trouble solving Ole Miss's defense. The Cowboys went three-and-out on each of their first five drives and finished the game with only nine first downs.

OSU's lone score came on a one-yard pass from running back Keith Toston to tight end Wilson Youman in the third quarter that tied the game at 7-7.

It was all Rebels from that point, however, as the Rebels scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns and forced Cowboy turnovers on each of OSU's six possessions in the final stanza to derail the Cowboys' comeback hopes.

PRESIDENT

BURNS HARGIS

University President

Burns Hargis was named the 18th President of Oklahoma State University and the OSU System in December 2007 and took office March 10, 2008.

Hargis oversees one of the nation's most comprehensive land-grant university systems with more than 33,000 students, 7,400 employees, and campuses located in Stillwater, Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Okmulgee.

He has guided OSU to record fundraising and is leading the $1 billion Branding Success campaign focused on student scholarships, faculty and other vital resources and programs. He also is overseeing a construction boom that is transforming the OSU campus to be more competitive in academics and athletics. Hargis has a bold vision of creating a modern land-grant university that cuts across disciplines to better prepare students for success.

Hargis, who holds degrees in accounting from Oklahoma State University and in law from the University of Oklahoma, is the second OSU graduate to lead the university as president. Oliver S. Willham, who served as president from 1952 to 1966, graduated from then Oklahoma A&M in 1923.

Before being named OSU President, Hargis had a long and distinguished legal and business career, with active civic and philanthropic leadership across many fronts. He also is familiar to many Oklahomans through the political perspective and wit he provided on the award-winning television program "Flashpoint".

Prior to coming to OSU, he was Vice Chairman of Bank of Oklahoma, N.A. Before joining Bank of Oklahoma in 1997, Hargis practiced law in Oklahoma City for 28 years, most recently with the firm of McAfee & Taft. He is a former president of the Oklahoma County Bar Association, former president of the Oklahoma Bar Foundation, and is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

Hargis served as vice-chairman of the Oklahoma State Election Board, the Oklahoma Constitutional Revision Commission, and served as Chairman of the Oklahoma Commission for Human Services. He is a former member of the Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Hargis was a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Oklahoma in 1990.

A firm believer in the power of imagination and collaboration, Hargis was the first chair of the Oklahoma Creativity Project. He has served and chaired many boards, including the Board of Regents for the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges of Oklahoma State University.

Hargis received the state's highest honor when he was inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame in 2009. Hargis and his wife, Ann, have two married children and three grandchildren.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MIKE HOLDER

Vice President For Athletic Programs/
Athletic Director

2010 COWBOY FOOTBALL

Mike Holder hit the ground running when he was named Vice President for Athletic Programs and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Oklahoma State University on Sept. 16, 2005.

In his 32 years of leading his alma mater's golf program, Holder's name became synonymous with success not only on the golf course, but in fundraising, facility development and the academic performance of his student-athletes. In fact, a case could be made that Holder took Oklahoma State's already strong golf program and transformed it into America's best.

Those same leadership skills have served him well in his short time guiding OSU's athletic department. His plan and vision for the betterment of Cowboy and Cowgirl athletics have already begun to take shape, most notably with the completion of Boone Pickens Stadium. The stadium, now a horseshoe with more than 60,000 seats, features more than 100 suites.

Under Holder's direction, the Oklahoma State University Department of Athletics has continued to move forward while maintaining its traditional strengths. A total of 11 OSU sports programs have reached the national top 10 over the last two years. At the same time, the Cowboy football team has appeared in four straight bowl games for the first time in school history. OSU has won three more national team championships under Holder's watch, raising the school's championship count to 49 – the fourth best total in the country and tops in the Big 12 Conference.

Holder's tenure has also featured landmark fundraising by the athletic department, including the $165 million gift from T. Boone Pickens that pushed OSU's facility drive into high gear. The legendary OSU alum also helped complete the west end zone project with another $63 million gift in 2008. At Holder's urging, OSU Athletics has placed a new emphasis on scholarship endowments. That endowment drive has seen Oklahoma State climb from dead last in the Big 12 to second with gifts and commitments nearing $35 million. Just three years ago, OSU's endowment stood at $2.1 million.

Perhaps Holder's adept fundraising stems from his "fund-giving". He and his wife, Robbie, illustrated their commitment to Oklahoma State when they donated $500,000 for the first fully endowed scholarship for Cowboy football. The scholarship is named for former OSU player, the late Vernon Grant. The Holders' lifetime giving to OSU surpasses $2.5 million, including $1 million for an entrepreneurship super chair at OSU in the Spears School of Business.

"Robbie and I made the gift to the college of business because of (OSU donors) Malone and Amy Mitchell," Holder said at the announcement. "Having two degrees in business was the icing on the cake. I would like to see the new program nationally recognized and make a difference in the lives of young people."

Malone and Amy Mitchell had made a $57.2 million gift to OSU, split evenly between athletics and academics, on the day the Holders announced their $1 million gift.

Things are on the upswing at the turnstiles as well. Oklahoma State set new school records in 2008 and 2009 in football season ticket sales reaching nearly 46,000 in 2009. The four largest crowds in OSU football history visited Boone Pickens Stadium in 2009.

Holder smoothly administered his first high-profile job search when Oklahoma State went looking for a men's basketball coach. The pressure was on to fill a position that had been occupied by two of the winningest coaches in college basketball history in Henry Iba and Eddie Sutton. Holder tabbed Travis Ford for the job and the first-year coach immediately validated the decision by taking OSU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2005 as the Cowboys advanced to the second round with a thin roster that battled to the very end. Ford's second year in Stillwater also resulted in an NCAA Tournament trip.

During his tenure as the men's golf coach, Holder's successes included not only his team's results on the course, but his players' performances in the classroom and beyond. His vision and fundraising abilities resulted in the creation of Karsten Creek, a magnificent golf course in Stillwater, selected as the Best New Public Course in 1994 by Golf Digest magazine. In 2000, Holder's team claimed the national championship, marking the eighth time his squad carried home the NCAA trophy. And while high national finishes are the norm at Oklahoma State, the accomplishments of his teams never stopped at the 18th hole.

Holder took over his OSU coaching post on July 1, 1973, and during his tenure, his teams set student-athlete standards that were unequaled.

While he coached more than 110 All-America selections, including 38 first-team choices, and has numerous former players competing on the PGA Tour, overseas and on mini-tours, Holder saw to it that his players also excelled in the classroom. During his tenure, OSU produced three Ben Hogan Award winners, which is based on academic and athletic excellence nationwide. Kevin Wentworth earned the honor in 1990, Trip Kuehne claimed the prestigious award in 1995 and Hunter Mahan was named the 2003 recipient. Kuehne was OSU's outstanding male graduate in 1995 as well.

Only 14 times since 1984 has a golfer been named first-team athletic All-America and academic All-America in the same season, and nine of those student-athletes were from Oklahoma State. Holder had 21 academic All-America selections from the inception of that honor in 1984 until he vacated the head coaching position for the AD's chair, as well as countless academic all-Big Eight and all-Big 12 selections.

Holder is one of five coaches in NCAA history, regardless of sport, to win a national championship in four different decades. Three times Holder coached the Cowboys to the national team title the same year an OSU individual also claimed medalist honors (1978, 1987 and 2000). Along the way, he claimed 25 conference championships. His 21 Big Eight championships were the second most by a head coach in any sport, trailing only Kansas basketball coach Phog Allen.

As a student-athlete, Holder was the 1970 Big Eight medalist and led OSU to the conference team title. He was a third-team All-American as a junior and a senior and an honorable mention All-American as a sophomore.

Holder, a graduate of Ardmore High School, earned his degree in marketing from Oklahoma State in 1970 and completed work on his MBA at OSU in 1973.

OSU SPIRIT

Pistol Pete was named as America's Best Mascot by ESPN.com.

Frank Eaton was the inspiration for Pistol Pete.

The OSU Spirit Squad won the 2010 NCA national championship.

OSU PROUD

Alumni of Oklahoma State University are as loyal to their alma mater as any group in America. Just look around the Stillwater campus. OSU's director of athletics, head football coach and head wrestling coach are all graduates of Oklahoma State.

Many factors contribute to the "college experience" – not the least of which is gaining a feeling of belonging and a sense of loyalty to the school, its faculty and staff, the community that embraces the university, and the athletic teams that compete to garner conference and national honors.

Wearing school colors and displaying emblems of the university are life-long symbols of allegiance. For Oklahoma State, Orange Peel and Homecoming are yearly celebrations that bring much activity and excitement.

THE COWBOY TRAIL

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularity, the Tigers. But by 1924 Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

PISTOL PETE

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A & M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.

FRANK EATON BEFORE PISTOL PETE

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight-years-old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete!

BULLET

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits next to the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in Stillwater.
